Pete MacDonald and the Misses Bilyeu and Morris returned Friday evening last from the McKenzie where they spent a few days fishing.

That fan down at the mill makes music we like to hear. When the fan is silent we feel sad.

Found—On the Richardson Gap road July 16, an automobile tyre. Owner can have the same by calling at this office and establish ownership of the property. 51tf

A case of scarlet fever developed at the home of George Rodgers last week, his daughter Gladys being the victim.

The evergreen blackberry season will soon be on in full blast and Gielman of the produce house will take all that may be brought in, paying the highest market price in cash.

For sale—Horses, cows and hogs. Prices reasonable. Bert Hollis.

The Tribune takes subscriptions for all the Portland dailies—Oregonian, Journal Telegram, News.

Quite a number of Scio's young people, who delight in "tripping the light fantastic toe," attended the big dance over at Stayton last Friday night.

We make a specialty of Friendship, Engagement and Wedding Rings. F. M. French & Son, Albany, Oregon.

Something over 800 feet of wood pipe for extension of the service on North street west from Main, was received by the city last Saturday and stored under the Scio Mills flour house for protection from the sun until it can be laid.

Magnetic treatment wholly without drugs, every evening after six o'clock. Consultation free.—Dr J. Murphy, Scio, Oregon. 48tf

Whose duty is it to destroy the thistles that are blooming so luxuriously on nearly all the vacant and many occupied lots throughout the town?

HARVEST MEAT—Fat, clean and wholesome, at harvest prices. Sanitary Market. 51 2t

Choice hogs were sold at the Portland stockyards Monday at $19.15 per hundred. This is the highest price ever paid in a northwest stock market.

The 32d U. S. infantry which has been located at Honolulu has been transferred to San Diego, Cal. Gail Jones of Scio, is a member of company D and has requested that The Tribune be forwarded to his new address.

Manager Thoms of the Scio Milling Co., in order to block leaks made in the ditch bank by muskrats built a cement bank for a distance sufficient to cut out the activities of the river rats. But Mr. Rat simply moved up the ditch a few feet and again got busy. Now the cement bank is being extended another 50 feet or far enough so the leakage under the warehouse will be stopped.

Ye old maids! The chairman of the board that is trying hard to keep in touch with the widows in this vicinity, was asked by a pretty maid (she said she was an "old maid!") to let up on the widows for a while and give the old maids a chance. Of course that's a little out of the board's line but it is willing to help any old maid to the best of its ability. But are there any here or at Jordan? In the five months that the chairman has been in Scio he hasn't seen an actual "old maid."

BIG DANCE, Aug. 10, Wesely hall, Scio. Arnold's Jazz Band will play.

The Scio Masonic lodge will hold stated communication Saturday evening August 17. There will probably be some work done.

Fred Bilyeu and family are back from a 5-day visit at Cascadia.

W. A. Ewing and family spent Sunday on the North Santiam.

The printer had some dandy sweet corn Monday that came from the garden of J. W. Parrish.

The Scio Milling Co. is being kept constantly busy receiving wheat.

The city authorities have posted innumerable notices to repair sidewalk and we expect soon to see carpenters and near carpenters at work.

Women and children can make good wages picking evergreen blackberries this year.

J. N. Long reports his spring wheat as yielding 24 bushels per acre.

Amil Cladek and Marie Leffler were granted a marriage license by County Clerk Russell Monday.

George Compton of Lebanon, was over Tuesday looking after business matters.

W. A. Ewing and A. E. Randall will have cement walks laid in front of their residences.

The Tribune is informed that wheat in the vicinity of Lebanon is yielding somewhat better than was expected at the beginning of harvest.

Jim Bilyeu is disconsolate. No sooner had he disposed of his yellow jacket pets than he missed the tomato in his war garden. Cheer up, Jim, the worst is yet to come.

The Bragg family and the printer waded around in the Santiam Sunday and got a few trout, the printer landing a 15-inch rainbow.

The Coast Artillery is probably on the road to France, at least some of the Albany boys are. Among the number is George Crawford, son of W. W. Crawford, the Albany Ford dealer.

A Sunday School rally will be held in the Shelburn grove Sunday, Aug. 11, commencing at 10 a. m. A. C. Schmitt, Carl Sox and G. W. Rohrbough, of Albany, speakers.

Monday evening the Bilyeu W. S. S. and the Scio W. S. S. held a joint meeting and arranged for a program soon. It is thought Prof. Doney of Salem University, might come here and tell of his recent trip to France.

Miss Clara Shelton and Miss Christine Shindler visited Ashland the first of the week. They wrote the printer that they had taken a bath, were drinking gallons of mineral water and having a—a—a good time generally.

There is yet time to grade and macadamize Mill street if the city and property owners will simply get busy.

The Tribune is informed that the threshermen are charging 40 cents per sack for threshing wheat over on the Albany prairie.

The Tribune carries two new Albany ads this week—W. W. Crawford, the Fordson tractor, and Rogoway, the second-hand man. We still have room for more ads, especially for Scio merchants, some of whom think newspaper advertising is money wasted.

Miss Velma Balschweid visited her sister, Neva, at the hospital on Wednesday.

Mrs. A. W. Hagey came up from Portland Sunday.

Dance

At Richardson Gap hall, Saturday evening, August 17. Good music and a good time for all. Everybody cordially invited.

OUR FAIR.

and the large share of our attention taken up by the war, let us each and everyone put ourselves out more than usual to make the Linn county fair a success. It is our fair and it should be our pleasure farmers, gardeners, stockmen and all to make it a fair exemplification of the stock, poultry, grains, grasses and vegetables we grow.

Say, Bill, wouldn't it jar your mother's preserves to have your best girl go away to the seaside in the middle of the week, leaving you in agonizing suspense as to her return? May be, though, she will write.

If one should judge by reading the columns of The Tribune, he will conclude there is not a hardware store in Scio and that our business houses consist of a bank, two grocery stores, one dry goods store, two drug stores, two butcher shops, one produce establishment.
