

LOCAL BREVITIES

The Scio Tribune, $1.50 per year. Read the Santiam Pharmacy ad this week. It will open your eyes.

Joe Oupor transacted business in Albany last Thursday.

Jess Rodgers and Fred Jones were Albany visitors last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bilyeu went to Salem Saturday, returning the following day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Titus, of near Albany, spent the week at the home of Otto Rahn.

Our merchants, as a rule, report a better business for 1917 than for the previous year.

J. M. Calavan and wife are visiting at the home of their son, J. L. Calavan of west of town.

Mrs. Monte Leslie and children spent holiday week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Morrow.

The Scio Meat Market will pay the highest cash price for all kinds of hides. No tare deducted.

N. I. Morrison obtained license No. 1, permitting him to sell explosive powders, in Albany Monday.

Mrs. R. R. Watson and children, of Jefferson, attended the eighth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rahn.

We make a specialty of Friendship, Engagement and Wedding Rings. F. M. French & Son, Albany, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bilyeu and daughter, Miss Leita, of Lebanon, came over Monday morning for a visit with their Scio relatives.

Owing to the unusual warm weather for this time of the year, the condensery lost a large quantity of milk the first of the week by souring.

Laird's ad for the Santiam Pharmacy calls to mind again the fact that honest, square dealing with the public's welfare in mind, is a merchant's best asset.

Wm. Brenner purchased the small farm of J. A. Pace last week, the purchase price being $1100. Mr. Pace and family will leave, this week, for Tennessee.

Joe Borovicka, who has been holding down a job in Portland for some time, came home for the holidays Monday of last week. He expects to leave for Los Angeles about Jan. 7 with a view of residing there.

Everybody should attend the school meeting next Saturday. We want to maintain our present standard schools and the necessary money must be provided to do so. Therefore, if you are interested, be on hand.

Because of lack of heavy cannon and, also, lack of ships to carry these heavy guns to France, England and France are supplying the American troops with the heavy artillery needed and will continue to do so until the end of the war.

Scio has a bunch of boys, nearly young men, of whom we have heard complaint for various causes. Now boys don't do such things. It is neither smart nor manly and you will realize this fact when you grow older. Besides it is sure to get both yourself and parents into trouble if you do not desist. Don't do it.

Frank Kruml, who has been spending holiday week with home folks, returned to Eugene the first of the week, where he is taking a full business course at the Commercial college. He is now working at stenography and type writing, expecting to tender his services to the government when he is duly qualified.

N. I. Morrison transacted business in Albany Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Munkers have returned from a month's trip to visit relatives in California.

Born.—On January 2, to Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Shelton, a 9-pound boy. All are doing well except Varde, who requires a little careful attention.

Two young men obtained medical certificates from Dr. Browne within the past few days in order to secure marriage license. Both were given clean bills of health.

Mrs. Thomas Laird, who has been spending the holidays at her girlhood home at Florence, returned home this week and her hubby Tom, the pill expert, is happy.

Mr. Cain, of Chicago, who has been visiting his brother, R. M. Cain for some time, called on The Tribune Wednesday morning. He is greatly pleased with Oregon and may locate here. He compares the mild and balmy winters with Chicago frigidness of the present time and thinks Oregon would be a most pleasant place in which to live.

Shipping Livestock

I will receive hogs and cattle at West Scio Wednesday, January 9 for shipment Thursday, Jan. 10.

J. D. Densmore.

Resolutions of Condolence

Hall of Dierdorff Lodge No. 54, I. O. O. F., Scio, December 22, 1917

Whereas, It has pleased the Divine providence to remove from our order Brother H. A. Johnson, of Salem, a former resident of Scio and a member of Dierdorff lodge almost since its institution, therefore

Be It Resolved by Dierdorff Lodge No. 54, I. O. O. F. That in the death of our Brother, A. H. Johnson, our lodge has lost a faithful and valuable member and our state an exemplary and honorable citizen.

Resolved, That the Charter of Dierdorff Lodge No. 54, be draped in mourning in respect of our late brother.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our Lodge, that an engrossed copy be sent to the bereaved wife and family and that a copy of the same be published in The Scio Tribune.

Miss Anna Boehringer, of Salem, Miss Ruth Bodine, of Albany and Miss Taylor, of Halsey, are nursing for Dr. Prill at the hospital this week.

A Superb Number

The Oregonian's New Year edition in point of typography, illustration and statistical information is sure 100 per cent among special editions. The scope is broad, covering all sections of the state and its ship-building section gives one an idea of the stride Oregon is going which could be obtained in no other way, save by personal inspection.

The present winter, so far, is a record breaker in point of high temperature. But once and that was in November, has the thermometer registered freezing weather and that was hardly perceptible. Winter wheat and grass are growing as in early spring. Fruit buds are swelling which may mean a short fruit crop this year, for we are sure to have frosty weather before spring.
