

LOCAL BREVITIES

The Scio Masonic lodge will meet on the 22d, with work in the second degree.

City Recorder Sticha is on the sick list this week.

Jim Bilyeu has gone over to Toledo to look for a job, it is said.

An adjourned meeting of the city council was held Monday evening.

Vilas Philippi is busy shearing his bunch of 2000 sheep.

The south bound train from Portland last Thursday was an hour and twenty minutes late.

Almost all of Scio was joy riding and picnicking Sunday.

Harry Johnston expects to move his family to Camas when his arm gets in shape to work.

Herbert Shelton went to Camas, Wash., last Friday, expecting to engage in work there.

Mr. and Mrs. Roe Shelton were looking after business matters in Albany last Friday.

Mrs. Fred Ohlmeier went to Portland last Friday. Fred will go down about the end of the month.

Much of the spring grain will amount to but little unless we have a soaking rain soon.

Catching grayling from off the city bridge is now the vogue. Get out you old timers and try it.

County Commissioner Butler is said to be dangerously sick at his residence in Albany.

Should the condensery be again placed in operation a number of our temporarily absent will return.

The telephone central office is short handed, Miss Dorris Weddle being on the sick list.

W. W. Emmons, a Salem clothing merchant, was taking orders for suits in Scio Tuesday.

The mumps is still active in our community, J. S. Sticha and Dorris Weddle being the latest victims.

D. C. Thoms and Thomas Small left here yesterday morning bound for Portland, where they will attend the grand lodge of Odd Fellows.

Ed Storey of Sweet Home, who owns a pack train, was in Scio last Thursday, returning from a job on the north fork of the Santiam.

The Oregonian again failed to arrive Friday morning. These lapses are getting so common that people sort o' look for them.

Annual school meeting on June 17, which is the third Monday of this month. A director to succeed F. T. Thayer and clerk J. F. Wesely are to be chosen.

We make a specialty of Friendship, Engagement and Wedding Rings. F. M. French & Son, Albany, Oregon.

Mrs. Jennie Warner of Corvallis, came over last Friday to assist her father, Uncle Nathan Young, to get ready to make a visit to his children at Moro, in Eastern Oregon. Mr. Young left the first of the week for Moro.

For sale—Spring wagon, buggy, cook stove, cabinet organ, bookcase and bedsteads. These articles can be seen at the C. Wesely wareroom.

If you think The Scio Tribune is a live local paper, ask your neighbor to subscribe, if he is not already taking it.

For sale cheap—A range in good order. Inquire of Dr. Prill. 33tf

Did you have your little smoked glass ready for Saturday afternoon to view the eclipse? At Scio the shadow was 95 per cent total. A clean piece of window glass and a kerosene lamp supplied the necessary smoked glass. It's a safe bet that every man, woman and child in Scio took a squint at the phenomenon.

Again we remark, "the summer is beginning to pass yet not a word is said about improving Mill street.

Oscar and Mrs. Hutchinson and Ardee Powell and family spent Sunday sort of in a picnic fashion at Gates.

Strawberries are coming in rather lively and short cake will soon be the piece de resistance, whatever that is.

Grain is reported to be looking in better condition than a few days ago. This indicates abatement of the aphid pest.

The wise man geteth his winter wood in early; and there are several wise men in and about Scio. Are you one of them?

There being no celebration this fourth of July in Scio, the band boys will probably suspend practice during the summer.

William Brenner is placing a new roof on his barn, which was Scio's livery stable when the livery was about the best business in town.

A. I. Riley and County School Superintendent Mrs. Ida M. Cummings were in town Tuesday morning looking after school industrial work.

G. R. Baker, sales manager of the Blaesing Granite company, Portland, was looking after business matters in Scio Tuesday.

The funeral of Harvey Cole, a pioneer resident of near Scio, who died at Chehalis, Wash., occurred at the Miller cemetery Tuesday.

Mrs. May Jones and Mrs. Annie Eckhart, of Portland, came up last week for a few days' visit with their mother, Mrs. Sarah Morris.

E. C. Shelton has transferred his janitor duties from our public school building to the Miller lumber camp where he has charge of an engine.

Between our young men going to war, and those going to shipyards, paper mills and lumber camps, Scio has lost more than 100 people during the past two months.

Two separate depot mail carriers, when there is scarcely business enough for one, means that one or both of the busses will be operated at a loss.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wesely and Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Thoms were entertained Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Eichinger at their country home on Thomas creek.

The German fleet is getting ready to try conclusions with the allied fleets. The kaiser will not depend any longer on U-boats to do his sea fighting.

Aunt Becky Morris left this morning for an indefinite visit with Portland relatives. She plans to attend the Pioneers and Indian war veteran meets.

J. J. Barnes, son Jim and daughter Nellie, were up from their home in Salem Monday. J. J. returned the last of May from California, where he spent last winter.

The Tribune's job department was quite busy the past week. Bring on your work; our man can handle it; you don't need to send away; patronize home industry and support your local institutions.

There is a prospect that The Tribune may be able to state something soon relative to the condensery which will be most satisfactory to the entire Scio community.

