

LOCAL BREVITIES

Mrs. Fred Bilyeu and other ladies were shopping in Albany Saturday.

Mrs. A. G. Prill was an Albany visitor last Saturday.

Oliver Morgan, now at Camp Lewis, is a late subscriber to The Tribune.

Highest price paid for all kinds of poultry and eggs by Tom Large. 35

The Tribune has an interesting article from the pen of George L. Sutherland which will appear in our issue next week.

Bring your cream to the Hazelwood cream station. All testing is done here and Tom Large says he will pay highest market price for it.

C. A. Everett, one of our city druggists, went to Portland Saturday night to attend the convention of druggists which met Monday.

Scio lodge No. 39, A. F. & A. M. will hold stated communication Saturday evening, with a possibility of work.

Setting eggs—I have full-blood Black Minorca eggs for sale at $1 per setting of 15 eggs. Wm. Knauf, Scio. 34

The condensery seems to be dead now, but there will be an awakening about the last of this month.

The fact that Main street has been in good condition during the past winter ought to be sufficient to cause Mill street to be improved this year.

A petition was being circulated and generally signed in Scio yesterday asking the fish and game commission to reopen Thomas creek to trout fishing.

Sell your cream at the Hazelwood station in Scio. Tom Large, the proprietor, guarantees satisfaction.

Fred Jones has ordered his paper address changed to Camas, Wash., so we conclude he has really gone to work.

Linn county has at last an agricultural agent. He will demonstrate probably that he is a benefit to farmers rather than that the place was created to pay somebody a good fat salary. If he does not, good day.

Team for sale—I have a team of horses, weight about 1250 pounds each, 9 and ten years old, for sale. Price $205 with collars. Enquire of F. B. Frost. 36 4t

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cyrus and his mother, Mrs. Emma Cyrus, drove up from Portland Saturday night, reaching Scio at 11 o'clock. They returned the following evening.

Tom Large wants you to give his Hazelwood cream station a trial. He guarantees an absolutely honest test (no fees for testing) and will pay you the top price.

Pharmacist V. Laird of the Santiam Pharmacy went to Portland Sunday morning on a business trip, expecting to return Monday. During his absence E. C. Peery did the pill expert business for him.

Slowly but surely all of the people who were able to, but did not, buy bonds when the canvassers called on them, are coming in and placing their subscriptions with the bank. They do not fancy having their names placed on a yellow card.

A convention of Pythian Sisters is to be held in Scio on the afternoon of May 8. Albany, Salem, Corvallis, Eugene, Dallas, Independence, Falls City, Brownsville, Silverton and Lebanon are expected to be represented.

J. P. Royce, an aged Sodaville man, when asked to buy a Liberty Bond became angry and struck the solicitor. After his anger cooled he thought better of the matter and went to Lebanon and purchased a Bond. However, he was arrested afterward, taken to Albany and fined by Judge Swann.

Glen Lewis Shilling and Henry Jungwirth are the Scio boys called to the colors and must report this week at Albany.

D. C. Thoms, J. A. C. Brant and Thomas Smail visited the Lebanon Masonic lodge Tuesday evening. The Lebanon Masons had special work on hand and wanted some of the outside brethren to see it well done.

J. F. Wesely and family had a narrow escape from fatal poisoning this week. A bird (presumably a China pheasant) freshly killed, had been brought to him for mounting. Arsenic is used by the taxidermist and Joe thinks he must have gotten some on the bird which was afterwards cooked and served for dinner. Happily the poison only made them very sick.

Scio May Be Hotelless.

The present proprietor of the Scio hotel, we are informed, will close out the business next week. He has other business opportunities which require his attention. For some time Mr. Hutchinson has been looking for a buyer but none, so far, has come down with the necessary funds though several have been buzzing around. The hotel business in Scio is a paying business and will continue to pay. But Hutch seems to think he has something better in view. Whatever may be the result we hope someone will take hold of the business and give us, as Hutch has, a first-class country hotel.

To Do Jury Duty.

J. F. Rockwell, Providence; J. N. Bilyeu, Crabtree; Peter Bilyeu, Jordan; G. H. Gearhart, Santiam; G. A. Sandner, Kingston; John A. Sumpter, Santiam, and R. G. Daniel, Scio, have been drawn as jurors to serve at the May term of the circuit court.

