

LOCAL BREVITIES

The new harness shop will supply a long felt want in Scio.

Mr. Lindley and J. A. Bilyeu drove over to Albany Saturday.

Bob Peery of up Crabtree creek, was in town Tuesday on business.

John Gill is reported to be getting, practically, no better, but is growing weaker.

We have Oliver 60-tooth harrows which we are closing out at $12.75. Chas. Wesely.

It is reported that several more automobiles are being added to the growing list of Scio and vicinity.

Ed Flemming went over to Albany Friday afternoon, in the interest of what is known as the Pettit road.

Dr. T. K. Sanderson and family went to Portland Saturday morning for a few days visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wesely and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stepanek drove to Albany Sunday in the Wesely auto.

Billie Anderson, W. H. Sharp and Mr. Cameron, of Albany, were over looking after business matters, last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ewing and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bilyeu, drove to Albany Saturday afternoon in the Ewing auto.

Mr. Hart and son, Mr. Blevins and son and Mr. Jones, all of Tangent, drove over on a business trip Tuesday morning.

Between selling automobiles and attending to his practice, Dr. Prill has about all the business he can attend to these days.

Mrs. Nellie Gunsauls, Miss Dolly Daley and Mrs. Brown, of Lebanon, made Scio relatives and friends a short visit last Sunday.

W. E. Brown who, since vacating the hotel, has been living on the south side, moved away from town, Monday, probably to Albany.

Bornum, a Belgium stallion, owned by Freeman Morton, of Lebanon, will make the season at the Scio Livery Stables from Monday noon to Tuesday noon of each week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. MacDonald, Mrs. Sarah Morris and Mrs. Caldwell, drove up to Springfield in the MacDonald auto last Sunday. They returned Monday via Corvallis.

Chas. Wesely was in Portland over last Sunday and witnessed the big Blake, McFall Co. fire. Charlie said all the fire engines in Portland seemed powerless to check the flames for a spell.

Roger Cain with his big auto truck, took Mother Wesely and several others of the Wesely family down to the Green bridge, last Sunday, where they enjoyed a sort of farewell picnic party before Mrs. Wesely and a number of her children start for a visit to Kansas.

If Dr. Hobson, Roll Morris, and John Sticha had stayed away from Portland last week, the Beavers might have won their first game on the home grounds. But these Scio gentlemen were too much of a hoodo.

J. S. Sticha has added an electric carbonator to his equipment, by which he can give his customers all kinds of soda drinks of a quality not hitherto known in Scio. The machine cost as much as you would have to pay for a good horse.

A more acceptable cleanup than we have had during the past two weeks, could not be asked for. Farmers are ready for seeding and they have improved every day. They say the ground never worked better than this spring and coming at just the right time, the fine weather almost insures a bumper crop.

The Scio Tribune $1.25 per year

The livery stable boys complain of having a very good business.

Jerry Keeney, of Sweet Home, was in town today on business.

A. E. Edwards and family drove over to Albany Saturday afternoon.

Lynn Daley, of Portland, made a short visit to the family home, last week.

Albany's third big market day and stallion parade is billed for next Saturday.

M. L. Southard and A. E. Brown, of Lebanon, came over last Thursday on business.

Roger Cain drove his big auto truck, with a load, over to Albany Monday in two hours.

J. H. Wright, agent for Western Stock Journal, of Oregon City, was in town yesterday on business.

Miss Bessie Morris returned to Lebanon the first of the week, after a several days visit with home folks.

People are beginning to plant their main gardens. Potatoes and cabbage for winter use, to come on later.

Wm. Brenner has leased the ground inclosed by the fair grounds track and is putting a spring crop thereon.

W. H. Jennings, traveling passenger agent for the S. P. railroad, was hobnobbing with our business men, yesterday.

For Painting, Decorating and Papering of all kinds, see C. M. Coffey. All work finished in a thorough workman like manner.

Many farmers will finish seeding this week and nearly all will have finished at the end of the month if the weather continues favorable.

For Sale—A Ford automobile, in good condition, new tires, etc. All you have to do is get in and drive away. My reason for selling is failing eyesight. J. A. Bilyeu.

A job was called for from The Tribune office Tuesday morning just before noon. The work was finished and ready for delivery within one-half hour. This promptness is pleasing to our customers.

W. C. Cusick, of Union, Union county, Ore., arrived last week on a visit to his sister, Mrs. E. J. Daley, of this city. Mr. Cusick is a botanist and went on up to Detroit to look for specimens.

