

LOCAL BREVITIES

A. D. S. Peredix Tooth Paste will keep your teeth from decaying, at Kelly's.

The concrete office building, 20x30, at the condensery is now about completed.

Miss Ada Huchison, of Portland, was visiting friends and relatives in this city, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Myers left Friday morning for an outing at Belknap hot springs, in Lane county.

When Evergreen blackberries can be sold at 6 and 7 cents per pound, our young boys and girls can reap a small harvest.

Miss Helen V. Crawford of Lebanon came over Saturday for an over Sunday visit with her sister, Mrs. Georgia Dugger.

W. A. Gilkey, of Gilkey station, thinks the general average of wheat in his section will be 25 bushels, or better, to the acre.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Gill returned last week from a several weeks' visit with their daughter, Mrs. R. E. Hibler, of Seattle.

Wheat yields all the way from 20 to 45 bushels per acre, it is reported. The Tribune would not object to a few acres of that 45-bushel wheat.

Rapid progress is being made on the new residence for Mrs. Sarah Morris. She will have a new home to move into when she returns from the springs.

Henry Bilyeu of Albany was over Tuesday. While Henry was born and raised a short distance east of Scio, he has become quite a stranger to Scio of late years.

With a large crop of wheat, worth $2 per bushel, and the high price of milk, hogs, cattle, etc., Linn county farmers ought to be able to pay their debts this fall.

Some people seem to think their chickens are entitled to run at-large. But they have not that privilege. If such people lose chickens, they are themselves to blame.

Harrison Phillips of Gooch was down Monday. Mr. Phillips says everything is booming up in his country. Demand for lumber unlimited and ditto for labor.

This is the first year in which auto trucks have been used in the delivery of wheat to the Scio mills. Now there are a half dozen or more of them being utilized, hauling from 75 to 150 bushels per load.

Owing to lack of water, the electric lights are now operated only up to midnight. If you awake after that hour and want to catch a flea, you will have to use a lamp.

Lost—A ladies' black purse containing $100 and a few other things. The purse was lost in the edge of or in Scio. Notify E. G. Balschweid. A liberal reward will be paid.

Reports from Breitenbush hot springs say Mrs. Sarah Morris and daughter, Miss Bessie, are getting along nicely. Mrs. Morris is being benefitted by the use of the baths.

Manager Peery, of the condensery, says he will be located in his new office, just across the alley, this week, but this will not prevent him paying the highest market price for milk.

If you see a rather fleshy man, sitting on the shady side of the street when it is warm, or on the sunny side when it is cool, call him Jim Bilyeu. You may be right; you might be wrong, but guessing is good.

Scio is doing some building. A new residence on Main street for Mrs. Sarah Morris, a concrete office building at the condensery and new buildings for the S. L. & L. Co. are now in progress or will be constructed this year.

Henry Bilyeu, of near Albany, was in town on Tuesday.

For dandruff use Penslar Hair Tonic, 50¢ and $1, at Kelly's.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Bilyeu and daughter, Virginia, accompanied by Miss Janette Walter, left Monday for an auto trip to Crater lake.

Dr. and Mrs. Hosch of Lebanon, were in town on Monday. They were guests at the W. A. Ewing home. Dr. Hosch in former years lived in Scio.

Mrs. Will Knauf and children after spending a short visit with her brother, A. L. Shelton, and family, returned to their home at Camas Tuesday morning.

A. L. Ransford came by way of home, Saturday, to visit with home folks before taking up his new location with the largest photographic studio in the Northwest, at Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ewing spent Sunday with Tom Barnes, of Mill City. Mr. Barnes is an uncle of Mr. Ewing, and is 99 years of age. He is said to be in good health, though.

Mrs. J. A. Bilyeu and Miss Nita were over from Albany, Monday, looking after business matters. Mrs. B. has purchased a home in that city, so she informed The Tribune family.

Miss Annie Denman, a Lebanon grade school teacher, came over Saturday for a short visit with The Tribune family. Miss Denman will start for Ketchikan, Alaska, this week, where she has been employed as one of the teachers in the schools up there.

On account of the large number of smallpox cases throughout the country the Scio State bank deemed it a wise thing to fumigate the building after banking hours, Saturday evening. The sulphur used for this purpose was left in a small basin on the stove burning. The smoke created in the room in this way was noticed by passers-by, who surmised that probably some plot might be brewing. These suspicions were very strong and exciting until Mr. Ewing, who was summoned, appeared on the scene and at once solved the mystery.

Mrs. C. M. Coffey spent the week end at Silverton.

Mrs. Al Hepburn of Alderson, Canada, came up Saturday for a visit with her brother, W. M. Phillips.

Roger Cain should have been trying to raise "cain" among buyers this week, but The Tribune guesses he has overlooked the matter.

The merchant who does not invite people to come and see his wares, whether they buy or not is on the same basis with the householder, who refuses to invite the stranger to "come in." The customer or stranger, as the case may be, does not know whether he is welcome or not.

The deer season throughout Oregon will open September 1st, this year, and will continue open until October 31st, according to an announcement made by Carl D. Shoemaker, state game warden, today. The only exception is in Union and Wallowa counties, where the season will open September 10th and close on November 10th.
