

LOCAL BREVITIES

Sanitary Market.

Miss Alta Bristow, of Eugene, is visiting Mrs. Fred Ohlmeier.

Mrs. Jesse Rodgers went to Portland Saturday for a few days visit.

The merry-go-round and other attractions arrived Tuesday, coming from the Tillamook fair.

The Scio Produce Co. has a large supply of crates on hand ready for the evergreen blackberry harvest.

Harvest reports in general are that grain is of fine quality and yields are better than were expected.

We make a specialty of Friendship, Engagement and Wedding Rings. F. M. French & Son, Albany, Oregon.

Attorney Willard Marks, of Albany, came over Saturday morning to look after legal business in this locality.

Five exhibit rooms are provided to take care of the exhibits at the fair grounds. If they are all filled we will have some fair.

W. M. Abbott, who now owns the old Abbott homestead, is making extensive repairs to the same. Mr. Meikeljohn is doing the work.

It is reported that the necessary entries on the race program for the fair are now filled. Some very fast horses are included in the list.

Chas. Wesely is harvesting his garlic crop. The crop is heavy but he can give no estimate as yet, what his returns will be. The tops are braided when the product is ready for market.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. MacDonald, Mrs. M. M. Peery, of Springfield, Miss Nita Bilyeu and Frank and Rol Morris drove to Portland Saturday evening. Mrs. Peery will visit in Portland for a week.

Most people enjoy the cooler weather after the oppressive heat of last week. Thermometers did not show a temperature above ninety degrees, yet with the high humidity the heat seemed most oppressive.

President Prill thinks that a pavilion 40x80 feet will, with the ladies pavilion now erected, be sufficient to house all fair exhibits and that the association will be able to erect this additional building next year.

Monday, wheat took quite a tumble, dropping eight cents per bushel in Portland. The cause assigned, is the declaration of war by Roumania and the possibility of the big railway strike. Oats dropped $2 per ton as well.

J. G. Crawford, the Albany photographer and who greatly enjoys searching out the hidden beauties of nature, was over Sunday looking over Thomas creek stones. He found but few specimens which he thought worthy of development.

For Sale—120 acres of land two miles southwest of Scio, good new and modern 8 room house, bath, pantry, fair large barn, family orchard, berries, etc. Will sell either the whole or subdivide into 40 and 80 acre tracts. Title good. Will sell for cash or take other land for part payment, if suited. Very reasonable price. B. F. Titus. tf

The Tribune acknowledges a pleasant call from B. E. Toombs, representing Hughson & Merton, of Portland. Mr. Toombs visit to Scio was for the purpose of arranging for the exhibition of the Bull Tractor gasoline engine which can be used for plowing, running a thresher or for any other power required on the farm. Mr. Toombs will give daily demonstrations during the fair of the Bull tractor at plowing.

Sanitary Market.

The Scio Tribune $1.25 a year

Mrs. Ralph Gill visited Scio relatives last week.

Grand jury is in session this week. The regular term of Judge Kelly's court meets Monday.

Two young alligators are among the curiosities to be seen at the Linn County Fair.

Mrs. T. K. Sanderson and children left Tuesday for a week's visit with relatives and friends in Portland.

Oats yielding 120 bushels per acre are reported to have been harvested over at or near Tangent.

The railroad employers will have to carry the blame for the strike in refusing to establish the 8-hour day.

For Sale—Close in acreage to Lebanon, acre tracts, highly developed. Easy terms, interest 6 per cent.

Five high bred young Berkshire sows for sale, $10 each. Will furbow in 30 to 35 days. Sanitary Market.

It is written "Thou shalt not live by bread alone." Good thing. The high cost of flour boosts the cost of living. The Tribune editor paid $1.90 for a 50 pound sack of hard wheat flour. We will have to buy more beef steaks at 18 to 20 cents per pound.

On and after September 30, the subscription price of The Tribune will be $1.50 per year for subscriptions paid in advance. If paid at the end of the year, $1.75. We are forced to make this raise because of the increase in the cost of print paper. The increase has been 100 per cent in the past six months.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Stotenberg, of Holyrood, Kansas, are visiting at the John Wesely and Fred Ohlmeier homes. Mrs. Stotenberg is a sister of Mrs. John Wesely and Fred Ohlmeier. Mrs. Henry Miller, another sister of Tacoma, also, is visiting at the same homes. This is the first time for 16 years that brother and sisters have been together.

Judge T. A. Rinehart, of Salem, was a Tribune visitor on Thursday of last week. He, with his family were returning from a vacation at Cascadia and while here devoted a couple of hours to electioneering for the judge is a candidate for circuit judge of this judicial district. He informed The Tribune that he would be an attendant of the fair during the three days.

The Tribune is in receipt of a very nicely printed invitation to attend the Wilson notification at Shadow Lawn, Long Branch, New Jersey, on the afternoon of September 2. The occasion will undoubtedly, be very interesting and but for the time required and the depleted condition of our exchequer, we would attend. Our regrets must be the only reply.

Ed Wesely returned from a three weeks outing at Marion lake Monday afternoon. His trip companions were three gentlemen from Portland. The trip was most successful both in pleasure and the taking of fish. One of the beauties Ed brought home was a large eastern brook trout which must have weighed two pounds or more when taken from the water. It is but a few years since these trout were planted in Marion lake. The Tribune family was remembered with a plate of nice ones. Thanks.

Strike Seems Inevitable

As we go to press, latest news report that the big railroad strike seems inevitable and that the men will walk out next Monday morning at 7 o'clock. The railroads are refusing to receive freight which cannot be placed at its destination prior to September 2.

Racing Program Filled

The race card for the fair this Wednesday evening has been filled, so that it is a surety that every race as published in the official program will be pulled off. Among the entries are some of the fastest horses in the state and, it is expected, that the fast time 1.03 for the half mile and which was the track record for the state, will be surpassed, this year. The track is in the best condition of any year of the fair, which will afford horsemen every opportunity for fast work.

Auction Sale

I will sell to the highest bidder, at my farm 1½ miles east of Scio (the Mrs. Frances Wesely place) on September 12, commencing at 10 a. m., the following listed personal property: Three 1100 to 1500 lb. farm horses, 27 head of cattle of which 14 are milk cows, two buggies, 1 wagon, 1 set of work harness, 2 sets single harness, 6-horse power Fuller & Johnson gasoline engine and wood saw, 1 hay loader, 1 mower, 1 disc plow, 1 disc harrow, 1 turning plow, numerous household goods and other articles too numerous to mention.

An Excellent Cuisine

Wm. Ehlert, who is now proprietor of the Russ house, in Albany, invites all of his old friends and the traveling public in general to sample the splendid meals he is now serving. Good well prepared, served as you get it at home and without attempting any unnecessary display, is the rule at the Russ house. If you desire a good wholesome eat and plenty of it, the Ehlert is the place to go. tf

If you see a strange appearing concern soaring about in the air next Tuesday, no alarm need be felt. It will be the trying out of the flying machine to see that every thing is in order for the morning and evening flights, billed for each day of the fair.
