WAS TRAPPER WHITE LOST OR MURDERED

Many Detroit People Now Believe That
He Was Killed Instead of Being Lost

Parties from Detroit report that nothing has yet been found of Wm. White, the trapper, who has been missing for a couple of weeks, and hopes of finding him are practically given up. Instead there is a well defined rumor that he has been murdered. Not only that, but Detroit people, according to the informant of the Democrat, have placed their suspicions strongly on a certain resident of the town. Some have been so confident that they even notified the subject, who told them that they could prove nothing, to go ahead with their accusations. The sheriff at Salem has been notified and perhaps the governor.

Detroit is pretty well stirred up over the matter. Until the case is more thoroughly investigated no names can be mentioned, nor can even the story be told as people there believe it has been enacted.—Albany Democrat.

Saw "Peg O'My Heart"

On Friday evening quite a number of Scio people motored over to Albany to hear the high class play, "Peg O'My Heart." All pronounced the play exceedingly interesting and the production much above that given to ordinary high-class plays.

Those going over were Mr. and Mrs. P. H. McDonald, Dr. and Mrs. Hobson, Dr. and Mrs. Prill, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Warner, Carl Cyrus and Miss Myrtle Knauf.

Post Carriers Utensils

Hood River, March 31.—The largest shipment by parcel post ever received here came in this week, when S. W. Stanton and family, removing from Sherman county to the west side, mailed a portion of their household goods.

Trunks, washboilers and washboards, kitchen utensils and prats of beds, all wrapped separately, came through the mail.

The parcels were delivered by rural free delivery and formed two good loads for the carrier.

Papers Act

In Tennessee, when a man is too poor to give bonds to pay costs of a suit at law, the state assumes the responsibility of the bonds.

W. E. Brown has entered suit against me, both in Albany and in Scio, in which both suits were dismissed for lack of responsible bonds. Now a third suit, entered before circuit court has been started by Mr. Brown.

Now I am fully responsible for all my debts and am willing to and able to give bonds for any suit I may bring in the courts of Oregon. I know that I am in the right and I will not pay money that I justly do not owe.

J. S. Warwick
