

The Thrice-a-Week Edition of The New York World

Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly.
No Other Newspaper in the World Gives
So Much News at So Low a Price

The year 1914 has been the most extraordinary in the history of modern times. It has witnessed the outbreak of the great European war, a struggle so titanic that it makes all others look small.

You live in momentous times and you should not miss any of the tremendous events that are occurring. No other newspaper will inform you with the promptness and cheapness of the Thrice-a-Week Edition of the New York World. Moreover, a year's subscription will take you far into our next presidential campaign.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1 per year and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and The Scio Tribune together for $1.90. The regular price is $2.25.

If you want the Oregonian, the Journal or the Telegram, we will furnish it to you at less than "bargain day" rates, providing you are a subscriber to The Tribune.

The following is the method by which one busy woman gets results with the calls till: During the summer she has her callas in the garden border, where they receive the same care as do her vegetables. In September she pots them in good sized pots, allowing an inch of stones for drainage and using good, rich potting soil. When the new growth appears in December she places the pot in a crock and four or five times a week pours into the crock a quart of almost boiling water. She reports that her plants often bear four or five blossoms at a time.

Sweet Home Items

Last Friday Mr. and Mrs. M. Story celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. The affair had been planned for by their children and who had prepared a big dinner for the occasion. Invitations had been sent to a large number of people and they came in number to attend. Those present at the dinner were: Messrs and Madames J. S. Geil, W. H. Davis, J. W. Reed, W. H. Daugherty and family, P. W. Story and family, J. C. Wilkins, J. A. Thompson, N. Watkins, N. R. Luther, W. B. Thompson, P. W. Coulter, Morehead, Mrs. M. Cowitz, Mrs. Chas. Cowitz, Mrs. Lyon, Mrs. Wiley, Grandma Burnett, Grandma Galbraith, Mrs. Philippi, Mrs. Lawrence, Miss Hale of Corvallis, Joseph Keebler of Lebanon, and Ed Story. The evening program was given over to visiting and a general invitation to all to attend was given. The Sweet Home band discoursed a few of their best selections and all partook of ice cream and cake. At about 11 p. m. the guests departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Story many happy returns of the day.

A social dance was given in the old Brady hall last Saturday evening.

The High school board held a meeting last Thursday evening to attend to the business then before the board.

L. F. Maynard has completed his contract of laying the cement sidewalk in front of the high school building.

Sim Tyer, game warden of Brownsville, passed through Sweet Home Friday enroute to Cascadia and Fish lake.

A. M. Davidson was an Albany business visitor last Thursday and Friday.

J. F. Malone and family and A. W. Cornish and family left last Tuesday on a visit to the San Francisco fair.

TIPPING THE WAITER.

Come to Think of It. It Does Win One a Lot of Special Favors.

A New York hotel manager is reported as saying that "a tip is nothing else than a reward for special consideration. The question will never be solved as long as any man who asks for special service is in the habit of giving a reward for it."

An eminently sane proposition, says the New York Evening Post. See, for instance, what special service and special consideration the citizen of New York obtains by tipping the waiter. When the customer sits down the waiter refrains from whisking the chair out from under the customer and letting him fall to the floor, as the waiter might very easily do. When he brings in the soup he brings it in a plate instead of a bottle. Who would grudge a small tip for being spared the humiliation of pouring soup out of a bottle? And in so many other ways, which the reader can enumerate for himself, the waiter puts himself out to make the diner comfortable. He refrains from sprinkling sugar over the roast beef and putting olive oil into the ice cream. Between courses he does not sit down to his own meal. If the diner happens to be in the company of a lady the waiter will abstain from disparaging remarks about her complexion. As for the cotroom boy, what is to prevent him from playing football with your hat, except the special consideration due a distributor of tips?

After a careful investigation covering a period of several years Professor Shepard of the South Dakota experiment station has found that sugar beets can be made to return an income of from $100 to $125 an acre in South Dakota when careful methods are followed. He believes that there is no ordinary farm crop that has the cash value of a crop of sugar beets, while they have been found very valuable for feeding purposes as compared with other crops.

Sardonic.

"The greeting 'How are you?' doesn't seem to me to represent any sincere and sensible inquiry," remarked the man who thinks hard about trifles. "That is true," replied Miss Cayenne. "When I meet several people I know I am always tempted to say 'why' instead of 'how.'"—Washington Star.

But the World Lies.

My son, I would have you speak the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, and also I would have you keep in mind that the business of this world is mainly carried on by lying.—Michael Monahan in "At the Sign of the Van."

Most Populous Countries.

The ten countries with the largest populations are, in the order named, China, India, Russia, the United States, Germany, Japan, the United Kingdom, France, Italy and Austria.

A Way Out.

"She's fond of children." "I'm glad to hear it. I'll leave mine with her the next time our club meets."—Detroit Free Press.

Nervous?

"So he took you out motor riding the other evening?"

"Yes, what of it?"

"Do you think he is in love with you?"

"I think so. I know that every time I spoke to him the motor tried to climb a tree or jump a fence."—Stray Stories.

A Scoop.

Reporter—I've a good piece of news here this morning. I found a person who had been confined to one room his entire life. Editor—Good! Send him up. Who is it? Reporter—Why, a three-days-old baby down at our house. —Wisconsin State Journal.

Not His Fault.

Lady of House—What caused you to become a tramp? Ragged Robert—The family physician, mum. He advised me to take long walks after my meals, and I've been walking after 'em ever since.

What Did She Mean?

The two young ladies had gushed and "dearied" each other until the other passengers in the train were heartily sick of it, especially as they never lost a chance of getting in a nasty cut at each other.

Just before they parted Angeline obliged Emmeline with a stamp for a letter.

"Oh, I must give you a penny for this!" exclaimed Emmie, as she prepared to leave the car.

"Don't bother, dear," cooed Angie. "Give it to me next time I see you."

"But you mayn't see me for a long time," protested Emmie.

"Oh, well, the loss wouldn't be great!" cooed Angie, more sweetly than ever.—London Answers.

A Cry For Help.

Good advertising benefits any form of business. The right sort of advertising gives you a friendly feeling toward a firm. It makes you believe that it will be both pleasant and profitable to deal with the advertiser. A certain grocer once inserted in the newspapers an advertisement that had this merit. It ran:

"Twins are come to me for the third time. This time a boy and a girl. I beseech my friends to support me stoutly."—Youth's Companion.

An Old Korean Custom.

In Korea until comparatively recently a man was not allowed the dignity of trousers until he had taken to himself a wife. Your gay bachelor had to wear a skirt and brand himself in the public view as one who had not yet attained a position in which he could support a wife.—London Chronicle.

Their Kind.

"What do you think of the way that upstart Binks gives himself airs? Here he was talking the other day about the delights of his salad days."

"Well, I could have reminded him that they were not chicken salad days."—Baltimore American.

A Million Seneca Successes

Led to the Seneca selling policy—"Your money back without question." When a Seneca Camera is sold, it stays sold. That's because of its superiority of equipment, its ease of manipulation and the pictures it makes.

One thing about Seneca Cameras that appeals to the user, is their simplicity. You can go right to work making perfect pictures the day you get your instrument. It's for this reason that the Senecas are sold on "Your Money Back" principle.
