

LOCAL NEWS BREVITIES

Workmen retarred the roof of the Masonic hall, Monday.

Charley Warner left for an outing at Breitenbush, Monday.

Mrs. Fred Ohlemeir of Portland is visiting at home this week.

Archie Bond of Albany came up Tuesday for a visit with his brother, Loren.

Glen Clark spent Sunday at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. J. Clark.

Mrs. Oscar Eichinger of east of Scio is the guest of Mrs. D. C. Thomas at Saltair.

Mr. and Mrs. John Welsh of Salem were guests at the Z. J. Clark home over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Werst of Pendleton are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Thayer.

William Walruff, an 18-year-old lad, was drowned while in bathing, at Albany, Sunday afternoon.

The Tribune is under obligations to Miss Christine Shindler and Mrs. Claudia Gill for reeditorial favors.

More grain will probably be offered the Scio Milling Co., this year, than there is warehouse room for.

Mrs. A. Barriek and baby of Corvallis are this week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Munkers.

Mrs. D. C. Thomas of Scio is visiting her father, D. A. Osborne, at Saltair and enjoying the ocean breezes.

Workmen report they have just completed a handsome farm house for William Kalina, of near Crabtree.

Steve Philippi is about ready to trade his "tin Lizzie" for a dog and then give some boy a nickle to shoot the dog.

At the rate fire is destroying timber this year, if repeated a few years lumber will become a sort of luxury soon.

Only one more week of summer and Mill street remains unimproved. Our frog pond will be on hand next winter, as usual.

Dr. Murphy has lately purchased a bunch of very highly bred milk goats. He obtained them over at Toledo, on Yaquina bay.

Big dance at the Richardson Gap hall, Saturday, August 23. Music will be furnished by the Arnold Jazzers. Everybody welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mesfelt and daughter, Opal, left, Tuesday, on an auto trip to California. They carried camping equipage with them.

Clinton Parker and wife of Redne were transacting business in town. They have purchased the old Sam Bass place and will take possession at once.

Scio women who pick evergreen blackberries rig themselves properly for the business. They wear the "mother hubbard" usually worn by men and boys only.

Mrs. E. H. Hobson, on and after September 1st, will have millinery goods on sale at J. F. Wesely's store. But the general opening will be September 10th.

The biggest load of wheat (wagon or truck) ever brought to Scio was brought in from the Lacombe country, on Thursday of last week. The load weighed in about 175 bushels.

Mill street: How about it? When it is dry, it does not need fixing; when it is wet, you can't fix it. So that is the question. That is to say, this is the way some of the property owners reason the matter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Roloff of Sweet Home were down Monday. They will buy property here, probably, and move thereto about Oct. 1. Mr. Roloff is a very successful auctioneer at all kinds of public sales.

Invite People to Your Store

The merchant who does not advertise in his local paper these days is a loser. If he is not willing to extend an invitation to people to come to his store, daily or weekly, as the case may be, he is a back number. New customers will be exceedingly scarce and old customers will go where they are invited. This is the way people look at this matter, Mr. Merchant; so be wise. If you think newspaper advertising is a donation to the editor, don't do it; for people will find there is something wrong with you.

Of course, dishonest merchants advertise. They are fishing for suckers, and they get them. But you, Mr. Merchant, are doing a legitimate business; you are doing business for a profit. But you must convince the people who buy, that you will not rob them. They must be convinced that you are a Fair Dealing Merchant, and you cannot do that unless they come to your store. Savvy!

Army Goods for Scio

There is a limited supply of army goods ready for sale to the public and any one desiring any of these articles must apply at the postoffice and pay for the goods and the postage from San Francisco.

The following articles are for sale: Baked beans, stringless beans, dry beans, corned beef, roast beef, corn, cherries, corn beef hash, peas, flour, rice, pepper, tomatoes and bacon, in cans.

Bacon, 100 pounds	$29.01
Rice, 100 pounds	19.81
Corn, 24 2-pound cans	4.35
Tomatoes, 12 10-lb cans	7.99
Roast beef, 24 2-lb cans	17.91

No case will be divided, but several parties may order together if a case is not desired.

Bill Parker of Centralia, Wash., spent the forepart of last week with his brother, J. F. Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ewing and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gill drove to the Wilhoit springs, Sunday.

Eli DeLong has commenced to move to town for the winter and is at the present time laying in his supply of wood.

Henry Bauman, who lives near the edge of town, sold his farm to a man by the name of Chutich, a newcomer, on Wednesday.

Miss Lola Westinghouse, Lulu Clark, Leta Couey and Gladys Rodgers left Wednesday morning for a week's outing at Newport.

Mrs. Haman Shelton, who is known as Aunt Ollie Shelton, and who recently experienced a paralytic stroke, is slowly improving.

If the gas one hears on the streets could be used to operate autos and trucks with, the Standard Oil company would be forced to cut prices.

There is demand for a number of houses in Scio which cannot be supplied at the present time, and the call will be more pronounced a few weeks later.

When the contemplated condenser improvements are complete, Scio will have a manufacturing industry of which any town would be proud.

The American Can Co. sent Manager E. C. Peery a sample of the rapid-fire shells that company manufactured during the war, this week. It can be seen in the show window of the Kelly drug store.

Why Don't You Wear Kryptok Glasses?

Yes, I, too, wore those old-fashioned bifocals with their disfiguring seam or hump. Why wear the mark of advancing years?

Ask your optometrist or optician about KRYPTOK GLASSES, the invisible bifocal.

E. C. MEADE, Optometrist.

The forest fires makes the timber speculator somewhat uneasy. He has reason to be. More timber has now been destroyed than for many years and the fires are not yet out.

To Whom It May Concern

The party who took my buggy from the livery barn, some time ago, without leave, is known to me. If he would avoid trouble and costs of prosecution, he will do well to settle for same at once. JOHN PLUMMER.
