

LOCAL BREVITIES

Mr. and Mrs. Stetter of Albany, were among the visitors at Franklin Butte cemetery on Memorial Day.

Asa Tindall of Salem, was in town Friday, shaking hands with oldtime friends and acquaintances.

Wint Young went to Astoria this week, expecting to remain there for some weeks.

For sale—Registered Poland China boar, 11 months old. Inquire Alvin L. Gilkey, Thomas, Or. 40 4t*

Jim Farrell of Salem, came up last Sunday to take charge of the barber shop for the summer.

It is said the lumber which is used in building airplanes must be planed by hand with a plane made for that especial purpose.

For sale—A Sharpless cream separator in first-class condition, cheap. T. J. Gibbons, Shelburn. 41 4t

Quite a large number of Scioans visited various cemeteries last Thursday. Nearly all at sometime during the day.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly came up from their home in Gervais last week for a few days' visit with relatives in Scio and at the Mike Kelly home near Jefferson.

Heppner has just had a $25,000 fire. That town has now had both flood and fire. What next?

For sale cheap—A range in good order. Inquire of Dr. Prill. 33tf

J. D. Densmore occupied Memorial Day in moving his household effects to the Dr. Browne residence property.

When Scio becomes peopleless, The Tribune will still be on the ground to create a disturbance now and then.

Mrs. C. H. Neil and daughter, Miss Beattie, arrived last Friday on a visit to brother and uncle, T. W. Laird of this city. Mrs. Neil is en route to Wheeler county to visit her mother and brothers there.

For sale—Spring wagon, buggy, cook stove, cabinet organ, bookcase and bedsteads. These articles can be seen at the C. Wesely wareroom.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. S. Russell of Stayton, were in Scio one day last week, looking after business matters.

We make a specialty of Friendship, Engagement and Wedding Rings. F. M. French & Son, Albany, Oregon.

Annual school meeting on June 17, which is the third Monday of this month. A director to succeed F. T. Thayer and clerk J. F. Wesely are to be chosen.

Captain Mark V. Weatherford of Albany, who has been stationed at Fort Sill Oklahoma, since his enlistment, writes Albany friends that he has arrived safely in France.

Prepare your smoked glass before hand if you want to view the eclipse next Saturday. A piece of clean glass and a kerosene lamp is all that is necessary. The eclipse will lack but about five per cent of being total here.

C. A. Everett is moving his stock of drugs to his new place of business, just across the street from the old stand this week. When fully established he will have a neat and commodious place of business.

Scio, once a good baseball town, will be ballless this summer. Many of our young men are in the army or navy and the rest having gone elsewhere to work, makes a ball team an impossibility. We will, therefore have to be satisfied with stag croquet.

Wanted

Mohair and Wool—I am prepared to pay the highest market price for your mohair and wool. See me before selling. Geo. E. Rodgers.

Miss Lucy Compton went to Salem Tuesday for a long visit to a sister.

Mrs. O. S. Hutchinson returned Sunday from a ten days' visit to the south, part of the time at Divide and balance at Albany.

Good teeth are the first essential to good health. Don't put off having them fixed until it is too late. Dr. C. F. Chapin, Scio.

E. C. Shelton went to Gates Tuesday on a business proposition.

The summer weather we have been having this week will dispose of the aphid pest for a while.

That's an ugly mudhole in the alley back of the bank building and the city authorities should immediately take steps to eradicate it.

Mrs. G. H. Davis of Shaniko, came down last Friday to say goodbye to her brother, William Miles, who was called in the draft. Mrs. Davis was formerly Miss Ida Miles.

Plate work a specialty. Dr. Chapin, Scio.

F. T. Thayer will probably be a candidate to succeed himself as a school director at the coming annual school meeting. For clerk, the district can do no better than re-elect J. F. Wesely.

When school is out, boys, you should be willing to take a farm job during vacation, to help overcome the shortage of labor.

The Scio Milling Co. has ground about all of its stock of wheat and the mill will be silent until the new crop comes in.

Mrs. Mack of Portland, came up the first of the week to visit her brother, J. D. Densmore. She so timed her visit that she could witness the graduation of her nephew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Densmore, from the eighth grade. He is now ready for the high school, and Mrs. Mack and his parents are very proud of the fact.

After July 1, we will have a new mail carrier to West Scio, W. A. Ewing having been awarded the contract. The contract to Munkers has been awarded to the old company, Bilyeu & Bilyeu, it is reported.

Tom Laird brought his tin Lizzie out of hiding Tuesday and sent her around to the Wesely garage to be dressed up so that Tom won't be ashamed to go touring with her every Sunday this summer.

Tom Smalls was welcome caller at this office Tuesday. Tom told the office force a lot about melons until he had us watering at the mouth. When the melon season is on Tom is to keep this shop supplied. If he don't!! The Lord help him!!!

Scott Turner has enlisted in the war railroad service and left for the Atlantic Coast last Saturday. He is an experienced railroad man and expects to be sent over to France almost as soon as he arrives east.

Harold Peery, who has been employed in Portland for several months stopped for a short visit, with Scio relatives on his way home to Springfield last week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Morris of Tygh Valley, Wasco county, visited Scio friends over last Sunday. He had been attending the I. O. O. F. grand encampment at Seaside. He was a former resident of near Scio.

