Get Rid of Your Rheumatism
Now is the time to get rid of your rheumatism. You will find Chamberlain's liniment a great help. The relief which it affords is alone worth many times its cost.

LOCAL BREVITIES

For Rent—A seven room house. Inquire at The Tribune office.
Mrs. C. F. Rinehart, of Madesto, Cal., was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Prill last week.
Dr. A. G. Prill was selected as the head of the Red Cross contingent in this city last week.

$32 Eastman Kodak to trade for good bicycle. See C. A. Everett, Druggist.
Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bilyeu and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bilyeu went up to visit Halsey relatives last week.

Miss Freda Dodge, who has been employed in a millinery store in Lebanon, arrived home Sunday for a two-weeks vacation.

I have a limited amount of money to loan on improved farms at 6 per cent interest, no commission charged. E D Myers. 43t5

Joe Borovicka, who registered for military service and did not make claim for exemption, talks of enlisting in the regular army.

Mrs. Henry A. Miller, of Mill City, who has been visiting Mrs. Joe Oupor for the past two weeks, returned to her home Monday.

George Forgy, of Albany, was in town shaking hands with old time friends Monday. He still retains the old time laugh which is set on a hair trigger.

Several of our exchanges are sending two copies of their paper to this office. As the Santiam News has been absorbed by The Tribune, only one copy is sufficient.

Mrs. Eva Coffee and son Darrel, of Kalama, Wash., came up from that river town Sunday, for a visit with Scio relatives. Mrs. Coffee is a sister of Walter and Ira Bilyeu.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gill, of Portland, drove up in their auto last Saturday, for a visit with the old folks at home and, incidentally, to shake hands with their many old time Scio friends.

A number of people whose names we could not get, attended the Rose festival in Portland, last week. On occasions of this kind, The Tribune will gladly publish the names if you will give them to us.

It is reported that the Portland doctors tapped Chas. Wesley's lungs Monday and drew therefrom one and a half pints of puss. The prospect is good for Mr. Wesley to regain a reasonably degree of health.

The little son of S. S. Stuart, the merchant at Thomas, was brought to Scio Monday evening, suffering from a broken arm. The fracture was adjusted by Dr. Prill and he is doing as well as could be expected.

R. J. Logan, S. C. Jackson, G. L. Daggfett and H. C. Speidel, all of Seattle and who are interested in the condensery, were in Scio Tuesday. They expressed themselves as being well pleased with the condensery outlook.

P. D. Gilbert, Dr. Robinett, Hub Bryant and Judge Swan, of Albany, were over to organize a branch of the Red Cross last Thursday night. Scio's portion of the fund which Linn county is to raise is $750. This means for Scio and vicinity. $15,000 is the sum Linn county is expected to raise.

The 6 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Grimes, of Bilyeu Den, was brought to Scio Tuesday for examination and treatment. Several X-ray plates were made and found he was suffering from hip joint disease, which will require him to be in bed from two to three months with a heavy weight on his legs. He is under the care of Dr. Prill.

Al Sternberg, of M. Sternberg & Co., of Albany, was a Scio visitor Sunday.

Lindley Hull, of LeBan, Wash. is visiting at the home of his uncle, Cal Carson, of this city.

M. E. Roth, of near Tallman, was in Scio yesterday for a short time and paid The Tribune office a visit.

We make a specialty of Friendship, Engagement and Wedding Rings. F. M. French & Son, Albany, Oregon.

If you have a news item or contemplate a trip of any kind or have visitors, tell or phone us about it. We want all the news going and do not wish to slight any one.

Clyde Rodgers, at the Parker hospital, is reported as continuing to improve and will soon be able to return to his home providing, of course, he continues to mend.

Thomas Bilyeu and family, of Hillsborough, were in town Sunday. Mr. Bilyeu is the inventor of the money changing machine which figured in the Portland courts a year or so ago. Four or five of the officers and salesmen of the company are now doing time in the Federal penitentiary at McNeils island for fraudulent dealings with the public. Mr. Bilyeu was not connected with the frauds in any manner.

Sheep Next Week
J. D. Densmore will receive sheep next Monday at West Scio, for Tuesday shipment. Call him up on the phone if you have stuff of this kind for sale and he will visit you and arrange the purchase.

Please Pay Up
The Tribune has been at a heavy expense lately and those who are indebted to The Tribune or to the Santiam News will greatly oblige us if they will call at the office and square up, or send us a check.

Road to Happiness
Be amiable, cheerful and good natured and you are much more likely to be happy. You will find this difficult if not impossible however, when you are constantly troubled with constipation. Take Chamberlain's tablets and get rid of that and it will be easy. These tablets not only move the bowels, but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.
