

LOCAL BREVITIES

Scio Masonic lodge will meet next week, 25th. There will be work.

Bring your cascara bark to C. A. Everett, Scio.

Charlie Balsehweid, who left Scio some weeks ago, is now regularly enrolled in the naval service.

Mrs. Reynolds, who underwent a serious operation at the local hospital some weeks ago, was able to be taken to her home last Saturday.

For sale—Registered poland china bowl, 11 months old. Inquire Alvin L. Gilkey, Thomas, Or. 40 4t*

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shelton went down to Silverton Saturday morning for a short visit.

If you want fresh and first-class meat, you can get it at the Scio Meat Market. We try to please. 39 2t Holechek Bros.

A number of fishermen were out Sunday and report that the trout rose fairly well to a fly. Some of the boys came in with nice baskets of trout.

Mrs. Jennie Warner returned to Corvallis Saturday. Her father, N. Young, accompanied her.

We make a specialty of Friendship, Engagement and Wedding Rings. F. M. French & Son, Albany, Oregon.

Salmon were running up Thomas creek quite plentifully the first of the week. The bridge was a vantage point and many people crowded on it to see the schools going up stream. Some of the salmon were quite large.

For sale—Cow to freshen soon; 3-year old Jersey of good milking stock. M. M. Meiser, R. D. No. 2. 40 2t*

Two deaths, mothers of middle age, occurred on one day last week, Mrs. J. B. Couey at the country farm home and Mrs. Hall at the city hospital.

For sale cheap—A range in good order. Inquire of Dr. Prill. 33tf

Mill street property owners should get busy. The condition of the street during the winter is a black eye to the business interests of Scio. If you cannot afford the expense, take up a collection.

R. E. Warner of Crawfordsville, would make an efficient and capable Sheriff. Don't overlook his number (55) on the primary ballot.—(Paid Adv.)

A stitch in time saves nine. The same principle is true when applied to the teeth. Have them attended to at Scio. Dr. C. F. Chapin, dentist. All work guaranteed.

O. P. Hall, republican, for State Treasurer. Read the Political Puzzle, pages 26-27, election pamphlet. (Pd Ad)

Rev. W. P. Elmore and W. J. Moore of Brownsville, came down Friday morning. Rev. Elmore officiated at the funeral of Mrs. J. B. Couey in the afternoon.

Vote for No. 55 on the primary ballot for Sheriff, who is a large taxpayer and is therefore interested in economy in spending the taxpayers' money.—(Paid Adv.)

As an evidence of how completely the automobile has displaced the carriage or buggy, the Couey funeral was attended by from 40 to 50 autos and less than a dozen horse-drawn vehicles.

For sale—Six good milk cows and a grade Hereford bull. F. J. Kula, Shelburn, Ore. 39 3t

Mrs. Sarah Morris purchased P. H. McDonald's barn and the same was moved to her property just south of the O. B. Cyrus home. T. J. Gibbons of Shelburn, did the moving act.

The Department G. A. R. meet is on this week in Albany and ye editor took Tuesday off to enjoy part of the meet. So, if The Tribune shows any marked improvement this week, charge it up to Mr. Brant, our foreman.

Hon. D. H. Pierce, candidate for commissioner on the Republican ticket, was a caller at The Tribune office Wednesday. He is not in favor of building the proposed Harrisburg bridge at this time owing to the high cost of labor and material. Like the present county court, he will favor building this bridge when conditions are again normal and Lane county will bear half the cost.

Pythian Sisters in Convention.

The annual district convention of the Pythian Sisters was held in this city on Wednesday, May 8.

It has been some time since any of the fraternal orders of Scio have undertaken an entertainment of such magnitude and much praise is due the Scio Sisters for the very creditable manner in which this affair was conducted.

The K. P. hall being too small to accommodate the large number in attendance, Leodas Temple No. 20 was moved temporarily across the street to the Wesley hall, where a spacious lodge room, with banquet room adjoining, was arranged and special mention is due the decoration and banquet committees who handled this part of the work.

The convention was called to order at 2:30 by District Deputy Anna C. Prill, with a good representation from Albany, Salem, Brownsville, Silverton, Eugene, Corvallis, Lebanon, Falls City, Independence, Dallas and Scio. Officers of the Grand Temple of Oregon present were Emma G. Snyder, P. G. C. of Aurora, Mrs. Julia Bilyeu, G. M. of Scio, and Mrs. Eather Austin, G. G. of Albany.

The address of welcome was given by Mrs. Julia Bilyeu of Scio, and response by Mrs. Bessie Gunn of Corvallis. After a very enjoyable program the remainder of the afternoon session was given over to the general business of the convention.

About 200 guests were assembled for the banquet at 6:30, which was served by the domestic science girls of the Scio high school. At this time Edward Wesley gave a violin solo which was much appreciated by all. Then toastmaster Peery presented to each town an article representing in concrete form the thing most desired as a public improvement. The recipients of these novel toasts and the party responding follows:

Albany, a street car; to Mrs. Van Winkle!

Corvallis, a steamboat; to Mrs. Victor Moses.

Silverton, a cannery; Mrs. Potter.

Dallas, a public playground; Mrs. Grace Patterson.

Independence, a sawmill; Mrs. Hattie Kreamer.

Lebanon, an opera house; Mrs. Bessie Morris.

Eugene, a concrete pavement; Mrs. Orpha Poindexter.

These responses were cleverly and humorously given and occasioned much merriment.

The final toast was given to the Stars and Stripes and the boys "over there" after which all repaired to the lodge hall for the evening session.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Bragg were initiated into the mysteries of Pythian Sisterhood, Alpha Temple of Albany, and Home Temple of Silverton, having charge of the work.

Among those who gave interesting talks were Mr. Custer of Silverton, Mr. Moses of Corvallis, Miss Emma Snyder of Aurora, and E. C. Peery of Scio.

Vocal and instrumental solos by Miss Richard of Corvallis, Mrs. Richardson of Independence, and Mrs. Holland of Scio, added much to the pleasure of the evening.

After voting the tenth annual convention a decided success, the Pythian Sisters adjourned to meet next year at Albany.

Cemetery Notice.

All lot owners and persons interested are requested to be at the Franklin Butte Masonic Cemetery, or send some one to represent them, on Saturday, the 25th day of May, at an early hour, prepared to work for the purpose of making the cemetery presentable for Decoration day. By order of the Trustees.