Chance for a Cook.

At the hotel several bachelors—young and old—are anxious to form a sort of housekeeping club, only one serious obstacle (lack of a cook) seems insurmountable, and that may be overcome if the boys can only hold out until the school closes, when they might secure the services of one of the teachers who has been practising with Hoover's war recipes. The boys are willing to take a chance with the odds against them. It can be added that none of them is matrimonially inclined. Offers as cook will be entertained. See John.

May Raise Wheat to $2.50 a Bushel. Washington.—A favorable report on the Gore bill to increase the minimum price for wheat of the 1918 crop from $2 to $2.50 per bushel was made by the senate agricultural committee.

Mohair Pool.

The annual mohair pool is now being formed at Scio with Riley Shelton secretary. Those who desire to consign their fleeces of mohair to this pool may do so by phoning or writing in number of fleeces. 36 2

Editor of The Tribune:—

We all promised to write when we left and I suppose the rest of the boys have. Here I come in, last as usual. There isn't very much that I can tell for we aren't allowed to, but I'm sure I could tell some pretty interesting tales if I were home.

I got some schooling while in San Antonio, Texas, but nothing like I've had over here. I am not a flyer though I'd like to be; my work is in the shops. I have to keep one plane in repair all the time. Sometimes I have to work pretty fast and hard, and other times I have some time to myself.

We are in the line of advance at present and have some lively old times. They beat all the celebrations I've ever seen all to pieces. And sometimes when you are looking for something to drop on your nut some fellow does something that you couldn't help from laughing at if you were dying.

Most of the people over there can't imagine anything like what is taking place over here. It's wonderful. They fight with things over here that people over there don't know exist. I've been in air raids, and when I came over we were attacked by a submarine, and I'm still here. If there is a shell made for me I'll get it; if not I'm coming back to Old Oregon to tell of all the fine times we have had.

All my friends have written to me and I sure love to hear from them. I hope I have answered all of them. We had a pretty cold winter but are now having fine spring weather. It makes things more lively and we feel more like working. We are fed pretty good to be so far away from home and we have several good places to go. In most camps we find a Y. M. C. A. and Red Cross. They sure are a home when you want any place to go to. The Y. M. C. A. was good in the States but over here there isn't a thing to compare with it.

When I first landed in France I couldn't get American tobacco and had to use the French tobacco which is strong enough to kill an ox. The Y. M. C. A. has fixed that up pretty well; we can't get it all the time but it is much better than before. When a fellow that smokes is out of tobacco and something goes wrong—it's hard to say just what it is—but he's lost and nothing can help him but a good smoke.

I'm sure you would find things a lot different than anything you ever saw while you belonged to the Army during the Civil war.

"The Western Youth," volume 1, number 1, published at Independence, Polk county, is on our table. Gus A. Hurley is editor and publisher. The "Youth" is neatly printed and may fill a long felt want, though that will depend upon the ability and hustle of its editor.

Live Stock Buyer

I am in the market at all times for fat hogs, cattle or sheep. Also canning cattle. Can handle old or thin cattle that are strong enough to travel and not diseased. With few exceptions I make weekly shipments from West Scio. Farmers having anything to sell in this line, please call or write me at Scio, Ore. Correct weights and highest market prices guaranteed.

J. D. Densmore.

FINAL ACCOUNT

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned executor of the estate of Carl Unke, deceased, has filed his final account in said estate with the County Clerk of Linn County, Oregon, and the County Court or said county has set Monday, April 29th, 1918, at one o'clock in the afternoon at the court house in Albany, Linn County, Oregon, as the time and place for the hearing of objections to such final account and the settlement thereof.

Dated and published the first time this 21st day of March, 1918.

SAM'L M. GARLAND,

Executor of the estate of Carl Unke, deceased.

Ford Sedan

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

More and more the enclosed motor car grows strong in popular favor. It's natural, especially with Ford cars, which are busy running every day in the year—winter and summer the Ford serves faithfully and profitably. So for a real genuine family car there is nothing equal to the Ford Sedan at $695 f. o. b. Detroit. Seats five. Large doors, plate glass sliding windows, silk curtains, deeply upholstered seats, latest type ventilating windshield—a car of refined luxury with the everlastingly reliable Ford chassis. Come in and know more about this superior car.
