LOCAL BREVITIES

Be sure and read the Scio Produce ad. It means dollars in your pocket.

Mrs. Gilbert Garland and mother, Mrs. Freeman, were Shelburn visitors Friday.

Cash for veal and eggs. Daily quotations received. Get our prices. Sanitary Market.

The Tribune is informed that there was no foundation to the street rumor that an M. D. was soon to remove elsewhere.

A girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Combs, of Scio, Friday morning at the home of Mrs. W. Newton of this city.—Albany Democrat.

Jeff Lewis, of near Sacramento, Cal., arrived in town Monday morning enroute for B. C. He stopped over for a day or two on account of a heavy cold.

Luther Heyne, the Lebanon confectionary man, was a Scio visitor Monday. He says the going of the young men off to the war and the Hooverizing of sugar is hitting the confectionary business a hard lick.

Wm. Knauf has finished digging his 10-acre field of potatoes and has just about 1000 bushels of merchantable potatoes and 200 bushels of culls. He has sold the crop at 91 cents per bushel delivered at West Scio.

We hear that Fax Thayer, of Woodburn, has purchased the Mrs. Adams property, in this city and will take possession of the same next week. Mr. Thayer is a son of Mayor Thayer and will be a desirable acquisition to our city.

Pay Up.—All parties knowing themselves indebted to the Scio Mutual Telephone Co., for long distance calls, will please call immediately at the central office and pay the same. We need the money so don't delay. J. N. Weddle, Mgr.

T. W. Laird, successor to E. C. Peery in the drug business, is not a stranger to the Scio public, as he has had almost complete control of the Peery drug store for more than a year. Being industrious, accommodating and honest, The Tribune predicts, he is a sure success.

There is now an abundance of water in the mill race for power purposes, there is no reason why we cannot have a better light service. Lights on these dark days should be started up at 4 o'clock if not sooner and continued mornings until 8 o'clock or longer. If people must keep lamps ready for service a part of the time, they will soon conclude to use them all the time and the city will be the loser. The people want the lights when they need them.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Garland moved from the E. C. Shelton home into the Sims home Monday.

Four Albany telephone men were going to Salem last week and run onto a small bridge near Jefferson, too near the edge, when the boards tipped and the auto overturned into the ditch. Francis Coats was so badly injured that he died Saturday morning. Riley Waller, who was riding in the front seat had a rib broken. The two in the rear seat were not injured other than bruised.

Notice to Pay Up

Having disposed of my drug business, I respectfully ask those knowing themselves indebted to me to call and settle at once.

E. C. Peery.

Married in Albany

Art Shelton and Mrs. Clarissa A. Parker, both of Scio, were married in Albany Saturday morning, at the Christian church, by Rev. D. Lloyd Morgan. Both have been residents of Scio for several years.

Because of my removal from Scio I will sell the following articles at private sale for cash:

2 couches; 3 rocking chairs; one kitchen treasure; 1 washing machine; 3 chairs; 1 saddle and bridle; 1 9-year-old mare and 2-year-old standard bred colt for $75.

T. K. Sanderson.

Leonidas Lodge Loyal to the Flag

Tuesday evening Leonidas Lodge No. 36 K. of P. made a donation of $25 to the Red Cross fund, now to be raised. In addition the members will contribute individually and use their influence in soliciting donations from others.

The Knights of Pythias in their Uniform Rank, is recognized by the government as no other fraternal order, and many of the members, because of the military training given, now hold commissions in the army.

Other lodges can be equally patriotic if they will. Let Scio's fraternal orders inscribe their names on this Roll of Honor and Patriotism.

Notice to the Public

For the past seven years it has been our policy to give our patrons the best possible show for 10 and 15 cents admission, allowing ourselves a very small margin of profit, but now on account of the war we are taxed from many different sources, namely:

- 1st. City license $1 per show.
- 2nd. $25 per year government licenses.
- 3rd. Our regular state, county and city license.
- 4th. 15 cents per real per each night war tax.
- 5th. 2 cents per each ticket over 10 cents revenue.

Besides the rental of the films and other necessary expense connected with the show. Therefore, we are forced to raise our admission to 20 cents for adults and all children from 6 to 12 years old will remain the same as before, 10 cents.

We assure you that we will give you the best shows we possibly can at all times and after we "lick" the kaiser we will again reduce the price of admission, but at present we all have to do our bit toward defraying the governments expenses, so come as often as you can and we will give you the best we can for your money, and if not satisfactory, we will always gladly refund it.

Thanking you for past and future favors, we are yours very truly,

SCHOOL NOTES

Miss Lucile Emmons, a music teacher, comes from Salem Thursday evenings and returns Saturday. Anyone wishing to take lessons can find her at the residence of Walter Bilyeu.

Someone remarked "the yell team is in very good condition to yell, but evidently some are afraid to exercise their lungs." We hope they will soon get over their timidity.

The freshman are sorry to say that they have some who are ashamed of the color of green as some won't wear the caps.

A party will be given Friday night by the High school. Each pupil of the High school has the privilege of inviting one person.

Since conservation is now the order of the day, Miss Prill attempted to conserve in room rent by staying in the school house last Monday night. However, when things grew quiet and the little mice began to play about, she was seen signalling frantically from the window to passers by in a desperate effort to get out. Evidently Miss Prill found conservation rather unpleasant with the mice.

Those Freshman

What's this upon our campus fair? Those greenish splotches here and there.

The glinting tint of emerald

The Freshies wear.

Thus infant voices pipe with glee
They romp and shout so gay and free
By childish freshman spirit called
The Freshman spree

The boys of the eighth grade have organized their basket ball team and expect some good interesting games. The players are: Forward, Glen Holland, Maurice White; center Gordon Wesely; guards, Roy Bilyeu, Willard Long; captain, Glen Holland, manager, Roy Bilyeu.

Change of Ownership

Having sold my drug business, good will, etc., to Mr. Thomas Laird I bespeak for him the same liberal patronage accorded me in the past. Mr. Laird needs no introduction to the people of this community. He is a young man, honest, energetic and efficient and one in whom you can entrust your business with confidence.

Respectfully,

E. C. Peery.
