

LOCAL BREVITIES

E. C. Peery is rustivating at Cascadia this week.

Nyal Face Cream sales are mounting every day. If you don't use it, get acquainted.

Mrs. H. O. Shilling, of Shelburn, was a pleasant caller at The Tribune office Monday afternoon.

G. W. Hawker, Linn county's game warden, was in town Monday looking after affairs pertaining to his office.

Some "good buyes" in kodaks at Peerys. $10 3A Brownie now $8. $12 2A Folding pocket kodak, now $10.

J. S. Sticha is the milk rustler for the condensery now. Four new routes have been established by him commencing yesterday.

Miss Christine Shindler, bookkeeper at the Scio State Bank, taken a three days vacation last week in order to can wild blackberries.

Last Saturday Wm. Knauf had the misfortune of breaking one of the bones in his right hand. Dr. Hobson adjusted the fracture.

Auto Robes, any price, from $4.00 up to $20.00. Before you send or go away to get a robe, call and see what we have. N. I. Morrison.

Mark M. Peery, of Springfield, was in town Monday night. He was returning from attending the funeral of his brother-in-law, Will C. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Gill and daughter, Miss Grace, returned last Tuesday evening from a several weeks visit to Tacoma, Seattle and Spokane. They enjoyed the trip greatly.

Dr. J. L. Hill, of Albany and Mr. H. D. Horlach, expert on X-ray machines, came over from Albany Friday morning. Mr. Horlach, while here, adjusted Dr. Prill's X-ray apparatus.

Bert Bilyeu carries his left hand in a sling, caused by the rock crusher which he was setting up falling on his hand. The accident occurred Monday morning and the wounds are very painful.

It is announced at Washington, D. C., that the second call for drafted men will occur in August. This will hit every county in the state, as there are no volunteers to speak of to offset the quota.

Oscar Lindley, of Silverton, says he has not been getting The Tribune for two weeks. Something is wrong with the mail in some way. The paper has been mailed from this office both of those weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Connaway and children, of Hood River, are at the home of Mrs. Connaway's parents for a visit. Mr. Connaway's visit was short but Mrs. Connaway will stay for some days.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Shelton, Miss Cleora Shelton and Miss Christine Shindler went to Albany Sunday evening with Henry Bilyeu to see Clifford Yarbough, a nephew of Mr. Shelton, who was on his way to Fort Stevens.

The death of W. C. Miller, of Amity, was reported last week. Mr.

Talk paint to Peery if you want to save money. Paints of all grades honestly represented.

We set the pace for wall paper service at Peerys. Paper of quality at the right price properly displayed.

We make a specialty of Friendship, Engagement and Wedding Rings. F. M. French & Son, Albany, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. MacDonald spent last Sunday at Springfield. Mrs. Edess Cox and little daughter returned with them.

Quite a good many tears were shed, it is said, when the Albany artillery company left for Astoria last Sunday night. Three boys from Scio and vicinity are members of the company, viz Carson, McLain and Yarbrough.

Spencer Long, son of M. P. Long, was riding one horse and attempting to catch another horse Tuesday morning when the loose horse kicked, striking young Long on the right leg below the knee. The leg was cut badly but no bones were broken.

J. B. Wyatt who, for many years was one of Albany's leading attorneys but who has been in Portland for several years, has returned to Albany and will again be found in his old time office with Weatherford & Weatherford. He has become a member of the firm.

The Jefferson Review editor is at the Breitenbush hot springs. He has been there for two weeks and is camping with Howard Montgomery, or near Scio. Tip says there are 53 hot springs there and that the water will cure anything from smallpox to an ingrowing toenail.

Howard McClelland, a 14-year-old Stayton boy, was injured so badly last Sunday evening that when found, was quite dead. He started to a neighbors house to borrow a saddle. It is supposed the horse stumbled and fell on the boy. The horse was so injured that he was shot.

District Attorney Burtenshaw, of Northern Idaho, visited his sister, Mrs. J. P. Crabtree last week. Mr. Burtenshaw paid this office a visit while here. He is a most pleasant gentleman and seems to be fully in touch with northern Idaho politics and the activities of the I. W. W. in that locality.

Oscar Ingram, of the Crown mines near Gates, was in town Monday. He reports matters progressing satisfactory there and that the main body of ore would be opened within a very short time. Mr. Ingram states that The Tribune is the only paper they get at the mines and that it is greatly appreciated.

General Harrison G. Otis, editor of the Los Angeles Times is dead. General Otis was a veteran of both Civil and Spanish wars raising from the rank of private to that of general. As an editor he made the Los Angeles Times of world wide fame, chiefly because of the fight he made against Union labor for an open shop. The Times building was blown up and 22 of his employees killed. The two McNamary brothers are now serving time at San Quentin for the crime.

A $20,000 Fire

Last week a fire occurred right in the heart of the business section of Albany, in which the three buildings adjoining the Albany State Bank building on the west, were gutted. The buildings were owned by J. R. Wyatt, of Portland, Mrs. Strahn, of Atlanta, Georgia and J. K. Weatherford, of Albany. They were occupied by a cigar store and pool room, a restaurant and a moving picture show. All owners and occupiers carried about a 50 per cent value in insurance.

