YOUNG'S BIG STORE AT ALBANY QUITS BUSINESS

After 49 years of successful merchandising, the Young Department store will quit business at once. The entire stock and fixtures have been bought by Messrs L. E. and H. J. Hamilton. The Young and Hamilton stocks will be combined and offered to the public in a sale of such tremendous magnitude that it is without parallel in the history of this state.

Special arrangements have been made with the railroad companies to accommodate the crowds coming in from surrounding country. Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 1, 2, 3, they will run
