C O M E !

To Discuss School Laws.

A note from Mrs. Cummings announces that a meeting for clerks and directors will be held in the court house at Albany May 17 to hear the new school laws discussed by F. E. Carleton, assistant state superintendent. Miss Cornelia Marvin, state librarian, will give a talk as to use of library books. The meeting will begin at 10, and all interested are invited to be present.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our dear friends of Scio and community for their many acts of kindness and kind words of sympathy; and for the beautiful floral tributes, during the illness and death of our dear father.

May the same acts of kindness be meted out to you, one and all, when the grim reaper death visits your homes, which in time he will.

May we be so situated as to aid and comfort you in your sad hour as you have in ours.

MRS. JENNIE WARNER

CHARLES N. YOUNG

Nathan Young.

Nathan Young was born in Uniontown, Fayette county, Pennsylvania, July 12, 1829; he moved with his parents to Ohio in 1837.

Mr. Young was married April 16, 1857, to Miss Mary A. Miller. Nine children were born to them, six of whom are living: Alonzo M., of Moro, Oregon; Melvin, of Portland; William H., of Camas, Wash.; Mrs. A. J. Johnson, of Corvallis; Mrs. Jennie Warner, of Scio, and Charles N. of Corvallis.

Mr. Young and family moved from Ohio to Minneapolis, Minn., in 1862, residing there 12 years, engaged in the milling business, afterward operating flouring mills in the following places: S. Francis, Spencer Brook, Anoka, Elk River, Princeton and Dayton, all in Minnesota.

He came from Minnesota to Oregon to start the mill at Stayton in 1875. They made the trip by rail to San Francisco, thence to Portland by steamer. He operated the Stayton mill for several years and afterward operated mills in the following places: Turner, Oregon; Vancouver, Wash.; Sprague, Wash., and Jordan Valley, Oregon. He 1881 he leased and remodeled the Scio flouring mills and has lived here continuously for the past 38 years.

Next to his love for home was his interest in his lodge; he had been a Mason for 65 years, seldom missing a meeting.

His wife died February 2, 1905, and he had lived with his children part of the time, the balance of which he spent at his old home where he passed peacefully away at 4:45 p. m., Tuesday, May 6, 1919, and was laid to rest in the Masonic cemetery Thursday, May 8, with full honors of the craft, three grand lodge officers being present.

One sister survives him, Mrs. Jane Menoher, of Johnstown, Pennsylvania, mother of Major-General Chas. T. Menoher.

Parent-Teachers.

Because the next meeting date of the Association comes on Decoration Day, May 30, the Parent-Teachers will meet a week sooner, on Friday, May 23. As this will be the last meeting before the summer vacation a full attendance and an interesting programme may be expected.

A Musical Treat.

Rightly named was the recital at the school auditorium by the high school orchestra last Thursday evening. While the audience was not large it made up in appreciation what it lacked in size. The several numbers were artistically rendered, several encores being given. The soloists acquitted themselves creditably and all were heartily applauded.

The personnel of the orchestra: Miss Jeannette Wolter, piano; Thomas Prospal, violin; H. L. Robe, cornet; Roy V. Shelton, trombone. The orchestra will play at the Parent-Teacher meeting in the evening of Friday, May 23.

The showers we have had since and including Saturday night have been worth many thousand dollars to Linn county.

ALLIES REFUSE TO DISCUSS TREATY

Germans Send Two Complaints to Clemenceau Regarding Peace Terms.

Paris.—The allies can admit or discussion of their right to insist upon the terms of the peace treaty substantially as drafted.

This is the reply to Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the German peace delegation, who submitted a note to Premier Clemenceau declaring the peace treaty contains demands which could be borne by no people, and many of them incapable of accomplishment.

Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau has also been informed, in answer to his complaint that Germany was asked to sign the allied plan for a league of nations, although not among the states invited to enter it, that the admission of additional member states has not been overlooked, but has been explicitly provided for in the covenant.

The German peace delegation sent two letters to the allied and associated powers declaring that on "essential points the basis of the "peace of right" agreed upon between the belligerents has been abandoned.

The German delegation in additional notes transmitted to M. Clemenceau, as president of the peace conference, proposes changes in the clauses of the peace treaty covering labor problems and asks that prisoners of war be returned immediately after the signing of the preliminaries.

The replies which the council of four sent to the German notes made public, were drawn up, according to the Temps, with the personal and particularly active collaboration of President Wilson.

At The Peoples Theatre

On Saturday and Sunday evenings Mrs. John Wesely will present Dorothy Gish in "Battling Jane," who'd rather fight than eat and who thrived on argument.
