

LOCAL BREVITIES

Dainty Xmas cards and folders at Sticha's.

R. E. Peery made a business trip to Portland last week.

For sale—Pure bred Walker Foxhound pups, 3 months old; will furnish papers; For prices write George Gabriel, Waterloo, Oregon. R. F. D. 1. 14 5t

Mill street is the butt of general ridicule by farmers. They find such mud nowhere else.

The ideal gift—a box of Russell & Gilbert chocolates. For sale at Sticha's.

Delicious pickled pigs feet at the Sanitary Market.

Dr. L. W. Horn, veterinary surgeon, graduate of Chicago Veterinary College, Stayton, Oregon. Phone 1522. 3tf

For sale—Ten tons of first class cheat hay; will place it aboard the cars at Goltra station at $24 per ton, baler's weight. Inquire at The Tribune office.

The premium The Tribune offered some weeks ago for a muddier road than Mill street has not yet been claimed.

We make a specialty of Friendship. Engagement and Wedding Rings. F. M. French & Son, Albany, Oregon.

Call at Kelly's Drug Store and get a Nyal weather chart calendar; they are absolutely free. 18 2t

Electric light globes and fixtures at Morrison's.

The motor truck is here to stay and roads must be builded to bear them up.

Magnetic treatment wholly without drugs, every evening after six o'clock. Consultation free.—Dr. J. Murphy, Scio, Oregon. 48tf

The Christmas trade is on though many people seem to be buying light.

Cheat seed for sale, or exchange for oats. Enquire at this office.

The Scio Produce Co. is in the market for all kinds of poultry, veal, dressed hogs and rabbits for which the highest market price will be paid. 8tf

It will cost you a $ to be enrolled as a member of the Red Cross for 1919, and your $ is sure to be used for a good purpose.

For sale—Well seasoned sawed oak posts. A. P. Hiron, Shelburn. 8 tf

For sale—Registered O. I. C. hogs. Delbert Long. 13

WREST WATCHES—For ladies and gents—we have the Elgin and Waltham, but make a specialty of the "Lady Gruen" the little wonder for the ladies and the non-breakable "trench" watch for the soldier boys. See your magazines for a description of these wonderful little watches. F. M. French & Son, Jewelers and Engravers, Albany. 5-18

For sale—A registered Durham bull. Inquire of G. A. Griffin, Scio.

Poultry will be received at the Scio Produce Co. any day in the week except Saturday. Saturday receipts cannot be shipped until the following Monday and the cost of holding the poultry over must be deducted from the prices paid. Scio Produce Co. 8tf

The Tribune's printer has 148 acres on the headwaters of the Yaquina, four miles from Nashville on the C. & E. with 5-room house and good barn that he will trade for smaller place near Scio. Having unlimited outgrange this is fine place for stock. Good soil.

Taken Up—I have taken up a light colored Jersey cow, probably ten years old. Owner can have the animal by paying pasturage and for this notice. T. J. Gibbons, Shelburn, Oregon. 15

We now have a limited amount of mixed candies for Xmas, so place your order early and obtain a good assortment. J. S. Sticha.

The Tribune has blank applications for auto or chauffeur license for 1919. Send in your application at once and avoid the rush. 17tf

Special attention given to Xmas orders for candies and nuts at Sticha's confectionery.

Through an inadvertence, when putting into type the names of donors to the Bohemian Alliance fund the following were omitted from the $5 list: Albert Young, Ignatz Faltus and Charles Chrs.

Did you get your Xmas tree?

Have you secured your Red Cross button for 1919?

Tom Large made a business trip to the county seat Tuesday.

J. F. Wesely went to Albany Tuesday afternoon.

The Scio mill is about the busiest place in Scio. The dairy calls for much the flouring mill produces.

If you cannot decide upon what to give your boy or girl for a Xmas present, give a thrift stamp.

Conrad Westenhouse, who is stationed at Camp Lewis, spent Sunday with home folks.

Oscar Eichinger has sold his 1917 hop crop and finished hauling them to the station Friday.

The burial of Frank Miller's wife, who died of the flu, took place Sunday at the Shelburn cemetery. Open air services were conducted by Rev. W. H. McLain.

The death of N. C. Burson, whose home was near Halsey, occurred last week. Mr. Burson was over 102 years old and was probably the oldest man in the state at the time of his death.

The state highway commission's plans call for the paving of the Albany-Jefferson highway this year. We will have more confidence in the statement when we see the pavers at work. It is too far from the Columbia highway.

In a letter from Lieutenant H. W. Thoms to his parents he expresses his gratitude and thanks to the Scio Red Cross for socks knit by the late Aunt Hettie Miller and a helmet by Mrs. Picklin.

Last week Archie Lindley advertised some potatoes for sale. The ad did the business. We are told all of the spuds were sold and the cost was but 25c. It pays to advertise in The Tribune if you want to sell anything.

Query: What does it signify if a person drives an auto to town, then forgets all about "Lizzie" until he has walked half way back home? Such was the experience of Rolla Shelto. If you want to know what Rolla said when he "came to" ask him.

Little Miss Lois Thayer entertained four of her little friends on her fourth birthday last Friday. Those present were: Fern and Ardeth Shelton, Lucile Thurston and Frances Bilyeu. Dainty refreshments were served.

Fred Jones got the thumb of his left hand in a place where it ought not to have been last Thursday. He was endeavoring to throw off a belt, which he had done hundreds of times, became careless and his thumb was caught and broken.

The logging (donkey) engine that the Scio Logging & Lumber Co. moved from West Scio to the mill last week is said to be about the largest donkey ever brought to this locality.

Watermelons in December in N. latitude 44 is something that would make people who live seven or eight hundred miles south of us sit up and take notice. Yet these melons were gathered from a Linn county garden a few days ago. You can't beat Oregon for climate.

