

LOCAL BREVITIES

Dr. Prill states he has a case of typhoid.

Republican newspapers are falling over each other in handing Mr. Roosevelt bouquets, nowadays.

Ray R. Wallace, of Lebanon, was in town Tuesday. He will erect a barn for Jerome Smith, near West Scio.

For Sale:—A Harley-Davidson motorcycle, in good condition, ready for use, cheap. Inquire at The Tribune office.

Newt Weddie expects to go to Kitsons hot springs immediately after the Fourth to relieve his rheumatic troubles.

Mrs. Al Briggs and Mr. Martin, of West Stayton, came over Monday evening and are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bilyeu.

For Sale—Fancy Burbank seed potatoes. Inquire of M. Kelly, Jefferson, Ore., Phone, Home 1x6, Bell, 8 F 24.

From all reports, the late rains have been general and of great benefit to late sown grains and gardens.

Sneak thieves are around. Better look after your property which is loose at both ends, or the same may come up missing.

Lebanon is endeavoring to raise a company of infantry to go to the war. Captain Harry Elkins has the matter in hand.

We make a specialty of Friendship, Engagement and Wedding Rings. F. M. French & Son, Albany, Oregon.

Anybody desiring to butcher an animal can have the use of our slaughter house and tools, free of charge, if they desire. Sanitary Market.

G. W. Wright's barn in Albany was burned last Sunday night. In it was stored his Chalmers auto and numerous other articles, all of which were a total loss.

Commissioner T. J. Butler was in town Tuesday looking after a large cement culvert which he is having placed in lieu of a small bridge in the east end of town.

Mrs. Nellie Gunsauls and son, Lysle, of Lebanon, are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bilyeu until after the Fourth. Tom Hannah brought them over in his auto.

For anything in the way of fireworks to add to the military feature of the celebration on July 4, go to J. S. Sticha. He has them and says that he is perfectly willing to sell 'em.

About 300 attended the Sunday school picnic up Thomas creek last Sunday. A light shower of rain about 3 p. m. brought the festivities to an abrupt close. One of the speakers was E. C. Peery.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Williams, of Aberdeene, Wash., who have been visiting at the home of her brother, E. D. Myers, of this city, for several days, started on the return to their home Monday afternoon.

Our better half says she will be greatly obliged to the party who swiped a new tin bucket from the porch, if he or she will return the same. The party need not return the cherries with which they filled the same.

Over one-third of the taxes collected from the people of Oregon goes to support the three state colleges. We pay from 15 to 20 times the money to maintain a student at college that we pay for a boy or girl to attend our public schools.

The Scio Tribune $1.25 a year

T. A. Richardson and family attended the roundup at Philomath Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. Hobson motored to Stayton Sunday. Mrs. Hobson remaining for a week's visit.

Enoch Shelton has builded a porch in front of his residence property just south of Prochoska & Co's. store.

When considering a place to spend the Fourth, don't forget that Scio can furnish you a full day of enjoyment.

When in need of anything in the way of job work, call and see us. We do first-class work at reasonable prices.

Veal, placed in our slaughter house, will be dressed and delivered to any part of town for 25 cents. Sanitary Market.

Say, the days are growing shorter. Have you noticed it? Today is about one minute shorter than was Thursday of last week.

Our Sunday school folks just had time to enjoy the picnic portion of the day last Sunday, when it commenced to rain, which cut the enjoyment of the day short.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Peery and daughter Miss Edres and Miss Neva Thayer, motored to Albany Saturday afternoon. The Tribune editor went along as a sort of ballast.

The Albany furniture factory is making arrangements to resume work. New machinery is being installed and when the factory is in full operation, 50 hands will be employed.

Farmers surrounding Scio can sure give Scions cards and spades when it comes to building substantial highways. Country roads superior to our streets, does not speak highly for Scio.

From indications from all over the country, 1,000,000 men could be mobilized on the Mexican border within sixty days. Patriotism in America may have been sleeping, but it is not dead by a big majority.

The Tribune is probably in error in stating the Oregon troops would be first on the border. A New York regiment was entrained for the border on Sunday. But Oregon's 3rd battalion will be among the first.

Saturday afternoon the Scio Dramatic troupe loaded their stage property and themselves into Roger Cain's truck and hied away to Lacombe where they played an engagement to a full house. They returned after the play, reaching home—well the morning was far enough advanced to call it Sunday. All report having a good time.

County Surveyor A. L. Geddes was over Wednesday marking out the boundaries of a new road to run from the county road up the river from Shelburn, to the site of the proposed new ferry across the North Santiam. The road bed, 40 feet wide, will be over a natural gravel surface and the incline to reach to the ferry landing will be easy.

Our progressive friends must have a feeling akin to the old time slaves in the south when placed upon the auction block. Their much adored leader, Theodore Roosevelt has sold them, body and soul, to the g. o. p. and will attempt to make the delivery on November 7 next. Will our progressive friends stand for the delivery, is the question?

