

LOCAL BREVITIES

Thirty-five ewes for sale. Enquire of C. U. Sandoz, Scio, Ore.

Marvin Turner, of Albany, was in town Monday.

Mrs. Fred Bilyeu went over to Albany Monday.

Dr. Prill spent Monday and Tuesday in Portland.

Top hogs are now worth 8½ cents per pound in Portland.

Mrs. Jennie Warner returned last Saturday from a Corvallis visit.

The Bank of Scio was having some interior improvements made Tuesday.

A 14-months old Astoria baby was smothered to death in a sugar can recently.

Chester Coffey left for McMinnville Tuesday, Mrs. Coffey to follow on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Randall and Miss Daisy Buckner were Portland visitors Monday.

Miss Bessie Morris came over from Lebanon Saturday, returning Tuesday evening.

Prof. White and several of his students went to Corvallis Monday evening to attend a lecture.

Mrs. Nellie Gunsauls and son, Lyle and Miss Dolly Daley, of Lebanon, visited relatives in Scio last Sunday.

We make a specialty of Friendship, Engagement and Wedding Rings. F. M. French & Son, Albany, Oregon.

Leap year is now six weeks gone and not a prospect of marriage in this locality. What's the matter, girls?

Mrs. Henry Steponak entertained the wives of the K. of P. band Monday evening. A most enjoyable time is reported.

The community meet at Fox Valley grange and at the Mill City public school last Saturday, is reported to have been a big success.

Only 2249 Linn county voters have registered which is hardly one-third of our voters. If you are not included in the above number, you better get busy.

Mrs. Edess Cox, who has been visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. P. H. MacDonald for several days, returned to her home at Springfield Tuesday evening.

If you have anything to sell or want to buy anything, lease a farm or other property, try a want ad in The Tribune; it will get results and save you both time and money.

W. A. Templeton, a former resident of Brownsville, died at Seattle last Sunday. He was a pioneer of 1847 and, at one time, was a figure in Linn county politics. He served one term in the legislature.

Jack Bilyeu, though born 42 years later, claims the Lincoln's birthday, February 12, as his own. But as Jack had no choice in the matter, it should not be held against him that he tried to seek unearned honor.

G. H. Fullenwider, deputy dairy and food commissioner of Portland, was in town Tuesday looking after the manner in which our butcher shop, slaughter house, milk depot, etc., were kept. It is understood he made several suggestions which will make these places more sanitary.

Governor Withycombe day in Scio is next Saturday. The governor has had so much practice in public speaking of late, we may expect an excellent address. Anyway he is a sort of father to the Linn county fair, as he was a constant and active attendant during its first years, even having been at our first street fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lulay, of near Stayton, are the proud parents of a baby girl.

Good piano for sale at less than half cost price if sold soon. J. M. Meiklejohn.

Judge Geo. H. Burnett is a candidate to succeed himself in the state supreme court.

William Parrish, of Jefferson was looking after business matters in Scio Tuesday.

Sheriff Bodine is now prepared to take care of your money for you, at least a sufficient amount to pay your taxes.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Norris, of Shelburn, had a new arrival at their home on February 12. About 18 years hence she will be smashing the boys hearts.

If you want any of the daily papers, The Tribune will get them for you at Bargain Day rates, providing you pay for The Tribune one year in advance.

Electricians must be plentiful in Oregon, judging from the number of applications filed with Recorder Sticha, for the position of superintendent of the light and water plants.

The Tribune is in receipt of a copy of Representative Hawley's bill No. 10752, introduced in the lower house of congress, February 3. Should the bill become a law, a first class naval base will be established at the mouth of the Columbia river, capable of constructing all sizes of vessels and for their repairs.

Two Portland young men were drowned in the vicinity of Rock Island last week. They were making a canoe trip from Salem to Portland when the river was at flood stage. As they were taking a needless risk, their friends will not receive the sympathy as if the young men had lost their lives in a line of duty.

Why not organize a nonpartisan political club in Scio and invite speakers of all parties to deliver occasional addresses? We have organized a Federated church in which members of all denominations have dropped their particular credal beliefs and why may we not apply the same rule to politics? We all desire the same result—good government.

Ex-President Roosevelt is bound to be a dominating figure in the Chicago republican convention which meets on June 7. If he is not made the nominee, himself, he is sure to dictate whom the nominee shall be; for the only hope of success of the g. o. p. is the harmonizing and unification of the two wings of that party and many of the boys are getting awful hungry for office.

Will Move to McMinnville

The Tribune is informed Chester Coffey has purchased a photograph studio in McMinnville and expects to take charge of the same immediately. Mr. Coffey is a good artist and, from previous residence in the Yamhill capitol, has a good acquaintance and of course will succeed.
