Sheriff Kendall is fitting into his new position just like paper on the wall. It is the general opinion of men about Albany that he will make an excellent sheriff.

Representative Thoms drove his car from Salem Saturday morning, and returned Sunday by way of Corvallis where he visited "Daddy" Young.

We make a specialty of Friendship, Engagement and Wedding Rings. F. M. French & Son, Albany, Oregon.

The bill re-training dogs from running at large unmuzzled will, if enacted into law, put to an end the night incursions of sheep-killing dogs. The flockmasters can then sleep undisturbed.

Wool yarns made in Oregon for hand knitting. We have just in a new supply Bishop's fleece yarns, in khaki and oxford gray shades. Orders by phone or mail promptly filled. Salem Woolen Mill Store, 22 4t

A bill is in the legislature increasing the speed allowed automobiles from 25 to 30 miles an hour. Will this law enable autos, which can barely make 25 miles per hour, to run 30?

Wanted—A 250 or 300-egg incubator; or two 150-egg size. Tell The Tribune what you have and the price for same. 22 4t

House bill 162 has for its purpose the prevention of baiting ducks on or about the Columbia river. The bill should become a law. There is scarcely a duck in the upper valley where there used to be thousands, simply because the Portland pot hunters bait them on grounds convenient to their Sunday hunts. Now listen and you'll hear the Portland game hogs squeal.

Am in the market for wornout and old horses past usefulness. J. D. Densmore.

RIGHT NOW.

If you wish to get well, it matters not what ails you, I am sure I can help you. I have helped thousands to become well. You can see me at my home from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. DR. J. MURPHY, Scio, Oregon. 20tf

PLENTY OF MONEY to loan on good farms; low interest rates; five years time; privilege to pay $100 or multiple on any interest date. Call or write J. M. and H. M. Hawkins, Albany, Oregon.

The trial of Henry Albers, one of the rich flour and cereal manufacturers of the Pacific Coast, is now on in the U. S. court in Portland. If the charge of espionage alleged is true, his property should be confiscated and he be sent back to Germany and never allowed to enter U. S. territory again.

A. T. Powell reports that the expectations of people about Gates are great relative to the mines in that vicinity.

Representative Thoms came up from his legislative duties Saturday to see if the boys were keeping the home fires burning brightly. He thinks some road legislation will be enacted worth while at the present session.

For sale—Ten tons of first class cheat hay; will place it aboard the cars at Goltra station at $24 per ton, bales weight. Inquire at The Tribune office.

There is an attraction about the county treasurer's office which did not exist before the first of the year. Miss Powell may be no better bookkeeper than Mr. Francis, but then you know she is a woman, and for that reason adds just a little more pleasure to your visit to the treasurer's office.

Now that spring weather is beginning to show up The Tribune's fisherman printer is getting nervous and anxious to cast his line upon the waters. He also longs for the return of his side kick, that they may amble up Thomas creek and lure the big ones from their hiding places. To tell the truth, the editor wouldn't mind having trout for his breakfast; and there are others.

Cows for Sale—Owing to the fact that I am unable to do the work necessary to care for 7 cows, I am offering 5 of them for sale, buyer to make selection. They are all first class cows and I offer them for sale only because of my infirmities. Eugene Gerard, two miles east of the Jordan store. 24 4t
