

LOCAL BREVITIES

The Albany chicken show is on this week.

Films developed free at Peery's drug store.

Our public schools will close for the holidays tomorrow.

A Mr. Piatt and family are here looking for a location, to rent for the first year.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Daley celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage last Saturday.

A gift any young lady will appreciate, a handsome box of chocolates, Sticha's Confectionery.

E. C. Peery has been confined to his home lately with a stomach trouble.

The High school debate will be held in the school auditorium Friday evening. We should give them a crowd.

Mrs. Flora Hart, daughter of Mrs. Phoebe Turner, of south of town, went to Portland Tuesday to accept a position.

Mrs. Lillie Hibler and son, Kenneth, of Seattle, arrived last week to spend the holidays with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Gill.

Last Tuesday evening an amusing game of basket ball was played by the girls of our High school and a team from Riverside. Our girls winning the game.

Sam Gaines, 74 years old, has just completed cutting 30 cords of wood. He said he put up three cords a day. Many younger men can not do nearly so well.

The basket ball game played between our High school team and Corvallis last Friday evening was a close game with good interest and resulted in favor of our team.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Cain are the proud parents of a bouncing boy, who arrived on Saturday, December 16. The newly arrived was reported by Dr. Prill to be seriously ill on Monday.

Make Scio your shopping city the 23rd, to purchase your Christmas goods and enjoy the Free Picture show for a couple of hours and then get home in good time. Given by Bilyeu and Morrison.

If you hear any strange and doubtful sounds of an evening, there is no occasion to be alarmed. It is not a calf in distress. Oh, no. It is only Charlie Wesely practicing on some sort of a wind instrument, probably a bassoon.

Thomas Laird, pharmacist at the Peery drug store, opened business Monday morning with his left eye in a sling. He said the injury was received when splitting wood. He did not say whether he or his wife was doing the splitting. The pupil of the eye is injured, but Mr. Laird thinks not beyond recovery.

Don't forget the Big Free Show Saturday, December 23 which starts at 1 o'clock and runs continually for the benefit of out-of-town people. All school children, who call on that day at Morrison's Hardware store, will be given a free ticket. All those who have purchased Ford cars of Fred Bilyeu will be admitted with their families free. All others who make any kind of a purchase at N. I. Morrison's store will receive a ticket free and also will receive 10 per cent discount as a Christmas present on all purchases of $1 or more. We have Erector sets, Tinker toys and a thousand more things which will make a nice present for the kiddies and grown ups. Come early as we will be rushed. We will have several extra salespeople.

N. I. Morrison, Scio.

Special candies at special prices for Christmas at Sticha's.

From all indications, our merchants seem to be enjoying a good Christmas trade.

Mrs. Beard, of near Scio, is in Lebanon attending at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. B. H. Irvine.

E. C. Peery went to Portland last Tuesday morning to consult a specialist relative to his health.

Teachers Attention—Let us help you in selecting your Christmas candies and nuts. J. S. Sticha.

Thurston Thomas, of above the head of navigation on Thomas creek, was in town yesterday doing Christmas shopping.

The drop in the price of wheat caused by peace talk over in Europe has partially been regained. It is thought the price has not reached the highest point yet which it will reach before another harvest.

Good printing can be obtained only where the proper types, presses, material and expert workmanship is found. The Tribune office possesses all of these requisites and the prices are right.

La Valliers and neck chains command the attention of all well dressed ladies. Our stock never was so complete for the holiday trade as it is just now. We have solid gold ones from $3 up. F. M. French & Son, Jewelers and Engravers, Albany.

Mrs. M. J. Cole, of Timber, Ore., is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. C. Gill of this city. Mrs. Cole with her husband, Dr. Cole, resided in Scio for many years, the Doctor being one of our practicing physicians. Dr. Cole died some years ago.

Scio has an excellent bus service. If we go to Portland, San Francisco or any other large city and have to take a bus or car ride of a couple of miles to reach a favorite hotel, we think nothing of it. We are only two miles from the West Scio depot, so we are as well off as if we were in a large city, in the respect of distance.

Miss Agnes Wesely, a department head clerk of the Myers & Frank establishment of Portland and her sister, Miss Rose, arrived home for the holidays Monday. Miss Agnes has been forewoman in her department for several years. Miss Rose has been visiting with her for a number of weeks. Of course they were both anxious to get acquainted with their new nephew in the Cain household.

Triangle Debate Friday

Albany vs. Scio in Albany and Lebanon vs. Scio in Scio at the High school auditorium tomorrow evening. The question: Resolved "That Oregon should adopt a health insurance law, embodying the essential features of the standard bill of the American Labor Legislation."

Gilbert Parsons of Crabtree Dies in San Francisco

Frank Parsons, of Crabtree, received word of the death of his son, Gilbert, this morning in San Francisco. The message came from Mrs. Parsons who left for San Francisco Sunday when it was reported that the son was dangerously ill.

Gilbert Parsons, aged 18, joined the regular army early in November of this year and after going to Fort McDowell in California a letter was sent to Mrs. Parsons saying that the son was ill with measles. She and one of the sons left here Sunday to be with the son during his illness. The message did not state the cause of his death, but Mr. Parsons thought it was from the measles. The message did not say when the body would be shipped to Albany.—Albany Herald.

against the barbs and lacerated his hand fearfully, ripping it to the bone.

Mr. Calaway, who lives on the old John Richardson farm near the Richardson bridge, has traded his 300 acre farm for a residence and two store buildings in Corvallis and will move early in the spring. He says he is tired of milking 40 cows, which are bringing him $125 a month at the cheese factory.

The ladies of the Bohemian hall gave a leap year ball at the hall Saturday night. With a full house, a fine time and taking a wad of cash for their trouble.

Ed Kalina is making some fine improvements on his farm he purchased of Joe Poindexter. He is a wonderfully industrious young man, and well deserving of a good wife which he is now looking out for.
