

LOCAL BREVITIES

The condensery last week received an order from the government for a carload of condensed milk.

Dr. L. W. Horn, veterinary surgeon, graduate of Chicago Veterinary College, Stayton, Oregon. Phone 1522. 3tf

A car of feed was received by the Scio flouring mills last Thursday.

For sale—Ten tons of first class cheat hay; will place it aboard the cars at Goltra station at $24 per ton, baler's weight. Inquire at The Tribune office.

Saturday was a very unpleasant day for the Powell funeral.

Mrs. Mary Dorn accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Christie, as far as Silverton Sunday, when the latter returned to her home in Portland.

We make a specialty of Friendship, Engagement and Wedding Rings. F. M. French & Son, Albany, Oregon.

Rolla Morris went to Portland last week for a few days' stay.

The Scio Produce Co. is in the market for all kinds of poultry, veal, dressed hogs and rabbits for which the highest market price will be paid. 8tf

Considerable repairs will have to be made on the school building this year. The building was erected 23 years ago.

Poultry will be received at the Scio Produce Co. any day in the week except Saturday. Saturday receipts cannot be shipped until the following Monday and the cost of holding the poultry over must be deducted from the prices paid. Scio Produce Co. 8tf

The Tribune is indebted to Senators Porter and Bell and Representative Thoms for legislative favors in the way of copies of bills proposed in the legislature.

Wool yarns made in Oregon for hand knitting. We have just in a new supply Bishop's fleece yarns, in khaki and oxford gray shades. Orders by phone or mail promptly filled. Salem Woolen Mill Store, 22 4t

Card parties have been held regardless of flu regulations. People who thus violate law, though the same is temporary, are subject to arrest and fine.

Wanted—A 250 or 300-egg incubator; or two 150-egg size. Tell The Tribune what you have and the price for same. 22 4t

Our frog, German carp, pond lily or whatever it may be, is again on deck cheerful as ever. Even the flu has no terrors for him.

Am in the market for wornout and old horses past usefulness. J. D. Densmore.

Mike Kelly, of near Jefferson, was in town last Thursday. Mike says his visits to Scio are few and far between as business does not call him this way.

Benton County Courier: Shorter skirts will be seen. That is not all that will be seen. If they are very much shorter it is hardly probable that the men will see the skirts at all. Short skirts are said to make a woman look shorter. That may be true, but it's a cinch that they make a man look longer.

The Tribune's printer has 148 acres on the headwaters of the Yaquina, four miles from Nashville on the C. & E. with 5-room house and good barn that he will trade for smaller place near Scio. Having unlimited outgrange this is fine place for stock. Good soil.

RIGHT NOW.

If you wish to get well, it matters not what ails you, I am sure I can help you. I have helped thousands to become well. You can see me at my home from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

DR. J. MURPHY,
Scio, Oregon.

PLENTY OF MONEY to loan on good farms; low interest rates; five years time; privilege to pay $100 or multiple on any interest date. Call or write J. M. and H. M. Hawkins, Albany, Oregon.

Miss Mespelt, after a short absence, is back on rural route 4.

The Albany city council is considering the spraying of the streets with sheep dip as a flu preventive.

The high school orchestra practices on Friday evening instead of Wednesday.

While there are a number of new flu cases reported, none are considered as being severe.

If the people could vote tomorrow on the light plant proposition it would carry almost unanimously.

John P. Murphy is home from Bremerton navy yard, having received his final discharge from the service.

Mrs. V. R. Sumpter of Crabtree, was buried last Saturday. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Miller.

Thomas creek, which was getting rather rampagous up to Friday, dropped about six feet during the night.

Dr. Prill has had a heavy load to carry in attending all the sick in this locality. He has done the work which would give two physicians plenty of occupation.

That the "rail birds" and "chickens" who may be seen daily "roosting" in front of the postoffice, waiting for the mail, don't get the flu is one of the wonders.

The Tribune's musical critic is much worried at the inharmonious sound of the water wheels at the mill and light plant and thinks they ought to be tuned.

The steady winter rains were somewhat slow in starting but they arrived all right when winter was half over. At the present rate of precipitation the rain shortage will soon be made up, and then some.

The warm rains of last week filled Thomas creek almost bank full. The high water interfered with operation of the Scio flouring mills and light plant somewhat on Friday.

The people on the south and east sides of Thomas creek don't know whether to get gum boots, stilts or flatboats for their chickens and livestock to get through the flood water with.

E. D. Myers, cashier of the Scio State bank, has been confined to his bed with the flu this week. It is thought his sickness will not develop into pneumonia. In the meantime W. A. Ewing has to do the paying teller act and he has no more sense than to pay off checks with gold and brand new half dollars.

Representative D. C. Thoms came up from Salem Thursday evening to see how his flouring mill force was getting on. He reports that $100,000 is the result of appropriations for the first week. This appropriation was for the immediate emergency of providing sleeps and eats for discharged penniless soldiers.

It's all right, the office frog did not desert us or get froze up during the late cold snap as we feared. On Friday last, when the sun was so bright and the weather balmy, the froggy's soothing and tuneful voice could be heard at all hours of the day. So we should worry.

Joe Warwick had another trouble thrown on him the other day when a mother sheep refused relationship with her offspring and wouldn't let it near her. So Joe had to play nurse, consequently the lamb boards at the hotel.

Enoch Shelton is the proud possessor of one of Dr. Murphy's prize milk goats and we won't be surprised a bit any day to see the goat coming down the street pulling a little red wagon and Enoch holding the lines.

The Tribune has a 6-col. Diamond press in good condition, hand power, for sale at a bargain. Also a 1-form newspaper imposing stone—all at a bargain. 22

The especially warm rains for winter time have brought out about all of what little snow there was in the mountains. Thomas creek has registered 11 feet above low water on two occasions.

The unusually warm January weather of the past few days may result in injury to the fruit crop in pushing the buds along too far to withstand frosts we are sure to have later.

A private letter from C. A. Posvar, of Red Bluff, Cal., states that he and family have all been afflicted with the flu but are all well now. He also expresses the hope that his old friend J. R. Geddes will write news letters to The Tribune more frequently.

The flu epidemic victims throughout the United States make our losses in the European war appear quite insignificant. But like the war the flu preys mostly on the young. We old hulkas, who are worth but little in making up a life invoice, seem to be immune of the epidemic.

The Scio State Bank has received an invoice of new half dollar pieces. We asked President Ewing of the bank: "Where is your machine?" He indicated that such information was not for the public; he thought, perhaps, we might print the information and thus injure the bank's monopoly of new coin distributing.
