The Henry Miller residence property on the south side, is being decorated with a new coating of paint.

We make a specialty of Friendship, Engagement and Wedding Rings. F. M. French & Son, Albany, Oregon.

Mrs. W. H. Hobson, of Stayton, came over Saturday for a visit with her children, Mrs. E. C. Peery and Dr. Hobson.

President Prill of the Linn County Fair, is having the race track fences on the fair grounds repaired and placed in condition.

Mr. Steckly and family of near Goltra station, on the Albany-Lebanon branch of the S. P., were in town a short time last Saturday.

Prof. White, principal of the Scio schools, came over from Albany last Thursday to secure a house in which to reside. He expects to move at once.

For Sale or Exchange—Several thoroughbred duroc gilts, eligible to register. Will sell or exchange for first-class cows. Inquire at The Tribune office.

Quite a large number of Scioans picnicked up Thomas creek last Sunday. Riley Shelton says he had to stay at home to keep the cows out of the garden.

Our home talent troupe is to play engagements at Jordan, Stayton and Crabtree, so Manager Waltemeier stated at the entertainment, Saturday evening.

If you want any of the daily papers, The Tribune will get them for you at Bargain Day rates, providing you pay for The Tribune one year in advance.

W. W. Crawford, the Albany Ford man and Chas. E. Godon, of the Ford Motor Co., were over from Albany Saturday looking after the interests of the Ford car.

James Foster and family and Mrs. W. W. Crawford, of near Tallman, were in Scio a short time Sunday afternoon. They were taking an auto joy ride and included Scio in the trip.

J. J. Barnes came down Monday evening from his ranch above Stayton. He informs The Tribune that he has traded a part of his ranch for 15 acres of land adjoining Salem and will move thereto within a short time. He will have a public sale of his stock, etc., on August 21.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Cyrus, and son W. H. Cyrus and wife, of Sisters, arrived in Scio several days ago for a visit with old friends and relatives. Mr. Cyrus has disposed of his holdings and may spend the coming winter in Scio. W. H. and family started on their return Tuesday morning.

The Barnes circus will be in Albany on Thursday of next week.

For Sale—A second hand Overland auto for sale at a bargain. Call at The Tribune office.

Chas. Wesely expects to have his new garage building completed within the next week. The roofing was completed today.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Randall and Miss Daisy Buckner returned from their weeks outing at Breitenbush hot springs Tuesday.

Mrs. Henry Shelton and daughter Miss Clara, and Miss Christine Shindler returned Monday from a two weeks stay at London Springs.

The last report from Chas. Warner stated that he was losing ground. His appetite for food was failing, consequently he was growing weaker.

Roe Shelton brought in a truck load of mail from West Scio Wednesday morning. Seven of the sacks were filled with Sears & Roebuck catalogues.

The Scio hotel repairs is making as rapid progress as seven men can do the work. The leveling up and building a new foundation required considerable time.

It is said "the darkest hour is just before daylight." Let us hope this is the case concerning the business depression which has been resting on Oregon for the past few weeks and that bushels of prosperity are just at hand.

Prof. White, our new school principal, is arranging to move over from Albany. He is a first class man and has had ample experience. The Tribune predicts our directors have made an excellent choice in his selection.

The home talent entertainment at the Gem theatre, last Saturday evening was very enjoyable. All the players seemed quite at home on the stage and acquitted themselves with credit. The players deserved a larger audience than was present.

It would be a fine advertisement for the Scio country if our fair managers would have boxes of fruit raised in this locality, for free distribution to fair visitors. The cost would be trifling, but the welcome spirit would be great.

Prof. White was in town yesterday to make a final selection of a house for the year. Prof. White is like many others who come to Scio. He must take what he can get. Desirable houses for rent are sadly deficient in our town.

J. T. Funk has a squash raised last year which he purposes to exhibit at the Fair. Mr. Funk stated the squash seemed as sound as when gathered from the field, last fall. He will not exhibit it for its size or quality, but for its remarkable "keeping" property.

For Rent—The Scio hotel building. It has been thoroughly overhauled, leveled up and repaired. All walls have been doubled and many of the rooms enlarged. Would prefer renting to a party able to furnish the building throughout. The building will be ready for occupancy about September 1. None but people who will run an up-to-date respectable country hotel need apply. J. S. Warwick.

Mr. and Mrs. Freitag, of Thomas, returned from a trip to the San Francisco fair, this week.
