

Road to Happiness

Be amiable, cheerful and good natured and you are much more likely to be happy. You will find this difficult if not impossible however, when you are constantly troubled with constipation. Take Chamberlain's tablets and get rid of that and it will be easy. These tablets not only move the bowels, but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.

LOCAL BREVITIES

Uneasy lie many heads these days for the draft cometh.

The Albany Roundup attracted a number of Scio people this week.

How about the Mill street improvement? Are we to wade in mud another winter?

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stupke, of Mill City, came down Monday for a 4th of July vacation.

Mason Jones of Portland is visiting at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Morris, of this city.

Our usual 4th of July rain is now about due and farmers say rain is badly needed on the late grain and potatoes.

Mrs. M. C. Gill and daughter, Miss Grace, are visiting Mrs. Ross Hibler, another daughter of Seattle, Wash.

Dr. Prill performed an operation Sunday afternoon on Mrs. Mike Kelly at her home near Jefferson. She is doing well.

Mrs. Zvovsky and children, of Junction, Oregon, are visiting at the home of her son who, we are told, is employed at the condensery.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Thoms motored to Portland Sunday, returning on the following day, to attend the 76th birthday of Mrs. Thoms' father.

Newspapers have been compelled to raise their ad and subscription rates as well as the merchant his goods, or the farmer his food products.

Scio was remarkably quiet yesterday. Everybody, his wife and children seemed to have gone to Albany. Many of the stores were closed all day and all of them in the afternoon.

The courts have decided that a man cannot make wine for his own personal use. Pretty soon it will be unlawful to make cider or even Brvan's grape juice.

Oscar Lindley is carrying his left arm in a sling, caused by vaccination for smallpox. The arm is severely swollen and painful and requires surgical dressing.

The question of labor to care for the crops is now worrying the farmers. Men to care for the hay crop are hard to get and when wheat harvest sets in the shortage will be strenuous.

W. A. Gilkey, a farmer of Thomas and of German ancestors, subscribed $25 to the Red Cross fund. Will other Germans or sons of Germans please take notice.

Mrs. Nellie Gunaule, of Lebanon, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bilyeu. She has quit the dining room in Hotel Lebanon and has accepted a clerkship in the T. C. Turner store.

Wants, For Sale or Lost, Found etc. Under this head The Tribune will hereafter publish the items indicated. The charges will be one cent a word; two figures constituting a word. 25 cents is the minimum charge.

The motor car which has been on the Mill City run for several years has been succeeded by a train which runs via Corvallis to Eugene and then to Wendling and returns to Springfield. On the following day the trip is reversed. Two crews and two trains furnish the service.

J. F. Wesely has been selected as executor of the estate of his late brother Charles. During the interim, while he is busy in looking up matters connected with the estate, his old time clerk, Oscar Lindley, will be found behind the counter attending to the wants of customers.

There is no doubt but what patriotism is being awakened. At no time since the civil war has there been a reason for the rousing of the American people. Now another crisis has arisen which will require full power of the American people.

James Wesely, of Holyrood, Kas., who was called here by the death of his brother Charles, reports that parts of Kansas will have short crops on account of drouth. Mr. Wesely operates a large farm as well as a store. His name can now be found on our subscription books.

Roe Lindley got hungry for a drink of soda water last Sunday. So he and others hid themselves to Sodaville and Waterloo to satisfy the hunger. He reported quite a few people at Sodaville and a larger number at Waterloo on account of a Sunday school picnic.

Since the consolidation of The Scio Tribune and the Santian News, The Tribune has been so overrun with work that an additional compositor was necessary. Our subscription list is growing so rapidly that we will soon be able to compete for the county printing, and this is as it should be for The Tribune represents more than half the territory of Linn county.

A copy of the Echo News now on our table contains the announcement of the death of Mrs. Maud Irvine Wigglesworth of Echo. Mrs. Wigglesworth was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Irvine, formerly of Scio and a most estimable family. Maud was well known to Scio people, all of whom regret her passing at so early in life and who extend sympathy to the bereaved husband and parents.

The Thrice-a-Week Edition of The New York World

—In 1917—

Practically a Daily at the price of a Weekly. No other newspaper in the world gives so much at so low a price.

The value and need of a newspaper in the household was never greater than at the present time. The great war in Europe is now half-way into its third year, and whether peace be at hand or yet be far off, it and the events to follow it are sure to be of absorbing interest for many a month to come. These are world-shaking affairs, in which the United States, willing or unwilling, is compelled to take part. No intelligent person can ignore such issues.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD and THE SCIO TRIBUNE together for one year for only $2.15.
