The Scio mills are now grinding flour to fill a 1400-barrel contract with the government. This contract will about exhaust the wheat on hand other than enough to supply the local needs.

Portland is holding Oregon back from going over the top in the Victory loan, having yet to raise over $5,000,000. Linn county has raised about 60 per cent of her share and the Scio country about 45 per cent.

Miss Brita Powell, who has been in the telegraph service at Sacramento, Cal., for several years, was married recently. We have forgotten the name of her husband, but they are to reside in Wachita, Kas.

Mohair in this locality is rating at 55 cents per pound. George Rodgers bought about a thousand fleeces at this figure up in the Jordan and Lyons districts Tuesday. An Albany firm contracted the Roseburg clip this week at 60 cents, though the price dropped back to 52 cents the same day.

William H. Warner, of Springfield, New York, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Prill. Mr. Warner is a Civil war veteran, now 80 years of age, and came to the coast to visit a son at Hermiston. Dr. Prill is not a relative but an old college chum of the son of Mr. Warner and was intimate with the Warner family at that time.

A payroll is what builds up a town. This fact became very prominent when the condensery was closed down for a few months. Bank deposits declined near $50,000. So let us encourage every enterprise which will have a payroll. The S. L. & L. Co., when in full operation, will have a payroll of $4000 per month or $50,000 per year. Let us help in every way we can to get the enterprise going.

W. G. Thomas of Wrangell, Alaska, paid The Tribune a most pleasant social call Saturday morning. He is endeavoring to arrange his business matters up in that country so that he can come back to Oregon to remain permanently. He has been up there almost from the time Alaska was ceded to the United States by Russia.
