Editor and Mrs. Regan, of the Albany Herald, were Scio visitors Sunday.

Prof. O. V. White and family moved to Brownsville on Wednesday of last week.

Oscar Lindley and wife, of Silverton, were visiting relatives in Scio on Monday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Monte Leslie, of Eugene, were guests at the G. W. Morrow home Sunday before election.

Standard goods like Rexall, Nyal and A. D. S.—Standard prices the same as Albany, Lebanon or Stayton at Peery's drug store.

J. J. Barnes, of Salem, arrived in Scio Saturday to look after business matters and shake hands with his old Scio friends.

For Sale—Second hand auto in good shape with four good tires. Will sell cheap, terms. Inquire at The Tribune office.

During our removal, articles were carried away from both shops by unauthorized persons, proving that Scio still has petty thieves.

Fred Gooch and family were visiting at the Frank Titus home last week returning to their home at Gooch last Friday.

Miss Lewis, of Falls City, returned to her home Monday, after visiting her friend, Mrs. Alda Hutchison, of the Scio hotel, for a week.

Mr. Hasler and wife, of Lake county, who have been visiting relatives in Scio for the past three weeks, started on their return home last Monday.

Drs. Prill and Hobson, both went to Salem on Monday of last week. Fortunately no accident or sudden sickness occurred. In fact the people were safe for one day.

An enthusiastic Sunday school picnic and basket dinner was held at the Federated church last Sunday. The Hammer quartette, of Albany, was a feature.

John Smallman, of Ranier, Ore., has been visiting Scio friends and relatives for the past two weeks. Mr. Smallman was sheriff of Linn county for one term a decade or more ago.

J. H. Boyd, who was process man at the condensery a year or so ago, was a Scio visitor recently. He has been a contractor in getting out ship knees in B. C. for the past several months.

Bill Brenner is sure a patriot. He is raising, besides his own, seven other gardens. He may have some sneaking idea that he will get a profit for his labor, but he will raise the stuff and that is what counts.

Fred Jones has accepted the selling agency for the Chevrolet automobile for Scio and vicinity. He has already sold and delivered cars to D. C. Thoms and C. C. Bilyeu and has taken orders from Joe Quigly and others for cars to be delivered.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Crawford and O. A. Crawford, of near Tallman and Miss Helen Crawford, of Lebanon, visited The Tribune family last Sunday, driving over in the Crawford Chandler Six auto. They report that farmers in their locality have completed spring seeding.
