

LOCAL BREVITIES

The Scio Tribune, $1.50 per year

A Parent-Teachers institute, it is announced, will be held in this city on February 2.

Born—On January 16, to Mr. and Mrs. Mariou L. Brown, of Shelburn, a daughter.

The Scio Meat Market will pay the highest cash price for all kinds of hides. No tare deducted.

J. W. Moore, the produce man, made a business trip north on the train Saturday evening.

In speaking of Store Efficiency, we are glad to have you judge us by appearance. Santiam Pharmacy.

R. J. Logan, of Seattle and principal owner of the condensery here, was in Scio last week, looking after business.

Try "Spee Dee," the no-grit hand paste. Cheaper than soap and a hundred times better. 27 ounces for 25 cents at Santiam Pharmacy.

John Pryor, of near Lebanon and a brother of Mrs. J. F. Beard of this city, died at his home the first of the week and was buried Tuesday.

Dr. T. K. Sanderson, of Woodburn, was in Scio last Sunday, shaking hands with his many friends. Doc. says he has struck good business at Woodburn.

J. D. Grimes has exchanged his farm for a place five miles from Roseburg and expects to move thereto this week. He ordered The Tribune mailed to his new home.

The condensery has raised the price of milk to $2.75 per hundred, 4 per cent butter fat. The price for hauling is 15 cents per hundred, netting the farmer $2.60 at his door.

Scio is about to lose the Iler family. Mr. Iler secured a position elsewhere a short time ago and Mrs. Iler is now disposing of the household goods preparatory to joining him.

In our last weeks issue a typographical error made us say that John Shimanek had purchased the Don McKnight farm. We should have given John Shindler as the purchaser.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Laird and little brother, Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shelton and children and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ohlemeyer were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Rodgers last Saturday.

The Tribune is informed that Owen Garland lost a valuable horse the first of the week. The animal got mixed up with barbed wire, by which a joint was so badly injured that the animal was killed.

Harry Johnston has found a finger ring which is, no doubt, of value to the owner, who can receive the ring by calling on Mr. Johnston, satisfying him that the owner has been found and by paying for this notice.

Mylo Bartu, formerly of near Scio, but now in the U. S. service, writes us that he has been transferred to the Weather Bureau, and is now stationed at Walla Walla, Wash., and desires that The Tribune shall be sent to him there.

Guy Funk, who is near the top of the conscription roll, and who did not claim exemption when he filed questionnaire, expects to be called with the first draft and says he is ready. This is the true and patriotic spirit and, when compared with too many others who laid awake nights to study an excuse for exemption from service, makes one feel glad that not all of our young men are would-be slackers nor are trying to hide behind a woman's skirts.

Come out to the I. O. O. F. hall Saturday evening and hear the railroad engine toot.

This is Wright's Smoize time. One trial and you'll always use it. Price still $1 at Santiam Pharmacy.

W. W. Crawford, the Albany Ford man, accompanied by his wife, left Albany yesterday for a vacation visit at Long Beach, Cal.

The Parent-Teachers circle has made arrangements with the Extension department of the O. A. C. for a free illustrated lecture on the History of Oregon, by Prof. Horner. Date will be announced later.

The Santiam country is honored by having the name "Santiam" given to an ocean steamer. No man in Oregon will see this steamer or hear of her activities but what will think of the Santiam country. Long may she float. She is of steel construction and her load is listed at 8800 tons.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Thoms went to Corvallis to see their son, who was recently operated upon for rupture. Young Mr. Thoms is a competent civil engineer and this operation was necessary for him to enlist in the army. Uncle Nathan Young accompanied them for a few days visit with his Corvallis children.

W. H. Hornibrook, editor and chief owner of the Albany Democrat, will be a candidate before the Democratic primaries for the office of Democratic National Committeeman for Oregon. Mr. Hornibrook, if selected, would make a very active member and sure would stir up the dry bones of Oregon democrats.

Journal Bargain Days, Jan. 22 to Feb. 5 inclusive. Do not wait for a card. Send or bring your subscription to Daisy Buckner, at Scio. I will give 25c thrift stamps to the amount of 10 per cent of the subscription price to persons bringing not less than 4 subscriptions. Children, get busy and own a government savings certificate.

Pie Social

The Junior class of the High school will give a pie social Friday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall. Games will be played and a general good social time is assured.

Shipping Hogs

I will receive hogs and cattle at West Scio Wednesday, January 23 for shipment same day. All stuff must be in and weighed up before 12 o'clock. Those having hogs ready for that date, please phone in time for me to make you a visit.

J. D. Denamore.

Notice to the Afflicted

I will give $25 for any case of stomach or kidney trouble I cannot cure. I also treat all kinds of diseases without drugs. Have never failed on appendicitis. You don't need to resort to the knife when you can be cured without it.

Dr. J. Murphy,
Scio, Ore.

Surprise Party

A surprise party was given at the home of Vilas Arnold last Saturday evening. A crowd of 25 congregated and a splendid time was reported by all present. Sandwiches, pickles, cake and coffee were served at midnight and the crowd broke up at about 4 in the morning.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shimanek, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Miller, Mr. and Mrs. W. Fleming, Misses Rosella, Macel, and Ethel Rhoda, Leta Couey, Rosa Posvar, Ethel Carson, Gertrude and Mary Shimanek, Dorris Meiser, Mr. Meiser, Lester Shimanek, Spencer Long, Cecil Eichinger, Frank Mosier, Jas. Outor, Theodore Shimanek, Lawrence Montgomery.

Harvey G. Starkweather

weather has been the member of the Democratic State Central committee for Clackamas county. During the past two years he has been chairman of the democratic county committee.

At a recent meeting of the farmers of Clackamas county, Mr. Starkweather was elected chairman of an organization to cooperate with the county agricultural agent to increase the farm production of the county.

Although born and raised and having lived on a farm practically all his life, his business activities are by no means confined to farming. He has extensive property interests throughout the state and maintains an office in the Broadway building in Portland, in which property he is interested.

Opportunity is Knocking

erection of a large saw mill at or near Scio.

The beginning must be made and we, the people of Scio, must aid in the enterprise if we would have it go. If we will only meet opportunity when she is knocking at our door, there is no reason why Scio and vicinity cannot be started onto the road to prosperity. There are other manufacturing industries besides sawmills, which would be glad to locate in or near Scio, if we only had a railroad.

If every citizen will lend a helping hand, the burden of starting the development ball rolling will be light. Let's do it.
