

John Wesely, Scio, Ore., TO QUIT BUSINESS FOR GOOD

STOCK NOW IN THE HANDS OF H. L. SCHILLER, PORTLAND

The announcement that John Wesely's stock of Dry Goods, Shoes, Furnishings, etc., is to be closed out, means that one of the highest class, best selected and cleanest stocks of merchandise in the Willamette valley is to be placed on public sale at the most sensational and rapid-selling prices ever known in Oregon. Everyone knows that merchandise is fast advancing in price and Mr. Wesely bought his goods for spot cash before the big advances, which means that goods, in many instances, will be sold for much less than wholesale cost and less than any merchant can buy the same goods for at wholesale today. This stock has been sold to other parties and by special agreement, H. L. Schiller, of Portland, has been placed in charge with instructions to REDUCE THIS STOCK TO THE MINIMUM IN THE SHORTEST TIME POSSIBLE, before it is turned over to the new owners. So read what Mr. Schiller says below and you will see for yourself what this sale means to every person in Scio and vicinity

"VOTE AS AMERICANS"—FOR WILSON, SAYS EDISON.

No Time Now to Try an Inexperienced Man, Declares Inventor, Leading President.

By GEORGE CREEL.

"Times are too serious to talk in terms of Republicanism or Democracy. Parties are all right—reckon we've got to have them with our system of government. But when it's America that's at stake men have got to vote as Americans, and not as Democrats or Republicans."

This is the message to the American people that Thomas A. Edison gave to me in a recent interview.

"This man Wilson has had a mighty hard time of it," he continued. "I don't believe there was ever a president who had as many big questions to decide. They have come in bunches. He hasn't always pleased me, just as I suppose he hasn't always pleased the United States in all sorts of trouble. As it is, we are at peace, the country was never more prosperous, and we have the strength that comes with honor and integrity of purpose.

"Wilson has won victories by diplomacy that are far more important to mankind than any victories that we could have won by war."

"Had we recognized Huerta it would have served notice upon the world that the United States, while believing in democracy for home use, was willing to stand for despotism where other peoples were concerned. President Wilson's Mexican policy has been wise and just and courageous."

"Belgium? Hindsight! In the light of two years it's easy to say what should have been done. But at the time not a single paper or a public man even thought of anything but keeping the United States out of the European horror."

"Tariff? There's another proof of Wilson's openness of mind. No matter what he thought about the Underwood law, he had the courage to admit that the European war had returned the tariff to the province of discussion. So he came to the front with his proposition for a tariff commission. That's sense. The tariff is a scientific affair, not political at all. A tariff commission will lift the whole business out of politics."

"As I said at the start, it has just been one big thing after another with Wilson."

"Look at the threatened general railroad strike. Why, if carried through, such a strike would have thrown the whole country into confusion."

"In my opinion, Mr. Hughes, if President, would have found it difficult to decide on the best course for the Government to take in such matters. His capacity for hindsight, as we learn from his speeches, is highly developed, but as to his foresight, we are not equally well informed."

"They say Wilson has blundered. Perhaps he has. But I notice that he usually blunders forward."

"Mr. Wilson now has had about four years of experience, and I think that he has earned faith and trust. I do not think it a sensible thing to change to an inexperienced and untried man. Therefore, I am for Woodrow Wilson."

Henry Ford, a Republican, believes in Peace, Prosperity and Progress and will vote for the man who has given all three to the country—Woodrow Wilson.

BEST MAN AT A WEDDING.

Time Was When He Used to Assist in Abducting the Bride.

Do you know why the bridegroom's attendant at the wedding is called "best man" and how he happens to be such an important factor at a society wedding? He is supposed to look after the ushers, the carriage, the wedding ring and a host of other things that the fortunate lover could not be expected to concern himself with at such a time. But there was a period in the history of the human family when the best man had other duties than these to perform. It was when there was no church ceremony and when primitive people had come to the conclusion that marriage within the tribe was not good for the race. Then it became the fashion for the young man of marriageable age to go forth in quest of a bride, the daughter of some neighboring tribe.

Perhaps the girls were not entirely unwilling to be captured, but no girl, either ancient or modern, would admit for a moment that she had wandered away from the protection of her male relatives for the actual purpose of being abducted. Even if there was no brother at hand the girl was likely to put up a game fight, and the prospective bridegroom had need of the assistance of a strong muscled friend to aid him in subduing her. There was very little to the ceremony once the girl had been taken to the home of her future lord, but the "best man" was always a honored guest in her home, especially if the marriage turned out well. In many mountainous parts of the civilized world where old customs obtain the "best man" still pretends to assist in abducting the bride.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Naming the Gerrymander.

The gerrymander was christened in 1813, although it must have been in operation long before that. A staunch old Federalist, Governor Elbridge Gerry, controlled through his legislature the redistricting of Massachusetts under the census of 1810. In the office of Benjamin Russell, an ardent Republican editor, hung a map of the state as newly subdivided by Gerry and his men. Gilbert Stuart's ready pencil whimsically added to the outlines of a grotesque district the wings and tail of a dragon.

"Ha!" he said when he had finished "How's that for a salamander?" The Republican Russell growled, "Better call it a gerrymander." And American politicians have taken his advice.