Christmas Aluminum Specials.

1 quart stew cups 25c
2 1/2 quart stew cups, Wear Ever, regular price $1.42, special... $1.00
6 quart preserving kettle, Wear Ever, reg. price $2.40, special $1.75
These prices are subject to stock on hand only.

We also have the whole—luminum family of which any member will make a nice present.

We have one lot of various sized small Rugs at the old price; will make a special discount on Furniture of stock on hand; we have many things that will make nice presents.

N. I. MORRISON'S HARDWARE STORE

G. H. Smith made a business trip to Albany Wednesday.

E. E. Wert and W. Angel were Scio shoppers Tuesday.

It was Mrs. Harman's son who died in Montana, not her brother, so The Tribune is informed.

M. C. Gaines of Crabtree, was looking after business matters in Scio Tuesday; in a hurry as usual.

The K. of P. boys held a social bee at their hall Tuesday evening at the conclusion of the lodge session.

A telegram from Louis Borovicki announces that he has landed in New York and is on his way home.

Lebanon people are not pleased with the late schedule of train service from Albany.

Mrs. Eliza Crabtree, who has been in poor health for some time, is up again and was seen on the streets of Scio Friday.

Mrs. B. I. Thayer and mother, Mrs. Dock, and Miss Lois Thayer were motored to Albany by Mrs. C. F. Thayer last Tuesday.

John S. Sticha returned home last evening from Fort Stevens. He was in the hospital nearly all the time he was at the fort.

Mrs. Bertha Bowen, formerly Miss Bertha Smith, came down from Mill City Saturday for a short visit at home.

Not many, if any, of Scio's soldier boys will eat their Christmas dinners with home folks, as the boys and home folks were hoping.

The Tribune family enjoyed a mess of fine tender mustard greens yesterday, due to the kindness of Mrs. Jas. A. Richardson.

Ira Bilyeu returned from Portland Monday evening. Ira was a delegate to the K. of P. grand lodge and after which he visited relatives at Kalama, Wash.

News of the death of Ernest Rucker, who was in the U. S. service in Maryland, was received the first of the week. The body is now en route home and is expected to reach here Friday or Saturday.

Miss Audrey Berryman of Jacksonville Illinois, who was assistant principal in the Scio High School during the principalship of Prof. O. V. White, now a teacher of mathematics in the High School of Moscow, Idaho, is at this time during her vacation, visiting her many friends at Scio.

Huber Lee, a Canadian soldier, is visiting relatives in the vicinity of Scio. The Tribune is unable to say whether Mr. Lee is yet a soldier or has been discharged. He is a citizen of Canada, having a homestead up there.

Some people in Scio are learning some things about law these days, of which they have heretofore been ignorant.

Christmas is near. The Tribune hopes it may be enjoyable to all. However, if you are in arrears for your subscription to this paper we will be glad to exchange a bit of paper for it; then we can enjoy Christmas with you.

Hog Base of Dispute.

Antone Lackner has begun replevin action against John Foltz to recover a pig valued at $15.

Foltz filed an answer stating that last summer Lackner killed a hog belonging to Foltz and in November agreed to give Foltz another. Foltz states he turned the hog over the next day after the agreement. The case is in Justice Swan's court.—Albany Democrat.

Liberty Bonds

If you must sell your bonds we will buy them.

J. M. & H. M. HAWKINS,
Albany, Oregon.

Advertise in The Scio Tribune and get results.

Administrator's Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned was by order of the County Court of the state of Oregon, County of Linn, on the 6th day of December, 1918, duly appointed Administratrix of the estate of Harriet Miller, deceased.

All persons having claims against the estate of said deceased are hereby notified to present the same, with the proper vouchers, within six (6) months from the date of this notice, to the undersigned at her residence at Scio, Linn County, Oregon.

Dated December 11, 1918.

NANCY D. ARNOLD,
Administratrix of the estate of Harriet Miller, Deceased.

E. C. MEADE

OPTOMETRIST AND JEWELER
239 W. Second st. Albany, Oregon

PICTURE PRINTING

We are prepared to take your pictures, develop your plates, films, film packs, do your printing, enlarging and framing

We charge nothing for developing films or plates when twelve prints are ordered.

We have had fifteen years of practical work in picture taking. If we can be of any help to you in getting good results from your kodak or camera, we will gladly give you pointers.

MAIL ORDERS OUR SPECIALTY

All work guaranteed and done promptly. Give us a trial

J. F. WESELY

SCIO

OREGON

We do not carry any cameras or camera supplies

OFFICERS
PRESIDENT, W. F. Gill.
SECRETARY, D. C. Thoms

DIRECTORS
J. J. Barnes, W. F. Gill,
J. A. Bilyeu, J. R. Barnes,
Mrs. Jennie Warner.

Scio Milling Company

SUCCESSOR TO
SCIO ROLLER MILLS

INCORPORATED DECEMBER 28 1904

Our Flour is as good as any made in the Willamette Valley

EVERY SACK GUARANTEED

We do a General Custom Milling Business. Flour and Feed on Sale. Wheat Bought and Exchanged for Flour. We are in the Field for Business and Will Treat You Right

OUR GROCERY DEPARTMENT

Is complete and our stock fresh and clean.

We carry a full line of Tea, Coffee, Spices, Canned Goods, and in fact, everything needed for the table.

HIBLER & GILL CO.

Scio Produce Company Wants Your Business

Will pay Cash for Eggs, Poultry, Veal, Hogs, Hides

Will buy Cream in any quantity and pay the highest cash price for it.

Let us get acquainted. If you have a grievance make it known and we will endeavor to rectify it.

Bring Us Your Cascara Bark

We will give you a Square Deal

FRED GISELMAN, Proprietor