Birthday Party

Saturday evening Roscoe Daniels surprised his wife when he invited a number of friends to spend her nineteenth birthday evening with them. Good music and social conversation, followed by the serving of refreshments were in order. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Couey and family, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Moses, Mr. and Mrs. Novak and family, Mrs. Sandoz and family, Mrs. Pace, and Misses Ethel and Emaline Carson, Dollie Hoagland, Cleora Shelton, Ethel Ingram, and Christine Shindler. Everyone present spent a very enjoyable evening.

Wouldn't Tell a Lie

Wayne Stuart, of Albany, and well and favorably known in Scio, just forgot himself a few days ago, and pressed the speed lever of his auto a little too hard. The speed cop was a witness and Wayne was invited to visit the proper official in consequence, depositing $10 bail therefor, which he forfeited.

Wayne says he is not exactly like Washington, who could not tell a lie. Wayne could but he wouldn't. Hence the forfeiture.

Red Cross Dance at Lebanon

The new McKinley Mitchell warehouse at Lebanon, will be dedicated Friday, August 3, with a Red Cross dance. The dance will be a benefit for the Red Cross members. All are cordially invited.

Roy Fitzwater
Manager

Taken Up

Six pigs, four small and two shouts, all black. The owner can have same by paying charges and applying to. Frank Veverka
South of Scio.

Valuable Farm for Sale

I hereby offer for sale my farm, situated 1½ miles east of Scio, consisting of 117 acres, good 9-room farm house, all necessary out buildings in first class condition, barns, etc., well fenced and fair farm orchard. Will sell at a reasonable price.

Mrs. Frances Wesely.

Wants, For Sale, Lost, Found, Etc.

Wants, For Sale or Lost, Found etc. Under this head The Tribune will hereafter publish the items indicated. The charges will be one cent a word; two figures constituting a word. 25 cents is the minimum charge.

A snap—The Tribune is authorized to advertise a farm of 86 acres, a short distance east of Scio. The place is well improved and 60 acres in cultivation, balance good pasture. Some timber. The very reasonable price of $75 per acre is asked. For particulars as to location and terms, enquire at this office.

CASH FOR EGGS—Sanitary Market.

Cook Wanted—A lady to help cook in a cook-house at a logging camp. A nice place, handy and right on the railroad. Will pay $35 per month. Write me. Mrs. Ivy B. Hall, Detroit, Ore. tf

For Sale.—One team of horses, weight 1100 and 1050, one set of double work harness and 3-inch new moline wagon. Gilbert Garland.

For Sale—A span of small mules, sound and well broken, single or double, both young. Gheep for cash. Wm. Brenner.

Wanted—Six to 8 cords of good second growth fir wood, as free of knots as possible. Inquire at this office.

The Scio Tribune, $1.50 the year.

H. C. ROLOFF AUCTIONEER

WATERLOO OREGON
R. F. D. No. 1 Phone 12x Sweet Home

Sale dates arranged for at The Scio Tribune Office, Scio, Ore.

Mortgage Loans Negotiated Notary Public

H. B. CHESS Attorney at Law

Office on Sherman St Lebanon, Ore.

Oliver and other kinds of type-writer ribbons for sale at this office.

Dr. T. K. Sanderson

DENTIST

Phone 27-7

SCIO OREGON

Morrison & Lowe UNDERTAKERS

Calls Attended to Promptly
Day or Night

SCIO OREGON

Scio Meat Market

HOLECHEK BROS., Props

Fresh Meats of All Kinds

Reasonable Prices

Main Street Scio, Ore.

ATTENTION FARMERS

When in town do not fail to call at our store, where you will always find a good line of staple merchandise to select from. Our prices are the lowest and our goods the best.

We take eggs and butter in exchange and pay the highest price for same.

Make our store your Headquarters.

J. F. Prochaska & Co. SCIO, OREGON

OFFICERS
PRESIDENT, W. F. Gill.
SECRETARY, D. C. Thoms

DIRECTORS
J. J. Barnes, W. F. Gill,
J. A. Bilyeu, J. R. Barnes,
Mrs. Jennie Warner.

Scio Milling Company

SUCCESSOR TO
SCIO ROLLER MILLS

INCORPORATED DECEMBER 28 1904

Our Flour is as good as any made in the Willamette Valley

EVERY SACK GUARANTEED

We do a General Custom Milling Business. Flour and Feed on Sale. Wheat Bought and Exchanged for Flour. We are in the Field for Business and Will Treat You Right

STICHA'S CONFECTIONERY

J. S. STICHA, Proprietor

Confectionery, Ice Cream, Tobacco and Cigars

POST CARDS A SPECIALTY

SCIO, OREGON

Scio Produce Market

Under New Management

NOW OPEN FOR BUSINESS

Will pay Cash for Eggs, Poultry, Veal, Hogs, Hides
and Cascara Bark

We will buy Cream for the Hazelwood Company

Anyway, let us get acquainted. If you have a grievance make it known and we will endeavor to rectify it.

We will give you a Square Deal

J. W. MOORE, Manager