People should be very careful of what they say in these war time days. They should be extremely careful in quoting what others say. It is a grave matter to accuse one wrongfully of disloyalty.

When the food administrator called on the people here to return their surplus flour, C. U. Sandoz was the only one in this vicinity to respond. He turned his flour in at the Scio mill and with the proceeds bought war stamps, thus giving the kaiser two body blows.

Clarence Leffler, with others in the last draft call, will leave June 24.

Scio is about to erect street signs for the benefit of autoists.

Dean and Roll Morris are taking a vacation this week; they are hauling wood.

The few drops of rain that fell yesterday cooled the air for but a little while.

Chris Bilyeu now drives a new Grant-6, purchased recently from the Fred Bilyeu agency.

C. A. Everett will complete the removal of his drug store from the Warwick block to the MacDonald building across the street, this week.

Tom Laird will have his "tin Lizzie" out in a few days when he expects to go joy (?) riding every Sunday.

The $160,000 bull calf is on the way west to be added to the Carnation Milk Products company's herd of Holsteins. This is the highest price ever paid for a single animal in the cattle line, it is said.

Ed Myers and family spent Sunday going up one side of the Santiam to Gates, coming home on the other side. He says the roads were rough enough to give any one a good jolt quite often.

Professional baseball is not regarded as a necessary occupation by General Crowder, and the big and little leagues may be ordered to disband and get busy at some useful occupation, else get into the army.

Selling the state good roads bonds at a discount of near 10 per cent and paying high prices for labor and material, is equivalent to getting not more than 40 cents on the dollar actually spent on the roads, if conditions were normal.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shelton have gone to housekeeping at the Miller Bros. saw mill where Enoch is boss teamster of a donkey (engine). Enoch feels sad about it too, because he has just got his fishing license and now he's gone where there isn't any fishing.

C. H. Wain of Junction City, was looking after business matters in Scio Tuesday. Mr. Wain owns a farm a short distance south of town. He reports the ravages of aphid on vetch as being most destructive, though grain is not being affected. Rain is needed badly.

Forty-five Oklahoma Menonites, who had been drafted into the army refused to put on and wear the soldier uniform, or to serve in any way to help promote the war, claiming conscientious motives as the cause of their refusal. They were court-martialed and sentenced to serve 25 years each in a federal prison at hard labor.

Cattle Taken Up.

I have taken up six head of cattle, two roan, four red. Anybody owning this stock can have same by paying for this advertisement and the pasturing. Ed Posvar.

To the People of Scio and Vicinity.

If you have children between the ages 6-15 it will pay you to have their teeth examined, as they are often times too timid, or for other reasons, afraid to go to the dentist. It costs you nothing to have them examined and saves them pain and expense later, and often times good teeth. Dr. C. F. Chapin, Dentist, Scio, Ore.

Wanted

Mohair and Wool—I am prepared to pay the highest market price for your mohair and wool. See me before selling. Geo. E. Rodgers.

Dance at the Gap.

Dance—At Richardson Gap hall. Saturday, June 15; good music will be furnished and the usual good time is assured to all. Everybody cordially invited. By the Committee.

Mortgage Loans Negotiated
Notary Public
H. B. CHESS
Attorney at Law

Office on Sherman St
Lebanon, Ore.

Agricultural Credit
Corporation of Oregon

Our twenty year rural credit plan of loaning money to farmers helps you to get out of debt. Under our form of loan the TOTAL amount of interest paid during its ENTIRE period of twenty years, is actually less than 5 1/2 per cent interest. Write us for booklet.

HECKER & BEAM, Agents
133 Lyon St
Albany, Oregon

Scio Meat Market

HOLECHEK BROS., Props

Fresh Meats of All Kinds

Reasonable Prices

Main Street

Scio, Ore.

R. SHELTON

Notary Public and

Conveyancer

Abstracts of Title Examined

SCIO - - - OREGON

St. Francis Hotel

ALBANY, ORE.

Meals 35 and 50 cents

Room 50c and Up

GRANT PIRTLE, Proprietor

FARMERS'
Produce & Cream Depot

THOMAS LARGE, Proprietor

SCIO - - - OREGON

As I have done business with the people of Scio and vicinity for several years, you know me in a business way. I will now be glad to do business in the future along the same lines. Come in and get my prices. I handle cream for the Hazelwood Co.

THOMAS LARGE, SCIO, OREGON

Scio Produce Company
Wants Your Business

Will pay Cash for Eggs, Poultry, Veal, Hogs, Hides

Will buy Cream in any quantity for the Oregon Creamery, Portland

Let us get acquainted. If you have a grievance make it known and we will endeavor to rectify it.

We will give you a Square Deal

J. W. MOORE, Manager

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

It's no longer necessary to go into the details describing the practical merits of the Ford car—everybody knows all about "The Universal Car." How it goes and comes day after day and year after year at an operating expense so small that it's wonderful. This advertisement is to urge prospective buyers to place orders without delay as the war has produced conditions which may interfere with normal production. Buy a Ford car when you can get one. We'll take care of your order—get your Ford to you soon as possible—and give the best in "after-service when required.

FRED T. BILYEU

Authorized Agency

SCIO, ORE.

