VOL. XXI. NO. 37.

SCIO, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, APRIL 25, 1918

$1.50 THE YEAR

Seven Chosen for Service.

The list of seven names called for military duty about May 1 is completed. Notices were sent to twenty men asking them to make returns if exemption is claimed and seven were secured. The others were engaged in farming and were excused for the present. The names are: Isaac Barker, Albany; Leland O. McDonald, Mill City; Joe Zornado, Shedd; Stephen J. Farraley, Portland; Ferris E. Ward, Albany; Roy Witt, Crawfordville; Glen L. Shilling, Scio. Gregory Stroda, Harrisburg, waived classification and goes to Fort Sam Houston, Texas, in the quartermaster's department. Three men signed up for special call; one for locomotive engineer, one carpenter and one for chauffeur.—Albany Herald.

Mrs. F. T. Thayer has been quite sick for the past week.

Chris Bilyeu was an Albany visitor Monday.

It's been trying awful hard to rain the last few days.

The Tribune is printing the window cards for the twelfth annual fair to be held at Scio Sept. 17-19.

Mrs. Vivian Bilyeu went to McMinnville the first of the week to see the new Coffey baby girl who will call her "Aunt Viv."

John Wesely is hostler for Roger Cain's motor truck now. At least he seemed to be the boss in hauling shingles Monday.

A little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Harman of Shelburn, is another Bond buyer whose name was not in the list published last week.

John W. Moore has his war garden planted to potatoes and onions. He calculates that he won't have to irrigate as he figures that the onions will draw water from the eyes of the potatoes.

A few drops of sheep dip applied to the roots of the cabbage plant will protect it from the cabbage worm, says a correspondent of the Oregonian.

Mrs. V. A. McKnight returned from a nearly month's visit to McMinnville on Sunday. She reports the grandbaby at the Coffey home as getting along nicely.

E. C. Peery was looking after business matters in Portland yesterday.

You Can't Afford NOT to Paint Now

We are closing out our stock of Paints, and if you have been neglecting your buildings on account of high paint prices, NOW is the time to "stand to." Don't paint until you get our prices.

It won't take you more than 15 minutes to look over our wall paper display.

Are Proud Parents.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. P. H. MacDonald, a handsome boy baby some time within the past two weeks. We regret to say this handsome boy was born by proxy and our esteemed fellow citizens adopted him from the maternity hospital. The mother died in childbirth and the father is now fighting in France. All The Tribune can say about the matter is that the baby has been very fortunate in selecting his home. Mrs. MacDonald is expected to arrive home with the new addition to the family this week.

Albany is preparing to feed 1900 California men en route from that state to Camp Lewis Wash., commencing Friday of this week and running into the first of next week.

In some way the names of F. M. Denny and C. A. Everett were omitted from our list of Bond buyers, and there may be others who have not been reported. We will publish an additional list before the campaign ends when all overlooked will be published. Neither The Tribune nor the committee wishes to slight any person who has bought a Bond.

One of the most realistic fights ever screened will be shown in "The Narrow Trail." Don't miss it.

Two Government surveyors were in town last week for the purpose of looking over section 31, I west, in which the U. S. land office in Portland thought there was some unpatented land. As this is one of the first settled localities in Linn county it was soon found that errors in the land office's records showed section 31, I west, which should have been section 31, I east.

The man who plants a good field of potatoes this year has more than an even chance to get a good price for his product next fall and winter. Many farmers who lost money on this crop last year will raise for home needs only, and for this reason the demand is likely to be good next winter. When his neighbors quit raising a product for market the wise farmer gets busy. Moreover seed will not be so dear and consequently the crop will cost less.

A paper was handed The Tribune Monday upon which a total of 18 names appeared with a credit of various sums of money amounting to $7.85, donated for the purpose of buying a sewing machine for the Red Cross. The subscribers were mainly from the country district east of town.

Scio has but one candidate for office, Mr. D. C. Thoms, candidate for the legislature. Mr. Thoms rendered good service in that body as a member from Marion county, and we believe Linn county can safely trust him. Anyway it will take all of the candidates in both the Republican and Democratic parties to fill our quota, so why resort to the draft?

Some of the boarders at the hotel are getting a bit anxious. Hutch says he will close down Sunday, and as no one has yet appeared to take up the business, the aforesaid boarders are fearful they will have to well, come down to Hun fare.

Additional Bond Buyers.

The following were not listed last week in time for last week's issue of The Tribune. Others have been overlooked and there are still others who will buy Liberty Bonds before the campaign is up, May 4:

Mary Harmon, J. F. Oupor, Emma Cain, George W. Morrow, Archie and Ethel Lindley, F. C. Bryant, H. W. Thoms, O. S. Hutchinson, John B. and M. Covey, Ed Roberts, Jos. A. Senz, Lawrence Montgomery, E. C. Shelton, Anna A. Miller, S. M. and A. G. Finley, John A. White, E. O. and C. O. Lyon, Bettie M. and W. H. McLain, Joe Holub jr., R. M. Cain, Anton Karnos, M. D. and J. A. Craft, Charles Rockwell, Amyavenport, Pearl Peery, Edris Peery.

Called to the Colors.

