

Proper Food for Weak Stomachs

The proper food for one man may be all wrong for another. Every one should adopt a diet suited to his age and occupation. Those who have weak stomachs need to be especially careful and should masticate their food thoroughly. It is also important that they keep their bowels regular. When they become constipated or when they feel dull and stupid after eating they should take Chamberlain's Tablets to strengthen the stomach and move the bowels. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.

Best Remedy for Whooping Cough

"Last winter when my little boy had the whooping cough I gave him Chamberlain's cough remedy," writes Mrs. J. B. Roberts, East St. Louis, Ill. "It kept his cough loose and relieved him of those dreadful coughing spells. It is the only cough medicine I keep in the house because I have the most confidence in it." This remedy is also good for colds and croup.

The Red Cross Fund

Dr. Prill and his several committees have put in a week of hard work and, while the sum apportioned to Scio and vicinity has not quite been raised, it is nearing the desired goal and subscriptions are still coming in.

From reports we learn that Kingston has subscribed $176.50; Jordan $59.55; Shelburn $16.50; Thomas $150.50; Scio $627, and Crabtree $412.52, making a grand total of $1443.52.

Next week The Tribune will publish the names and amounts given at all of these localities.

Judge Bradshaw Is Dead

Judge William L. Bradshaw, of The Dalles, died suddenly in Portland last week. In the passing of Judge Bradshaw the state has lost one of her most eminent and profound jurists. He has been on the circuit bench for the past 26 years and never a hint of wrong doing or of official corruption has tarnished his fair name.

Judge Bradshaw was a member of the order of the Knights of Pythias for many years and was one of the brightest and most eloquent members of the order. The Tribune editor has served in the grand lodge with him several times. His eloquent and witty addresses were always a most interesting feature of the session.

As a man and citizen there are none better than Judge Bradshaw. Genial and companionable, he was ever a central figure of a group of friends, of which all who knew him are honored to be numbered.

Birthday Party

Kieth White entertained seventeen of his little friends Saturday afternoon at his home, the occasion being his eleventh birthday. Games were played until late in the afternoon, when ice cream, strawberries, cake and punch were served. Those present were: Ruth Shelton, Valma Edwards, Lois Parrish, Amy Holteen, Lois Holteen, Bertha Thayer, Edna Wann, Grace Long, Verlin Richardson, Vanny Shelton, Lyle Snelton, John Densmore, Cyrel Arnold, Vern Neal, Lester Quigley, Claude Holteen, Gail Parrish, Maurice White and Kieth White.

Mrs. Henry L. Shelton and daughter, Miss Cleora, were Albany visitors on Tuesday.
