

LOCAL BREVITIES

Scio Produce Co. will pay cash for chittim bark. 45

We miss our genial postmistress this week, the mumps having taken possession of her.

Mel Shelton, of Arlington, Oregon, came down last week for a month's visit with Scio relatives.

Lost—Deposit book of Scio General Hospital. Please leave at Scio State Bank.

Dr. Prill now drives a fine new Willys-Overland. She is a beauty, and the doctor can now look after his practice with ease.

A clean tooth never decays, but one that has can easily be put right at a reasonable price.—Dr. C. F. Chapin, Scio, Ore.

We make a specialty of Friendship, Engagement and Wedding Rings. F. M. French & Son, Albany, Oregon.

Our weather clerk is no good. He promised us rain this week but it failed to arrive, except to some of the arid parts of eastern Oregon.

The Brownsville picnic failed to bring rain so our only bet now is the 4th of July.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hutchinson left for Portland last Friday. Mr. Hutchinson may remain permanently.

Miss Agnes Wesely spent last week visiting with her sisters in Portland, returning Sunday evening.

The gas man failed to show up last Friday and gasoline became a somewhat scarce article.

Fred Ohlmeier has lately added one more to his list of accomplishments. He is becoming a hell-o girl during spare hours.

For sale cheap—A range in good order. Inquire of Dr. Prill. 33tf

Picking wild blackberries seems to be the vogue just now and parties who have brought in 15 to 20 gallons have the berries are plentiful.

J. S. Sticha left Tuesday morning for Portland to enlist in the marine service. He will then go to Mare island, San Francisco harbor, for training.

The Scio War Saving Society met Monday evening and a suggestion was made that our "bunch" of live wires go over to Albany and tell the folks there how to get over the top.

A few dollars spent now on the teeth mean a great saving later on in life, especially on children's permanent teeth.—Dr. C. F. Chapin, Dentist, Scio, Ore.

Hermann Foltz, the genial manager of the enjoyable dances given at Jordan, was in Scio Monday and hobnobbed with the printer for a few minutes, comparing notes, talking about the last dance, the next dance, etc.

Wayne Thoms, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Thoms, who is enlisted in the artillery and is stationed at Camp Lewis, American Lake, came home on a short furlough Friday last. His battery will soon entrain for Louisville, Kentucky.

When the band played "The Star Spangled Banner" last Friday evening but few of our people had respect or were thoughtful enough of our national air to take off their hats. Patriotic etiquette requires we stand and take off hats when the national air is rendered.

Messrs. Thoms and Small deny having gone to Portland to attend the grand lodge of Odd Fellows, as stated in The Tribune. They claim to have attended the Masonic grand lodge, but they dare not tell their wives where they really did put in their time while in that wicked city. However we apologize to the Odd Fellows for the error and sympathize with the Masons.

At The Peoples Theatre

This week, Saturday and Sunday evenings, Manager Wesely will present "The Eagle."

Henry Miller and daughter of Sisters, came down Sunday. He reports the farm outlook in his locality as being good. He will cut 100 tons of hay, worth $25 a ton, baled.

Prof. Robe and family took a tent and coming outfit and left today for Tangent to remain through harvest. The professor and son expect to make hands in the harvest fields.

J. D. Mickle, dairy and food commissioner, and Prof. Fitts, O. A. C., will be at Jordan Saturday, 29th, at 2 o'clock, with an interesting program on dairying and management of the dairy herd. Everybody go.

Wanted—Ten cords fir wood, 2 or 4-foot; also 10 cords oak or maple. 46 2t J. F. Wesely, Scio, Ore.

Seventh Day Adventists are holding tent meetings at Thomas every evening save Monday. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Miss Nita Bilyeu is home from an eight months' stay over at Tacoma, Wash., where she has had a good job. She expects to return to Portland in the near future.

Sealed Bids Wanted—For Janitor of schools of District No. 95, term 1918-1919. Bids close July 10 46-2t J. F. Wesely, Clerk.

Miss Lucy Compton, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Liston Darby, at Kingston, came home Friday last for a short stay and then returned to Kingston for an indefinite stay.

Jack and Robert Sidener, brothers, left for Camp Lewis Tuesday morning. Jack was listed in the last draft but did not get his notice and was posted as a deserter. A friend told him that he had been called, and he reported 24 hours late. Robert was called to go to Camp McDowell July 5. In some way it was arranged for the brothers to go together.

A Mr. McDonald, of Wisconsin, was in Scio Monday. He is looking over this section with a view of moving here later in the year. He has a valuable farm in Wisconsin for which he has a buyer ready, providing he finds a location here which suits him. He visited this county some seven years ago and his second visit indicates that a home in Oregon is his desire.

Wanted—Cascara bark for cash. 45 Scio Produce Co.

JORDAN ITEMS

Mrs. Pearl Gervis of Portland, visited this vicinity last week.

Mesdames Beth Shelton, W. Wing, Frank Combs and Miss Zeda Prichard, motored to Albany Monday.

Grandpa Pfeister passed away Sunday at the home of T. Lacknow. He was 95 years old and leaves many relatives and friends to mourn his demise.

Saturday evening a bonfire party was given at the home of T. Thonas, in honor of Robert Morrison and family, of Marysville, Oregon, this having been the childhood home of Mr. Morrison some 38 years ago. A romance to which we all bow—to review the scenes of the old home, to its stately mansion or stone heap that remains to mark the site.

OREGON MIST.

Sues for Damages.

Suit was filed today (June 20) by Joseph J. Roner versus James Piatt for damages for a beating Piatt is alleged to have administered a few days ago on the county road near Scio. Balm to the extent of $500 is prayed for in the complaint.

According to the complaint, Piatt wrongfully, violently and maliciously assaulted, beat, bruised and lacerated the plaintiff, to his intense agony and distress and to the damage of $500. Piatt is said to have climbed over the back of the Roner wagon, threw the plaintiff out of the wagon and otherwise mistreated him.

According to Roner, Piatt had no excuse for his action, but claimed as a reason that Roner had killed a dog belonging to Piatt. Roner claims to know nothing about the dog, whether it is still alive, or whether it ever existed. The circuit court will decide the matter this fall, unless the case is settled out of court.—Albany Democrat.

A condensery meeting was held last Thursday evening at the Peoples theatre, at which time a very fair and safe proposition was made to our business men and farmers, by which the condensery would again be placed in operation. Let us hope the proposition will materialize in the manner most people desire.

Luna lodge, Knights of Pythias, of Prineville, probably paid the highest price for wool ever paid in Oregon, and perhaps in the world, when they bought the two pounds of wool sheared from the White House flock of sheep sent to Governor Withycombe for benefit of the Red Cross. The price paid was $250 per pound.

C. A. Everett, druggist, recently appointed recruiting agent for the U. S. shipping board to enroll young men of Scio and vicinity for service in the merchant marine, has received and executed his official oath of office. He will use his store as a recruiting station and will "sign on" husky young Americans between 21 and 30 for training on a squadron of school ships maintained by the shipping board. The training is preliminary to service on merchant vessels for the duration of the war, and the men enrolled for it cannot be drafted.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

It's no longer necessary to go into the details describing the practical merits of the Ford car—everybody knows all about "The Universal Car." How it goes and comes day after day and year after year at an operating expense so small that it's wonderful. This advertisement is to urge prospective buyers to place orders without delay as the war has produced conditions which may interfere with normal production. Buy a Ford car when you can get one. We'll take care of your order—get your Ford to you soon as possible—and give the best in "after-service when required.
