Aunt Rebecca Morris spent Friday with her brother, Job Crabtree, who celebrated his 90th birthday.

Poultry will be received at the Scio Produce Co. any day in the week except Saturday. Saturday receipts cannot be shipped until the following Monday and the cost of holding the poultry over must be deducted from the prices paid. Scio Produce Co. 29f

There are many stray dogs running about the country and sheepmen have lost valuable stock raided by these canines. If a dog is worth having he is worth confining at night and being looked after.

Baled Hay For Sale—I have 30 tons of cheat hay for sale; clean and of first class quality; $28 for ton lots. Walter Bilyeu, at the Scio livery barn. 29tf

Republican critics who would like to summon General Pershing as a witness for their side in the case they are trying to make out against their country, may get him on the stand some day—and regret it ever after.

For second hand car bargains, see Fred T. Bilyeu, Ford Garage. 24

It is reported the lumber flume of the Scio Logging and Lumber company is making good progress. This company is not saying much but is doing much work.

The Scio Produce Co. is in the market for all kinds of poultry, veal, dressed hogs and rabbits for which the highest market price will be paid. 29f

After several days of comparatively fine weather our old friend, Jupiter Pluvius, opened up his sprinkling can Monday night.

Anton Stacek left last week to resume his work in a logging camp over in Washington.

Miss Louise Svoboda and Louis Borovicka were guests over Sunday at the home of Rudolf Borovicka.

Dr. Ficq, Scio's new dentist, has arrived and is busy fitting up his offices next door to the postoffice.

Mr and Mrs. Robert Pepperling of Jordan, were attending to business matters in Scio Friday.

Mrs. E. D. Myers left for a short visit with relatives in Portland on Tuesday.

Miss Clara Shelton and Clarence Pepper were married at the Christian parsonage in Albany Wednesday. They at once left for Camas, Wash., where Mr. Pepper is employed in the paper mill.

Wanted—A reliable party to take the agency for a high grade automobile tire and tube on a liberal percentage basis. A good opportunity for a live man. Address, Tri-State Tire Co., 72 Sixth st., Portland, Oregon. 30

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shelton, one day last week, a handsome, rollicking baby goat. They were very anxious to name it "Nanny," but much to their chagrin are compelled to dub him "Billy."

The great desirability of keeping insects reduced by modern orchard practice, as fertilization, thorough cultivation, and attention to pruning and other operations, cannot be emphasized too strongly and is well appreciated by most progressive and successful growers.

A real estate deal of importance was made in this city last week. George Merdian, of Vancouver, Wash., bought both the Sheets and the Simmons property, located just east of the Scio mills. The consideration was not reported. Mr. Merdian will move onto the property in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ohlemeier of Portland, came up Friday evening for a visit with relatives. This is Fred's first visit since he went away last year, but Mrs. Ohlemeier has been here frequently. They report that they are doing well though there seems to be two or three men for every job.

The Scio flouring mills was loading one or two cars with flour last week. Manager Thoms says the government is slow in permitting Oregon mills to sell flour. He says he will soon have to commence shipping wheat unless flour can be moved more liberally. This will be unfortunate for Scio for our dairymen use more mill feed than the offal of wheat ground here will supply.

It beats all how mean jealous people can act. Now there's Bill Brenner, for instance; he got so peeved because he couldn't sit and smoke on our front porch and fish in our frog pond that he hitched his big mules to his big wagon and all week, eight times a day, he drove them thar critters back and forth in an endeavor to so roll our pond that nothing would stay in it.

A private letter from S. E. Penn, a cousin of The Tribune editor, who lives at Lovejoy, Montana, states that on March 1 the thermometer registered 30 degrees below zero. It makes a Willamette Valley denizen shiver to think of such weather. Mr. Penn owned a farm some three miles east of Lebanon several years ago. From there he moved to Alberta, but he could not entertain the idea of not being a citizen of the U. S. so moved back to Montana and became repatriated.

Miss Ellen Johnson, who has been visiting with Mrs. Harmon for some time, left for Montana Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Parker of Redne, spent the week end with the latter's parents, the J. F. Parkers.

Misses Ruth Candy, Leila Couey and Gladys Rodgers made the trip to Portland Friday evening.

Mrs. Ellen Kinzer of Crabtree, is visiting this week at the home of Grandma Compton.

John Plummer was doing business in Albany Tuesday.

A farmer suggests that The Tribune start a ferry across our printer's fish pond. If the heavy spring rains continue we will take the proposition under advisement.

For Sale Immediately—I will sell at $20 per head, 40 milk goats from 2 to 2 pure bred. I am somewhat involved and want to get free. If you want a milk goat, now is your chance. Dr. J. Murphy.
