

LOCAL BREVITIES

The next communication of Scio Masonic lodge will be on Saturday evening, the 12th instant.

Get a bottle of Nyal Sarsaparilla at Kelly's Drug Store.

The Tribune is about out of wood and two cords is wanted; 16-inch preferably.

R. C. Daniel has returned from California and reached Scio Wednesday morning.

Fred T. Bilyeu and family (of course this includes the two school-marms) motored to Lebanon Tuesday evening, combining pleasure and business.

To enable her to visit Scio friends early and often from her Albany residence, Mrs. A. J. Bilyeu has purchased the very latest style Hupmobile through the agency of Fred T. Bilyeu.

E. C. Peery reports a most enthusiastic road meeting at Lebanon with representatives from a large portion of the state. The Tribune editor regrets his inability to have been there. Mr. Peery thinks the consensus of opinion is that the people can vote for but a $600,000 bond issue at the special election in June.

The Tribune presses have just issued the fair and school annual for the 1919 fair.
