Fred and Chris Bilyeu are in southern Oregon this week, deer hunting.

Ira Bilyeu, W. W. Miller, Ethel Arnold and Roe Shelton started on a trip to Fish Lake Monday.

Walter Bilyeu and Geo. Piatt are in portland this week as delegates, representing Leonidas Lodge No. 36, K. of P. in the grand lodge of the order.

J. F. Kukaeka took a tumble from his wood wagon last week, resulting in an injury to his face and cutting an ear nearly off. Dr. Prill dressed the wounds.

Mrs. Meikeljohn wishes to announce to her friends that, after five months of illness, she is again able to attend to her household duties, shopping, etc.

Everett makes a specialty of Toilet preparations and his stock always contains an excellent assortment of what is newest and best. If its worthy, we have it first.

Tally Gibbons was kicked by a mule last week, resulting in a severe injury to his left thigh. He has been confined to his bed since, under the care of Dr. Prill.

Chas. N. Bilyeu, of Dallas, was issued a marriage license in Portland last week to marry Miss Nida M. Brisbane of that city. Charlie was born and raised to manhood in Scio but has been elsewhere for many years.

Tuesday, October 16, at 2 p. m., is to be Liberty Bond day for Scio. E. B. Piper, managing editor of the Oregonian and E. D. Cusick, of Albany, will be the speakers. Everybody should attend for every man and woman should be interested.

Dr. Rosine was struck about the head Tuesday with a rock fired from a blast by workmen, on the tail race at the flouring mills. Too much powder, evidently was used. Blasting where people are moving about continually is a dangerous business.

J. W. Merritt was brought to Dr. Prilla's office Monday, nursing a broken arm very carefully. He was brushing a fly from one of his horses when the animal struck him with one of his fore feet, resulting in a compound fracture of his right fore arm.

Dr. Prill received the intelligence of the death of his mother, recently at the home of her daughter in the state of New York. His father died about two years ago. Dr. Prill and Mrs. Kershner, his sister, are the only members of the family now living.

The senior class of the High school will give an ice cream social at the school house Friday evening at 7 o'clock. Ice cream, cake, punch and candy will be served. Music and a general good time is promised. Let everybody attend and start a good fund for the class.

Mrs. J. A. Bilyeu went to Salem and on to Gervais Tuesday for the purpose of getting acquainted with her great grandchild, whose arrival was mentioned in The Tribune two weeks ago. Mrs. John Kelly, the mother, was discharged from the hospital at Salem on Tuesday.

Blasting for the purpose of lowering the tail race at the flouring mills, the first of the week, scattered fair sized boulders promiscuously over town for the space of 100 yards or more. Two of these struck just in front of this office. We began to think the town was assaulted by Germans.

Cash for veal and eggs. Daily quotations received. Get our prices. Sanitary Market.

Miss Dolly Daley and Mrs. Nellie Gunsauls, of Lebanon, visited relatives in Scio Sunday.

Services will be held at the Catholic church in Scio next Sunday at 9 a. m. and at Shelburn at 11 a. m. Father Henry Pelletan officiating.

Use Stearns cough remedy. It was introduced only last year, yet it leads all others in sales. 16 full ounces for 50 cents at Peerys.

Why do we say Rexall cold tablets? Because they contain phenacetine, an expensive drug used by physicians but not in the ordinary patents.

Don't take time to come to town every time you need anything in our line. Just phone or mail your order to Everett, he will send the goods by first mail after its receipt.

Shipping Date

Farmers don't forget that I am receiving cattle and hogs for shipment Saturday, October 13. If you have any stuff ready, let me hear from you. Don't forget the date. J. D. Denmore.

Farmers Union Picnic

A Farmers Union picnic and basket dinner will be given at Jordan on Sunday, October 14. Music will be supplied by the union's band and several good speakers, not yet selected will supply entertainment for the people, all of whom are cordially invited to attend and bring a well filled basket.

Drain Your Farm

We have just received a car load of cement tiling. They are porous and the water goes through them like a sieve and is more durable and superior to tiling that only lets the water in at the joints. We intend to carry a stock on hand all the time. Investigate their merits before purchasing your drainage material. N. I. Morrison.

SCHOOL NOTES

The Scio school is on the third week of a very successful and prosperous year with about 157 pupils enrolled. The High school enrollment is larger than it has ever been. The seats were moved from the room which has hence been occupied into the assembly room.

Victor Lyon, who is teaching the Shelburn school and is a post graduate of S. H. S., was very much surprised when four of the students called for a short noon visit. They were Cora Ray, Lieta Couey, Mabel Arnold and Glen Clark.

The Senior class will give an ice cream social Friday night at the school building for the benefit of the school. Ice cream, cake, punch and candy will be served. The Scio orchestra will furnish music.

Miss Metcalf was absent from school Monday on account of the death of a friend.

Vernes and Hazel Tindall were enrolled Monday on the register for the years work.

The Freshmen class has been organized and their officers were published last week, but some yells have been chosen since then as follows.
