

LOCAL BREVITIES

Dusty roads are something new for Oregon in November.

Mrs. Rebecca Morris was an Albany visitor over last Sunday.

Special prices on a side of beef. Can you beat it? Sanitary Market.

H. B. Chess, a Lebanon attorney and potato buyer, was in Scio last Thursday.

Linn county collected a total of $539,985 for 1917. There is $20,873.04 yet due.

Cash for veal and eggs. Daily quotations received. Get our prices. Sanitary Market.

A number of the Scio K. of P. boys paid the Lebanon lodge of that order a fraternal visit Thursday night of last week.

Cholera infantum may become epidemic up in the Jordan country if prompt measures to remove the cause is not taken.

Hon. Jefferson and Mrs. Myers, of Portland, came up Saturday to get acquainted with the new arrival at the E. D. Myers home.

The Tribune is informed that the Balentyne mill sale will go through all right, and developments we do not now expect, will result.

Several auto loads of our young people who delight in tipping the light fantastic toe, attended a dance at Stayton last Friday night.

A. T. Powell returned from a visit to Prineville Tuesday morning. He brought back a little squeaky voice with him as a souvenir of the trip.

Linn county subscribed but half of her quota to the recent government bond issue. Light crops and the high price of feed must be the reason.

Dr. Potter, who has been awaiting the call here in Scio for several weeks, was ordered to report at American lake this week. He left Scio yesterday.

If you want to renew your subscription to the Oregonian, if you are a subscriber for The Tribune, we will renew the daily for you for $4; Daily and Sunday $6.

The Tribune is in receipt of a private letter from O. M. Shelton, who left Scio a few weeks ago on account of his wife's health. He has located at Ash Fork, Arizona.

After today, be sure and place three cents in stamps on your letters if you want them to go. This is a war tax that everyone will feel, even if the postage increase is but 50 per cent.

It is rumored that one of our leading business men has disposed of his business to another party who is quite acceptable to the business public. The transfer will be noted in good time.

Henry Shelton says his eye was injured by a stick of wood flying up. We rather suspect that this stick was in the hands of his wife and a little bit of family discipline was being administered.

The Tribune hears that an M. D. will soon change his location to another town, also that our dentist expects to soon locate elsewhere. As both have had a good business in the past, the public is at a loss for a reason for the change.

Senator Geo. E. Chamberlain, who is at his Oregon home now for a rest after a year of very arduous duty, is hailed by all Oregonians, regardless of political affiliation, as being one of the U. S. senate's biggest men, in point of intellect and industry. Being chairman of the senates committee on military affairs, makes him almost the most important figure of the senate.

Miss Elda Pettibone, of Albany, visited friends in Scio Sunday.

Be sure and read the Scio Produce ad. It means dollars in your pocket.

Geo. Sutherland returned from a trip to Prineville, Saturday evening.

Will Abbott has been endeavoring to grow a potato to resemble the human form and nearly succeeded, as can be seen at this office.

T. W. Laird, who has had charge of the E. C. Peery drug store, has now become proprietor. Mr. Peery retiring to engage in other business.

James Farrel, who has been chief barber for the Morris Bros. during the past summer, returned to his home in Salem last week for the winter.

Father Henry Peletan, who has been assistant to Father Lane, of the Catholic church in Albany, has been given the pastorate at Newport.

The West Scio train is rapidly becoming a milk train these days. Roger Cain brings in a truck load of milk therefrom every day from the evening train.

J. J. Barnes, son Jimmie and daughter Nellie, were Scio visitors Tuesday. J. J. started for California yesterday, expecting to spend the winter there.

American soldiers are now in the first line trenches over in France. The shell case of the first gun fired by them will be sent to President Wilson as a souvenir.

Did you know that Scio's shipping point was the best patron the Southern Pacific has between Lebanon and Silverton? Well it is and the Scio country should make the most of it.

Card of Thanks

We desire to tender our heartfelt thanks to our neighbors and friends for their kindly acts and sympathy in the death and burial of our husband and father. We assure you that your kind acts will ever be remembered.

Mrs. Orpha Garland and Children.

Specials at Peerys

One only of each item to a customer
$1 size Adierika treatment 75 cts
50c Security Condition Powder 38 cents.
25c Rexall Cathartic pills 19 cts.
$1 bottle Dr. Kings New Discovery for coughs and colds 78 cents.

Drain Your Farm

We have just received a car load of cement tiling. They are porous and the water goes through them like a sieve and is more durable and superior to tiling that only lets the water in at the joints. We intend to carry a stock on hand all the time. Investigate their merits before purchasing your drainage material.

N. I. Morrison.

Hospital Notes

Mrs. Grace Greenwood, of Crabtree, is at the local hospital for treatment.

Miss Alice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Pepperling, of Jordan, was brought to the hospital Saturday for medical treatment. She is doing as well as could be expected.

Miss Helen Doborovsky is under treatment at the hospital this week.

Willie Green, who underwent a serious surgical operation at the hospital some time ago, has returned to his home near Crabtree.

Miss Garvin, of Harrisburg, is nursing the Pepperling case.

Miss Katherine Kester, of Harrisburg, is nursing Mrs. Her, who has been seriously sick, but who is now improving.

Dr. Prill was called to Lebanon in consultation in the case of George Garland.

Master Walter Wied, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wied, of Jefferson, had the misfortune to break his right elbow joint, by falling off a tricycle onto the cement walk, while visiting relatives here Sunday. The case is under the care of Dr. Prill.

Miss Bada Erickson, of Salem, is nursing in the family of Leo Rund at Jordan, where three children are ill with Cholera infantum. They are improving rapidly at this date.

Henry Shelton had a bad injury to his left eye by being struck by a piece of wood, cutting the eye ball badly and rupturing the iris. Several splinters of wood were taken out of the eye and Dr. Prill reports he is doing as well as could be expected. He had a narrow escape from losing the eye.

Lieutenant Dr. Potter, who has been visiting Dr. Prill for a few weeks, has been called to active duty and ordered to report to American Lake for duty. He left Wednesday morning.

Potatoes are worth sacked, 90 cents per bushel. The Scio country has a fairly good crop.

Dr. Robert E. Holt, State health officer, of Portland, was in Scio Saturday and, together with Drs. Potter and Prill, visited the Jordan country, looking over the situation in regard to the serious cases of cholera infantum in that vicinity, finding the sanitary conditions very bad, and the disease is due to bad food and water.
