

LOCAL BREVITIES

The Scio Tribune, $1.50 the year. Films developed free at Peery's drug store.

Everybody who can should attend the school rally tomorrow. Our public schools are making the citizens of the future.

Two important events are billed for next week. Congress will meet in special session and the Pacific base ball season will open.

The Tribune is indebted to Secretary of State Olcott for a number of laws and bills, chief of which is the big road bonding bill, to be voted on June 4.

We make a specialty of Friendship, Engagement and Wedding Rings. F. M. French & Son, Albany, Oregon.

John Leedy, a pioneer resident of Linn county, but of Pendleton during recent years, died at his home in that city this week. The remains were brought to Lebanon for burial in the family plot.

For Sale—10 tons of cheat hay and 10 tons of alsike clover hay, baled and in good condition. Inquire at The Tribune office.

Young men, who have talked of enlisting in the army, can now do so in an Oregon regiment. The Third Oregon, which has been ordered to the colors, lack several hundred men to have a war-footing strength.

If you want a set of good kitchen cutlery of six or seven pieces, get The Tribune three subscribers and we will make you a present of the set.

Lebanon has ended the campaign for a cannery and is proceeding to establish one. The machinery has been ordered and preparations will be made for this year's work. The Lebanon cannery will be managed by Ira Hutchins, of the Brownsville cannery.

It is reported that Henry Struckmeier, a German-American resident of Albany, who has expressed his German sympathetic opinions rather too freely, has been arrested and placed under bonds to not talk so freely in the future. Others, who have likewise indulged, can take warning from this episode.

When W. Wilson, of near Jefferson, comes to Scio, you may know that there is some telephone business on hand. He was here Saturday. Calling at The Tribune office he asked the usual question, "How is the war" and then gave his views, opinions, etc. Mr. Wilson is a native of Scotland and, as a matter of course, is strongly pro-ally. He thinks this year will see the end of the war.

Complaint that dog poisoners are in evidence, are made. A man or woman who deliberately places out poison for dogs, certainly is without that spark of kindness of heart for man and beast, which should be found in every human breast. Some and perhaps many dogs are a public nuisance. So are some men and women. But this fact does not give anyone authority to become an indiscriminate executioner.

Dr. Turner, the well known eye specialist of Portland will be in Scio again on Thursday, April 12, at Scio Hotel. Dr. Turner is a specialist of experience and standing and you will make no mistake in consulting him about your eyes and glasses. Headaches relieved, cross eyes straightened, satisfaction guaranteed. Don't forget the date.

It rains some over in Honolulu. In 24 hours recently over 13 inches fell.

J. D. Densmore shipped a car load of beef cattle to the Portland market this week.

The price of baled hay is looking up this week. Shipments to Eastern Oregon is the cause.

The Oregonian is to be commended in that it sinks partisanism and gives patriotism the leading place.

Hi Williams, of Lyons, was down to pay the last respect to his friend of many years, Ed J. Daley, at the funeral Wednesday.

Miss Ella C. Meade, of Albany, has been appointed a member of the state board of optometry, by Governor Withycombe.

Scio should be represented by some of our young men, either in the army or navy during these times when the "country needs you."

For Sale—Close in acreage to Lebanon, acre tracts, highly developed. Easy terms, interest 6 per cent. Write Helen V. Crawford, Lebanon.

F. P. Nutting, of Albany, has been appointed an inspector in the U. S. revenue service by Collector M. A. Miller. So Fred is no longer a "misfit."

C. W. Braag, S. P. agent at West Scio, was in town this week. He expressed great satisfaction at being back to Scio and hopes to remain here permanently. A petition for him to remain would be signed by everybody in this vicinity.

For Washed Sand, Gravel and Crushed Rock, Lime and Cement, Foundation Piers, Building Blocks, Cement Faced Brick, Drain Tile and Culverts, see the Albany Sand & Gravel Co., Foot of Broadalbin St., Albany, Oregon. 5-17

True, Scio is two miles away from the railroad depot. But with a good road and auto connection, this is no more of a handicap than is found in any large city. Many Portland people have to go five or six miles to reach the depot and Salem and Albany people, many of them, have to go two miles, the same as Scio people.

his lungs as he is quite a musician and no doubt interested the audience and consoled the cripple girl who has one leg broken and is now using four instead of two, as the two new ones, if broken, is easily set.

The Pie Fater, while plowing this week, plowed up a white mole, which was quite a curiosity, as it was a rare freak of nature, seldom if ever heard of before. Wm. Abbott has it mounted among his curios.

A. T. Powell, of Scio, was out our way Monday and called in over night at the old reliable Santiam Farm to talk over boyhood days, as we were schoolboys together in the '50s and '60s.

tended for that purpose or not, has a tendency to discourage young men from enlisting in the army or navy. Such remarks caused men to be arbitrarily arrested and placed in prison in Civil war days.

When the election was over, last fall, partisanism and partisan remarks should have ceased. Whether Wilson or Hughes was the successful candidate, he was duly and lawfully elected president and on March 5, he became, not the president of the republican or democratic party, but of the entire United States and it then became and is now the duty of every loyal American citizen to patriotically support the lawfully elected president. It is the duty of every American citizen to place patriotism before partisanism, the church or any other ism. In times like the present, when every resource of our country may be called to the defense of the government, it is next door to treason to say or do anything which may be construed in anyway to defeat President Wilson, congress or state governors in devising means for the protection of the national government or any part of it. We should all now be American citizens in the broadest sense and aid in any way we can to maintain a government dedicated by our revolutionary fathers to the liberty of men.

So let us do nothing or say anything which may hobble or minimize the efforts of the men in charge of the Ship of State to protect our rights and liberties. Let us be Americans, spelled with a very large sized "A."
