

LOCAL BREVITIES

Chas. Wesely went to Portland today.

Mrs. Roy Shelton was an Albany shopper last Saturday.

Albany's first public sales day for the year will be next Saturday.

Mrs. E. C. Peery went to Portland Monday for a few days visit.

Candidates are now ripe and they will be interviewing our people at any old time.

Albany had a $4000 fire Saturday evening, the Home Restaurant being the sufferer.

Quite a number of Washington sawmills are getting busy after several months of idleness.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Arnold and little son came over Saturday for an over Sunday visit with home folks.

We make a specialty of Friendship, Engagement and Wedding Rings. F. M. French & Son, Albany, Oregon.

County Commissioner T. J. Butler of Albany, was in town Tuesday, looking after business and, incidentally, his political fences.

At Helena, Mont., the thermometer dropped from 50 degrees above to 20 degrees below in the space of two hours on Monday. Some drop that.

Good Mr. Weatherclerk, give us a rest from this snow business, or we will have to ask Judge Kelly for an injunction against your further snow activities.

Everybody who attended church last Sunday, speaks favorably of the new minister, Rev. Her. The federation of our churches will, as it should, win out.

A Chicago girl jumped from the 16th story of a building, landing on a truck loaded with paper boxes and will recover. Some people can't die when they want to.

The Germans are again making aerial raids on English towns, killing more non combatants. They must want to aid the English recruiting officials.

A Junction man attended a dance having a bottle of liquor in his pocket. He was arrested and fined $100. This is the first violation of this section of the prohibition law in the state reported.

The motor train on the C. & E. is a great convenience to people near the line in Eastern Linn county. The train arrives in Albany early in the morning and leaves at 5:30 in the evening on the return.

Dr. J. G. Turner, formerly of Lowe & Turner, the eye specialists of Portland, will be in Scio again Friday, February 11 at Hotel parlors. Headaches relieved, cross eyes straightened. No charge for consultation or examination. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Five people who were on their way to Albany to attend a funeral, were in the snow slide wreck on the Northern Pacific which occurred Sunday. The husband, Edward Batterman and two children were killed outright and Mrs. Batterman was seriously injured and the other child escaped without injury.

W. E. Chrisman, who lives between Scio and Stayton, was in town Tuesday. He informs The Tribune that he will be a candidate for county commissioner before the republican primary election. Mr. Chrisman is one of our leading young farmers and dairymen and is well worthy of his party's confidence. Anyway, the forks of the Santiam includes more than one-half of the territory of Linn county and should in justice, have one of the commissioners at least.

Arrangements are being made for a basket dinner on the day Governor Withycombe is to speak in Scio, on February 19.

Lebanon had a fire early Sunday morning when the old postoffice building, now used as a confectionary store, was gutted.

Grain prices in Portland seem about at a standstill with wheat at $1.06 and oats at 44 cents per bushel.

L. A. Munkers was in town Monday. When asked if he would be a candidate for anything, his answer was "I am out of politics."

Mrs. Wm. Brenner, who has had an attack of lagrippe and a touch of pneumonia, was reported to be improving the first of the week.

Ice has impeded navigation on the Columbia river above the mouth of the Willamette for the past two weeks. One boat is still tied up, hard and fast, in the ice field.

Rev. Joe Waldrop, who was well known about Scio some 25 years ago, will address the citizens of this city on February 6. We have not yet learned the place nor the hour. He is a talented speaker.

Mr. Hazelton, head miller at the Scio Roller Mills, informed The Tribune Tuesday morning that he was just 100 years younger than Bobby Burns, the great Scotch poet. Burns was born 157 years ago, so we can guess pretty close to Mr. Hazelton's age.

The federated church idea is growing. Other towns than Scio will probably come to the same sensible conclusion with Scio. A great many of the Linn county reforms have started in Scio, the town which has made the Linn County Fair a success.

Sheriff Bodine went to Gilkey station Wednesday near where he is serving papers in a replevin suit of J. W. Cusick & Co. vs. S. K. Barnes. The complaint states that Barnes is unlawfully holding several head of horses and cattle that belong to the plaintiffs, and the sheriff went out to see to the removal of the property.

The Albany Herald is in error in stating that Nathan Baum was the first republican elected in Linn county. I. M. Bruce was elected treasurer as the first republican. Mr. Baum was elected county clerk, defeating D. P. Mason two years later. At the same time J. J. Charlton was elected sheriff by the republicans.

Senator Sam'l. M. Garland

Hon. Sam'l. L. Garland will address the Scio High school Monday morning at 9 a. m., to which the citizens of Scio in general are cordially invited. Mr. Garland's address will be delivered in the auditorium in the public school building and his subject will be in the interests of education.

Sweet Home Items

Three births in and around Sweet Home have occurred in the last month. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Russel have a baby girl, Mr. and Mrs. Wood, a baby boy and Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, of Pleasant Valley, a baby boy.

The public schools of Sweet Home, Foster and Pleasant Valley were not in session last week, owing to sickness and cold weather.

Grandma Wodtli, of Foster, who has been sick of lagrippe, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Stocker on January 21 and was buried January 24 at the Gilliland cemetery.

Miss Nettie Ralston, who for some years was an invalid, died Saturday, January 22 at the home of Mrs. Chas. Lyons, and was buried Sunday at the Gilliland grave yard; the funeral services being held in the church here.

Mrs. John Painter died Sunday at her home near Foster, of a complication of lagrippe and heart trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Van Fleet, of Crawfordsville, visited his brother, R. W., and family Saturday evening and Sunday.

J. F. Malone went to Lebanon Sunday morning.

Messrs Cornish and Bailey have returned from their visit and are residents of Sweet Home once again.

J. A. Thompson, A. M. Davidson, and S. W. Bowser were business visitors at Lebanon one day last week.

Lecture at High School Auditorium

On Friday evening, January 28, George V. McClure will deliver a lecture at the High school auditorium on the subject of "Today and Yesterday."

Mr. McClure is a talented speaker and comes highly recommended by those who have heard him. J. H. VanWinkle and Rev. D. H. Leach of Albany, say, "A clean, strong, entertaining and instructive lecturer."

The admission will be 25 cents, one-half of which goes to the benefit of the High school.

The Oregonian states that the snow fall for January is two feet and at this writing is still falling.

Notice of Final Settlement

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned administrator of the estate of James Kruml, deceased, has filed his final account with the Clerk of the County Court for Linn County, Oregon, and that said Court has fixed upon Monday, February 28, 1916, at the hour of 10 in the forenoon as the time for hearing of objections to said account and the settlement thereof.

Dated and first published January 27, 1916.