Under this third call for men to join the colors, order made a little more than one month ago, Oregon is required to furnish 251 men. Of this number Linn county's quota is 7. All told since March 11, a total of 1541 men from Oregon have been called into the military service. The state and the various counties will be credited with these men when the big draft which is coming soon will be made.

Mrs. G. M. Devaney, Mrs. R. E. Bilyeu, Mrs. J. M. O'Rourke and L. L. Bilyeu were in Scio last Sunday visiting relatives says the Albany Herald.

Loss—A 25-cent check with which bank got 1 cent and 14¢. A check which was cashed at the bank and the bank got 1 cent and 14¢.

Mike K. of McMinnville was in town Thursday to get medicine for a very sick horse. The animal was worth $250 and Mike was fearful he could not save him.

Red Cross Activities.

Since last report the Scio Red Cross reports the following: Bed shirts 56, pairs sox 103, gun wipers 300, sweaters 32.

Jordan—Bed shirts 34, pairs of sox 67, pillows 3, pairs of slippers 10, gun wipers 3300, wash cloths 15.

The ladies complain that they are about out of material and of money with which to buy it.

At The Peoples Theatre

This week, Saturday and Sunday, Bill Hart in "The Narrow Trail." Show begins at 8:30. Admission 10 and 20 cents.

Only one week more of the Liberty Bond drive. It is thought every regional bank district will go "over the top" this week with the exception, perhaps, of the Atlanta, Georgia, district. The subscriptions next week will be extra shots at the Kaiser.

Mohair Pool.

The annual mohair pool is now being formed at Scio with Riley Shelton secretary. Those who desire to consign their fleeces of mohair to this pool may do so by phoning or writing in number of fleeces. 36 2

Bring in Your Wheat.

D. C. Thoms of the Scio Milling Co. wants the farmers to bring in what wheat they have to spare by May 10. He wants the wheat then so that he can report how much flour he can supply. Also the power to grind in a satisfactory manner by that time may be too low for profitable work. So bring in your wheat as soon as you can. There will be no increase of price for some time yet and, perhaps, not at all.

Tomorrow (Friday) is Liberty Bond day, as selected by President Wilson. He recommends a half holiday in which to make your subscription.

California has ever discounted Oregon on account of her excess of moisture. Oregon can respond with interest by saying "It does not rain brickbats here."

Scio has the right to crow over other Linn county towns in the buying of Liberty Bonds. Her 333.3 per cent stands about double that of any other of our county towns and 19th in the other towns of the state.

Most of our farmers will complete the seeding of small grain this week with corn, potatoes and gardens yet to plant. All say we have most favorable spring for farming in many years.

Bill Hart, who will appear in the "movies" at the Peoples theatre in Scio Saturday and Sunday next, addressed the people of Albany in person from a well planned display of Liberty Bonds.

The Liberty Bond drive is now in its final stages. Those who do not buy a bond or post-bond before May 4, the closing day of the drive.

The bachelors and widowers who domicile at the Scio hotel are arranging to build a croquet ground just in front of The Tribune office. Much obliged boys. We can keep tab on the games while in the office and no doubt we'll glean many items from the activities of the players.

Ground has been broken by the croquet club, a new and fearless organization, in front of The Tribune office, where contests in this intellectual game will be daily staged. As soon as the working tools are in place, Joe Wesely volunteers to tell and demonstrate how the game should be played. Already John Moore claims to be the champion croqueteer, but he is hooted down by the rest of the bunch.

Born—to the wife of Chester Coffey of McMinnville, a bouncing 10-pound girl. Mr. Coffey was not at home from his trip to the home ranch in Canada, but everything went as well as if he had been there.

Scio flung her honor flag to the breeze last Thursday. Attached to the halliards just below "Old Glory" Scio publishes the fact that she went over the top in buying Liberty Bonds to the tune of 310 per cent.

Mrs. Alda Hutchinson has accumulated quite a good dose of the mumps as a late perquisite in the hotel business. It is said pickles have been discarded from the hotel bill o' fare.

Obituary.

Edmund Leslie Wheeler of near Shelburn, whose death occurred April 8, was born in Huron county, Ohio, September 15, 1850. He lived in Michigan until 1872, when he came to Oregon.

He was united in marriage with Miss Jane Zink June 27, 1893.

Two brothers, one in Oregon and one in Colorado, and three sisters, two in California and one in Washington, besides the widow and two children, survive him.

Mr. Wheeler was a nurseryman of some pote, a stone mason, contractor and concrete worker, having spent several years at Kellogg and Wardner, Idaho, working in his several trade lines. Mr. Wheeler enjoyed the love and respect of his many neighbors and friends who tenderly placed his mortal remains in its final resting place, the grave.

Red Cross Dance

At Richardson Gap hall. Will be given by the Bohemian societies on Saturday evening, April 27. A chicken supper will be served at midnight. The entire net proceeds will be given to the American Red Cross. Everybody cordially invited.

The "500" club is in action again.

To the Voters of Linn County.

I am in a position to help keep the county in the money and to get a dollar's worth for each dollar spent.

I have a wide experience in road building and will be on the job and see that we get results for the money expended.

In an event that I am elected will be supported and will meet every proposition on a fair basis.

I believe in maintaining our existing roads in a passable state, but to use all the surplus money we can in permanent road building in the respective road districts of the county.
