

Road to Happiness

Be amiable, cheerful and good-natured and you are much more likely to be happy. You will find this difficult if not impossible however, when you are constantly troubled with constipation. Take Chamberlain's tablets and get rid of that and it will be easy. These tablets not only move the bowels, but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.

Get Rid of Your Rheumatism

Now is the time to get rid of your rheumatism. You will find Chamberlain's Liniment a great help. The relief which it affords is alone worth many times its cost.

LOCAL BREVITIES

A church of the Spiritualist faith has been organized in Albany.

For Rent—A seven room house. Inquire at The Tribune office.

Scio and vicinity is reported to have raised about $1400 for the Red Cross fund.

One more good soaking rain will insure a good crop for this section of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Myers of Portland came up Saturday for a visit with relatives.

Our county court does not seem to be the most harmonious body in the world these days.

This Roundup business is becoming somewhat of a chestnut. Once seen the novelty ceases.

The Tribune is indebted to Mr. and Mrs. McLain of Shelburn, for a pleasant call yesterday.

A big dance Saturday night at the Wesely hall by Salem orchestra. Dancing tickets 75 cents.

Dr. and Mrs. Dale and son William, of Harrisburg, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Prill last Sunday.

The Chas. Wesely funeral was delayed a day awaiting the arrival of his brother James from Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Holland left yesterday on an auto trip to Portland, expecting to be gone for one week.

Dr. W. A. Cox, an Albany dentist for the past six or seven years, died at his rooms in that city Monday morning.

The street running east towards Jordan, on the south side, is being graded and will be given a gravel surfacing.

August Koffner and family and Peter Koffner and family all of Salem, visited at the home of Wm. Rhoda, last Sunday.

Newt Weddle has procured a handsome flag which he will float at Telephone headquarters hereafter especially on the 4th of July.

John Wesely went to Portland Saturday morning to be with his brother Charles during the last hours of the latter.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bilyeu motored down to Portland, Friday, and from there on to Hood River to visit relatives.

For return to Smith & Fountain store, Jefferson, Ore., Black Fox neck piece. Lost between Jefferson and Green bridge, June 16, 1917.

After the street leading east on the south side is graded, a surfacing of crushed rock is to be given it, similar to that on Main street.

The Tribune's job section is engaged in printing 268,000 labels for the condenserv. As the milk plant uses from 10,000 to 12,000 daily, it keeps us hustling.

All of the business houses in Scio were closed Wednesday afternoon out of respect to our late fellow townsman and business man, Chas. Wesely.

Anton Stepanek, while feeding the pigs on Monday, had a slight stroke of paralysis, fell and cut his face badly. He has had some heart trouble of late. Apparently he is all right now.

Our acre strawberry patch will be open to pickers on Wednesdays and Saturdays as long as the season lasts at 15 cents per gallon, at my farm 4 miles northeast of Scio.—John Chytil.

An unusually large crop of potatoes and beans have been planted in this locality. The bean is a crop which has heretofore been planted for family use. This year the commercial feature has been looked after.

Are You Planning on Doing Some Round-Up Trading?

So many persons have told us that they would be in during our 3 days Round-Up and Celebration and have wanted to know for sure that we would be open all three days.

These three days will be busy ones in Albany, but we have planned for it and you may be assured that we will be open every day and fully prepared to handle the crowds that will come to buy

YOU ARE INVITED

Do you like to have a place to leave your packages and meet your friends right on the main street without going to the livery or garage? You are invited to come here.

If you come as early as possible we can wait on you and not keep you so as to interfere with your days' pleasure.

Ours is a Men's and Boys' store; we have everything that a man or boy wears, and if you want a large assortment to choose from, you should come here.