Lee Bilyeu, Mrs. Nellie Gunsauls and Miss Dolly Daley, came over on the morning train from Lebanon on Memorial Day. Lee, who is running a small sawmill two or three miles east of Lebanon, was looking for a good work horse or a team as well.

Our boys joined the draft contingent to go to California last Saturday. Albany people gave them a good feed just before they left. Guy Funk, Charles Faltus, Scott Turner, Otto Lyon, of Scio; Lewis Edward McMillan, Willie Henry Kowitz and Amil Posvar, of Crabtree, were of the bunch.

An important Red Cross meeting is called at Albany for next Tuesday.

David A. Osborn of Portland has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. D. C. Thoms, the past two weeks. He returned to his home yesterday.

Funny if the Scio country has taken about one-fifth of the county subscription for W. S. S. You people at Albany, Lebanon and other points in the county, better get busy.

Our city council should certainly require Mill street to be improved in some way during the present summer. At present it is a black eye to Scio.

Joe Wesely is carrying his left eye in a sling this week, caused by a miscalculation in mounting his bicycle when going home. His eye came in contact with the handle bar. He first thought his eye was seriously injured, but it will be all right in a few days.

C. F. Sargent complains of an auto road hog who nearly ran into him, the hog being on the wrong side of the road. Auto drivers should observe the rules of the road and avoid accident.

The cheese factory at Richardson Gap is in operation and next week we expect to sample the output.

G. F. Sargent informs The Tribune that his son Lorin, aged 17, died at Salem hospital June 4. The burial was today in Salem cemetery.

E. C. Peery went to Albany today in the interest of the creamery and will go from there to Portland and probably Newberg, returning Saturday or Sunday.

Dance at the Gap.

Dance—At Richardson Gap hall, Saturday, June 15; good music will be furnished and the usual good time is assured to all. Everybody cordially invited. By the Committee.

New Registrants.

Young men becoming 21 since June 5, 1917, were yesterday enrolled by Registrar Sticha as follows:

| | |
|---------------|------------------|
| L. Pietrok | W. J. Wirth |
| O. H. Weidman | John M. Miller |
| E. W. Rooker | John M. Lee |
| M. L. White | Elmer Freitag |
| V. W. Arnold | S. W. Long |
| Ross Ray | D. C. Montgomery |
| A. H. Kloer | Orval Taylor |

Telegraphic Briefs.

From two to five German U-boats are on the Atlantic coast and have sunk eleven or more American schooners and steamships. The loss of life is 58 persons, all from one ship the Carolina. Casualties were from drowning after passengers and crew had taken to small boats. All available naval vessels are looking for the divers.

American troops are now actively engaged with the French in fighting the Huns on the Picardy battle line. Our boys are sustaining the American character as fighters and are the admiration of the French troops.

It is believed the main force of the German drive for Paris is spent. With additional reserves reinforcing the allies daily, General Foch may be expected to commence an offensive movement soon.

Rain to the amount of 4.88 inches has fallen in Iowa and all the streams are at flood stage, causing heavy damage.

Ex-Vice-President Charles W. Fairbanks died at his home in Indianapolis, Indiana, on June 4.

A Washington dispatch says that German soldiers who have been held prisoners in Russia now are returning home in large numbers. Most of the men are in good physical condition and that 70 per cent of them would be ready for active service within a month. Three trains, each carrying from 400 to 1000 Germans are passing through Osha daily. The men are being exchanged for Russian prisoners who are in poor health.

Mortgage Loans Negotiated

Notary Public

H. B. CHESS Attorney at Law

Office on Sherman St

Lebanon, Ore.

Agricultural Credit Corporation of Oregon

Our twenty year rural credit plan of loaning money to farmers helps you to get out of debt. Under our form of loan the TOTAL amount of interest paid during its ENTIRE period of twenty years, is actually less than 5½ per cent interest. Write us for booklet.

HECKER & BEAM, Agents

133 Lyon St

Albany, Oregon

Scio Meat Market

HOLECHEK BROS., Props

Fresh Meats of All Kinds

Reasonable Prices

Main Street

Scio, Ore.

R. SHELTON

Notary Public and

Conveyancer

Abstracts of Title Examined

SCIO - - - OREGON

St. Francis Hotel

ALBANY, ORE.

Meals 35 and 50 cents

Room 50c and Up

GRANT PIRTLE, Proprietor

FARMERS' Produce & Cream Depot

THOMAS LARGE, Proprietor

SCIO - - - OREGON

As I have done business with the people of Scio and vicinity for several years, you know me in a business way. I will now be glad to do business in the future along the same lines. Come in and get my prices. I handle cream for the Hazelwood Co.

THOMAS LARGE, SCIO, OREGON

Scio Produce Company

Wants Your Business

Will pay Cash for Eggs, Poultry, Veal, Hogs, Hides

Will buy Cream in any quantity for the Oregon Creamery, Portland

Let us get acquainted. If you have a grievance make it known and we will endeavor to rectify it.

We will give you a Square Deal

J. W. MOORE, Manager

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

It's no longer necessary to go into the details describing the practical merits of the Ford car—everybody knows all about "The Universal Car." How it goes and comes day after day and year after year at an operating expense so small that it's wonderful. This advertisement is to urge prospective buyers to place orders without delay as the war has produced conditions which may interfere with normal production. Buy a Ford car when you can get one. We'll take care of your order—get your Ford to you soon as possible—and give the best in "after-service" when required.

FRED T. BILYEU

Authorized Agency

SCIO, ORE.

