Tomato plants for sale. See Ota C. Compton.

F. E. Libby, of Jefferson, was in Scio Saturday.

Mrs. Don McKnight came down from Mill City Monday.

J. J. Barnes, of above Stayton, was a Scio visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Queener and Mrs. Joe Kornik, of Stayton, visited Mrs. J. S. Morris, last week.

Albert Young left last Thursday on a San Francisco trip, to take in the Panama fair and to visit his brother.

The condensery people report that they are now taking care of between 8000 and 9000 pounds of milk daily.

Albert Downing and Miss Ruth Hendryx, of Lacombe, were united in marriage by Rev. Leech in Albany Monday.

Mrs. Martha Hill, of Palouse, Wash., came down last Sunday to spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. J. S. Morris.

For Sale—Five passenger automobile in first class condition. A bargain if taken in the next five days. Enquire at this office.

William Williams, the supposed Lyons suicide, was found Thursday and was taken to Albany to be examined for insanity.

We expect to receive a car load of cement on or before June 8 and will make you a special price at West Scio on its arrival.

Chas. Wesely.

Henry Miller, and son Walter, returned from their trip over to the Sisters last Thursday. They expect to start back with their families about June 20.

The Tribune family is indebted to John Wesely for a most delightful joy ride in his Buick last Friday evening. Such little courtesies maketh the heart of ye editor glad.

Velma Edwards entertained a few of her little friends Tuesday afternoon, it being her eighth birthday. Refreshments were served out on the lawn, and the usual little games were indulged in.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bilyeu drove to Albany Monday to take Miss Johnson, the instructor of Domestic Science of our public schools, home. Miss Johnson will have charge of the same again next school year.

Hurray! Scio has won a base ball game. Last Sunday the Scio boys played the third game with the Jordan team. Jordan won the first two and Scio the third. Sunday's score was 9 to 6 in favor of Scio.

Being convinced that they could not get Secretary Bryan's scalp, political enemies are now centering their forces upon Secretary Daniels. They may get him. He is only a newspaper man and is liable to say what he thinks.

Guy McKnight caught a lull in his business and came down from Mill City last Friday. He says the mill company are putting on a full force of hands and they are working nine hours. They expect to be put on the 10-hour basis in a short time.

Our editorial friend, F. M. Brown of the Brownsville Times, has gathered a rather juicy plum in the way of chief clerk for the game warden. This clerkship is much better than to be the game warden. The warden's salary pays but three dollars per day, while the clerkship pays $150 per month. All the same, we congratulate Brother Brown in his new field. In the interim another Brown wields the editorial pen for the Times.

Logan berries are beginning to ripen.

Chas. Young came over from Corvallis Wednesday evening.

Mel Shelton of Albany, spent last Sunday with relatives in this city.

Mrs. Riley Shelton went to Portland Monday to take in the Rose show.

Dr. Hobson went to Portland Wednesday, expecting to drive an auto back.

For Rent—Small house, good garden spot, and chicken house; $5 per month. R. M. Cain.

Dr. and Mrs. Hobson, Wm. Brenner and Dean Morris went to the Rose show Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. MacDonald and Frank Morris drove down to Portland in the MacDonald car, last Tuesday.

Wanted—$1000 on unincumbered land (200 acres) worth $3000. The loan is a good one. Inquire at The Tribune office.

Married—At the home of the bride's parents, by Rev. Hays, on June 9, Ivan Miller and Miss Cora Meritt.

J. G. Fountain, a Jefferson merchant, came over with Mike Kelly Wednesday. Mike said he wanted to show Mr. Fountain a town.

E. C. Skelton owns a cow which he says pays him $22 per month besides supplying his family with milk and butter. Four or five such cows is worth a whole coral full of many which are being milked.

Rol Morris and Lloyd Luckenbach started on their mountain trip Tuesday morning. The first leg of the trip is to the Breitenbush hot springs then across the mountains to the Metolius. Each was mounted on a pony and Lloyd was leading a pack animal.

You and your children are safe if you wear Drs. Lowe & Turner's glasses—eyes safe and price safe—they cost no more than the ordinary kinds and you have the benefit of their skill and many years experience as exclusive eye and nerve specialists. Dr. Turner is recognized as one of the leading ophthalmologists of the Northwest. Consult them at Dr. Prill's office on Saturday, June 12. They do not go from house to house. One charge covers entire cost of examination. Glasses and frames are fully guaranteed whether they cost $2 or more.

A. J. Johnson, of Corvallis, came over Wednesday evening. On Thursday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Warner, Mr. Johnson and Dr. Prill went to Portland. The trip is made in the interest of Mr. Warner who, it is feared, is suffering from a very serious disease. Mr. Warner, however, at this time, seems considerably better than a few days ago. He was able to sit up in the car and The Tribune hopes, will come back feeling considerably better.