At a meeting of the state democratic committee in Portland last Saturday, Judge Samuel White was elected chairman, a good selection and a decided improvement over the past four years. Dr. C. J. Smith is treasurer. Senator Samuel Garland was present from Linn county, prominent in the speech-making of the meeting.

CRABTREE VALLEY ITEMS

Several from the valley attended the Scio Dramatic Club's play at Lacombe Friday evening.

Wool growers from this part of the country were disappointed that the wool pool at Lebanon failed to sell last week. No bids were received.

Childrens day was observed by the Providence Sunday school last Sunday with a nice program. A fine dinner was served at the noon hour. Rev. Lamar preached in the afternoon.

Wm. Stoddard hauls milk daily on the south side of the creek to the cheese factory. The cheese production is steadily increasing, about 1200 pounds daily is manufactured.

James Arnold is preparing to gravel the remaining stretches of bad road. A great deal of the work is being donated by those who want a winter road to the cheese factory.

Adolph Kronik will move his mill to the Sargent farm and saw pine timber.

A. T. Powell is back again on his farm on the hill after several days absence. He has been visiting his mining property on the North Santiam.

Mrs. Grace Peery and daughter, Guldine, attended the McLeod-Bromly sale at Lacombe Wednesday. The largest crowd perhaps ever gathered at a sale in this country bought the offered property at good prices. Frank Shores was auctioneer and it was probably his last sale here as he leaves soon for Montana to reside.

HOLLEY ITEMS

Mrs. Frona Murry and children is visiting at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. King.

Fred Malone is on the sick list this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Coyle and children, of Eastern Oregon, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Rice.

Grandma Bar is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Moss, in Lebanon.

Allen McQueen and his faithful dogs, King and Shep, killed a cougar that had killed fourteen sheep for James Rice last week, after other men and dogs had given him up.

Ernest Malone, John Duncan and Joe Ware took their packs on their backs last Monday and started up the Calipooia for an outing. They intend to visit the Lucky Boy mine before they return and take some pictures of the beautiful scenery on the way.

Childrens day was observed at the Christian church with declamations, songs and pantomimes.

Allen McQueen is having a rug made out of his cougar hide. Mrs. E. A. Malone is doing the work.

Recruits Wanted

Captain F. C. Stellmacher, of Albany, has been authorized to recruit a company of volunteers who will be subject to call for service in the war with Mexico.

Young men of 18 or more years, who are physically sound, are the recruits wanted. While young married men who have families depending upon them will not be refused, their enlistment will not be encouraged.

So boys, if you feel the patriotic fever in your veins and wish to let it ooze out under the Stars and Stripes, now is your chance. Capt. Stellmacher saw service with the 2nd Oregon in the Philippines and will make a commander under whom it will be a pleasure to serve.

Attention Ford Owners

When in need of repairs, greases, oils, tires or repair work, look me up. I have a full line of Ford repair parts at catalogue prices. Also free tire service to Ford owners. Will deliver a tire any place within five miles of Scio at the list price. No charge for delivery.

Fred T. Bilyeu, Ford Agent
6-29 Phone 27, Scio, Ore.

Dr. T. K. Sanderson

DENTIST

Phone 27-7

SCIO - - - OREGON

New Undertaking Parlor

We are prepared to take charge of funerals in an up-to-date sanitary manner. Embalming is done by a licensed undertaker. Work guaranteed satisfactory.

N. I. MORRISON & N. C. LOWE

R. SHELTON

Notary Public and Conceyosor

Abstracts of Title Examined

SCIO - - - OREGON

On the wings of the morning

Prosperity is coming to this country on the wings of the morning. You will want to take advantage of it. Prosperity comes to the man, woman or child who has money in the bank. It passes by the house of the spendthrift, the shiftless, the ne'er-do-well. Start your account here. Be ready for Prosperity and Prosperity will be ready for you. The man who has an account here has a grubstake in Prosperity.

ALBANY STATE BANK

ALBANY SAFETY PLUS SERVICE 4 per cent paid on Savings OREGON

Go to Newport

Oregon's old reliable outing resort

Numerous attractions make this beach city an ideal place for an outing.

- | | |
|----------------|------------------------|
| Agate Beach | Devils Punch Bowl |
| Seal Rocks | Government Light House |
| Rocky Causeway | Yauquina Bay |
| Surf Bathing | Fine Fishing |
| Natatorium | Dance Hall |
| Bowling Alleys | Clam Digging |

LOW ROUND TRIP FARES

Are on sale daily to Newport from all Southern Pacific stations in Oregon. Return limit Oct. 31. For complete information regarding hotels at Newport, rates, train service, consult agent or write for illustrated folder "Newport Beaches"

John M. Scott, General Passenger Agent Portland, Oregon.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC LINES