

LOCAL BREVITIES

The Albany chicken show is on this week.

Films developed free at Peery's drug store.

A gift any young lady will appreciate, a handsome box of chocolates. Sticha's Confectionery.

Pendleton wheat buyers are engaging wheat of the 1917 crop at $1.10 per bushel.

Mrs. Frank Thayer went to Hubbard last Friday, called there by the sickness of a grand child.

A big show "Hello Bill" at the Peoples theater on December 14 by the Scio Dramatic Club. It will be worth hearing.

When in need of anything in the way of job work, call and see us. We do first-class work at reasonable prices.

Bert Bilyeu says his trapping expedition did not pan out as he hoped for. The fur bearing animals seems to have been scarce.

Joe Warwick, after a week tussle with the grip, was out last Friday. Possibly Hughes' defeat might have had something to do with it.

We make a specialty of Friendship, Engagement and Wedding Rings. F. M. French & Son, Albany, Oregon.

From present indications the city council elect will carry forward the plans for civic improvement inaugurated by the present council.

Ed Schoel, of Tangent, has gathered in about all the premiums possible at the stock shows on Chester White hogs. He is there, also, with his chickens and sheep.

Cyrus H. Walker, who claims to be the first white man born west of the Rocky mountains, was elected commander of the Albany G. A. R. post last week.

H. G. Kibbee, a Jefferson county newspaper man, spent last Sunday in this city, a guest at Hotel Scio. He thinks Madras is the coming town of Jefferson county.

J. F. Wesely went to Portland last Sunday. As a consequence Mrs. Wesely was in the store looking after the bookkeeping end of the business Monday morning.

The usual number of Christmas balls seems assured. Everybody wants to have a good time during the holidays and a few people want to make a piece of money, of course.

La Valliers and neck chains command the attention of all well dressed ladies. Our stock never was so complete for the holiday trade as it is just now. We have solid gold ones from $3 up. F. M. French & Son, Jewelers and Engravers, Albany.

Several teams were engaged in hauling potatoes from this city to West Scio last Sunday. The tubers have been sold for some weeks, but dealers were unable to get cars until now. John Leffler and Wm. Knauf were the shippers.

Mylo Cary, who was the victim of an auto accident in October and whose mind has, except at short intervals, been a blank, was able to be on our streets the first of the week. He cannot recall any of the circumstances as to how the accident happened.

Governor Withycombe favors raising the total tax on automobiles to $10 per year. He does this to make up the deficiency caused by the tax limitation law. He does not seem to consider a reduction in the cost of state government as was the contemplation of the people when they enacted the tax limit law. It is difficult for some people to read "the handwriting on the wall."

Special candies at special prices for Christmas at Sticha's.

Read Peery's cut price ad on the first page. He is surely offering attractive prices.

The demand for condensed milk is unlimited. The trouble is to get enough raw milk.

It is a fact that all people do not look through the same brand of glasses. All cannot think alike.

Teachers Attention—Let us help you in selecting your Christmas candies and nuts. J. S. Sticha.

Dr. Prill received the intelligence of the death of a sister who resided in the state of New York, the first of the week.

The car shortage is easing up somewhat. Our potato shippers and the flouring mill are now enabled to get an occasional car.

Mrs. Parker, of the local hospital, has purchased the lumber of the dismantled hotel building on the south side and will erect a bungalow residence on her property just east of the Prochaska store.

W. R. Smith, who has been away from Scio for several months, returned on Thursday of last week to spend the holidays. When he went away, he weighed 200 pounds or over. When he returned he weighed less than 150 pounds. The boys wanted to know what had become of the rest of Smith.

A debate between Lebanon and the Scio High school debating teams will occur on December 22 at the High school auditorium. At the same time our negative team will debate the Albany team. The question is: Resolved "That Oregon should adopt the health assurance law, embodied by the American association of labor."

Some of our advertising patrons seem to think that our country readers do not read their ads in The Tribune. Now if you will simply tell the merchant when you go into his store to buy that you have read his ad, you will convince him that you read and are up-to-date and, besides, you will be doing The Tribune a favor.

While there is nothing being said about it, Scio is sure to have a railroad through town in the near future. There is too much money invested in timber up Thomas and Craetree creeks to allow it to rot. The demand for lumber is sure to bring the 400 or 500 sections of timber up these streams into demand.
