Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gooch, of near Mill City, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Titus, of this city, Mrs. Gooch's parents.

Probably 50 or 60 head of stock cattle were driven through town Monday morning, preparatory to shipment for Miles City, Montana.

For Sale—Close in acreage to Lebanon, acre tracts, highly developed. Easy terms, interest 6 per cent. Write Helen V. Crawford, Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gibbons, of Shelburn, were shopping in Scio, Monday afternoon. George said it was not too late for congratulations.

Dr. J. Murphy, the magnetic healer who was lately practicing at Crabtree, is now in Scio as can be seen from his card elsewhere in this issue.

For your reading for 1917, consult The Tribune. We can give you bargain day rates for all of the leading daily and weekly newspapers and magazines.

Mrs. Sarah Marian Baker, wife of Hiram Baker, of near Lebanon and who was a merchant in that city for many years, died at the family home last Saturday night and was buried at Lebanon on the following Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kelly are pleased with the arrival of a new baby daughter, at their home on April 28. This being war times Mike thought the little stranger should have been a boy. But the daughter is just as welcome.

Dr. J. Murphy, of Crabtree, Magnetic Healer, has opened an office at the residence of E. C. Shelton, one door east of the telephone office in Scio, and is ready to treat all kinds of afflictions. Office hours 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Mrs. J. A. Bilyeu received a letter from Doug Hamilton, last week, in which he writes in a cheerful spirit, seemingly contented with his condition. Doug's work is to wait on one of the many dining tables. He sends regards to all of his Scio and Albany friends.

The municipal flag pole was erected yesterday evening. The flag raising as can be seen in the published program, will occur tomorrow at 11:30 o'clock. Owing to the fact that Portland was out of flag material, the municipal flag will not be received for two weeks yet. Consequently the Fair grounds flag will be used in the ceremonies.

The Scio Tribune $1.50 a year

The municipal flag pole was raised Wednesday afternoon.

John Miller, of Scio, says an Albany paper, has enlisted in the navy.

Nylis Face Cream—the best regardless of price—leaves no grease shine.

Late as it is, farmers will raise a good crop, providing they give the soil plenty of cultivation.

Besides cleaning the teeth, Rexall Paste acts as a mild harmless bleach and whitens them also.

Chas. Wesely and Riley Shelton motored over to Albany on a business trip Wednesday afternoon.

The condensery is reported to be a busy place these days. Even Manager Peery is kept busy rustling wood.

The Scio Milling Co. shipped a car of oats this week. They are worth better than 80 cents per bushel in Portland.

Farmers do not have time to come to town these days. As a consequence our merchants have time to make garden.

This is "cleanup week" as proclaimed by Governor Withycombe, but the people of Scio seem to not have heard of it.

Lebanon favors road bonds because she expects a small slice for the mountain wagon road. This is just a small gold brick.

Last week Charles Rehner, of this city, was operated upon for appendicitis at the St. Marys hospital in Albany and is getting along nicely.

Lee Bilyeu, of Lebanon, was in town Friday, to attend a condensery meeting. Something of large importance may result from this meeting.

A concert by a large family of orphans was given at the Peoples Theatre last Friday evening, which is highly commended. A large audience attended.

If the condensery trade matures as now contemplated, the plant will be doubled in capacity and cows will be supplied to farmers to be paid for in installments.

The Social Hygiene lectures for women will occur at the K. of P. hall on the afternoon of May 9 and the lecture for men will be at the High school auditorium in the evening of the same day.

Gail Jones was home again the first of the week. He said he did not know how soon they would be sent away from the assembly camp at Vancouver. Gail has enlisted in the regular cavalry.

Let everyone take pride in his premises and the streets adjoining, to gather all sticks, waste paper, etc., and burn them. Municipal cleanliness counts several points in favor of a towns prosperity.

Start Your Fight Against Flies

The time to make an effective war against flies is when they first begin to appear. The first few, if permitted to live, will breed a million more to torment you later.

Flies are a menace to health and life, because they are bred in filth and carry disease germs wherever they go. In your fight against flies select your weapons from our stock of Poison Fly Paper, Sticky Fly Paper, Insect Powders, Fly Swatters, etc.

We have all of the effective fly destroyers. For health's sake do your part in the war against flies.