Mrs. M. M. Peery of Springfield, who recently underwent a severe surgical operation, came down with the MacDonald party for a visit at the old homestead. Her recovery is slow but she is regaining gradually her health.

The Blake, McFall company's large paper warehouse was burned last Sunday night. Before the fire was extinguished the firm had rented another building and was ready for business before the close of Monday. Their loss was $150,000 with $90,000 insurance.

It is reported that an error has been found in one of the petitions for the proposed Pettit road, which may delay the opening of the same. Truly this short bit of road, which all agree will improve the Jordan thoroughfare, is having a hard time to get through.

Guy McKnight was down from Mill City for an over Sunday visit with homefolks. Guy says he is doing vastly better in the cleaning and pressing business than he expected. He also states that the river at the mill town is full of salmon, seeking spawning grounds.

The county road between the Eichenger farm and Thomas creek has been widened to standard width, the stakes being set on Monday by Supervisor Shelton. This is an important improvement as the roadway at this point was too narrow for sufficient grade and drainage.

Entertained Little Friends

Bertha Thayer entertained a few of her little friends at her home in the north part of town Saturday afternoon, it being her 8th birthday. Refreshments were served and a good time was had. Those present were: Bernadean Shumaker, Nellie Shoap, Gracie Long, Mary Wiley and Velma Edwards.

Mrs. John W. Richardson has been spending this week at the home of her son, Will Richardson, up in the Richardson Gap neighborhood.

Mrs. A. G. Prill gave a small "500" party to her numerous lady friends Tuesday evening. Four tables provided the players amusement.

If you want any of the daily papers, The Tribune will get them for you at Bargain Day rates, providing you pay for The Tribune one year in advance.

Smith's delivery horse took a sudden notion to go home yesterday afternoon. When he passed The Tribune office, he was going at a 2-minute gait, minus a driver. The wagon was, probably, scattered along the road.

A Greek girl, all the way from Greece, arrived in Albany to wed a Mill City bootblack. She came through the Panama canal and from there on a steamer to Portland. The Panama route is sure to become popular with foreign immigrants.

Because Roe Shelton has placed an auto bus on the Munkers mail route, the time for starting from the postoffice has been changed. He will leave 15 minutes later, morning and evening. The time for the morning train is 8:20, and for the evening train 2:25.

A young man and two young ladies were driving through the Richardson gap road last Sunday, when one of the wheels dropped into a chuck hole. This caused the coupling to break and the occupants of the buggy were dumped into the road. One of the girls received a very ugly cut in the left arm and the other a bruised face. By request the names are withheld.

Dr. T. K. Sanderson

DENTIST

Phone 27-7

SCIO OREGON

We have a few No. 40 Oliver Chill plows at a very low price. Come in and see us before you buy elsewhere. Chas. Wesely.

Call on the Scio Feed Company for garden seed in bulk and packages—all fresh.

We make a specialty of Friendship, Engagement and Wedding Rings. F. M. French & Son, Albany, Oregon.

See J. N. Weddle when you want a new telephone. He carries the best make on the market.

Scio Livery and Feed Stables

Having lately purchased these stables, it is our aim to conduct a first-class livery and feed stable in every respect. We are adding new teams and rigs which, with accomodating and courteous service, we feel sure will appeal to the public. Hacks meet all trains. Rigs for commercial men a specialty. Our prices are reasonable

TURNER & WILEY, Proprietors.

Why use cheap lubricating oil for your Motor, when you can get

Monogram Oil

of McDONALD & CYRUS

It is used in all of the racing cars and is the very best oil on the market today

We are prepared to fill your auto tank promptly and to make any repairs on your machine which may be required.

McDONALD & CYRUS

Garage and Service Station on South Side of Bridge

WHEN IN TOWN STOP AT

J. S. STICHA'S New Confectionery

We Are Headquarters for the Best Grade of Goods Carried in Our Line

Such Goods as these Cannot be bought every day at the price we offer you. You can afford to come to us to buy your suit this spring because our prices are low and the quality is the best. You can always feel sure that you are getting the best to to be had for the money here.

Our lines of Hats, Shoes and Shirts and all Men's and Boys Furnishings are very complete and you can choose your entire outfit at our store.

Mail orders receive prompt attention. Mail or phone us what you want, we send prepaid on approval. If not satisfactory in every way, you may return them and we will exchange. If satisfactory, you send money on receipt of goods.

THE BLAIN CLOTHING CO.
ALBANY OREGON