Football.

ful drawing card to the young man football fan. He is an admirer of the winning team and aspires to be a member. If he is a good player, or is of promising material, the college will make conditions as favorable as possible in order to secure him as a student. Indeed, some of the young men of this class regard football as the principal feature of his college career and too often is so encouraged by the college faculty.

Sport is a necessity to the school-boy or college student. He needs the physical exercise which sport provides. At the same time The Tribune believes this requirement can be provided by a less hazardous, less brutal pastime than football.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford Coupe, with electric self starting and lighting system, has a big, broad seat deeply upholstered. Sliding plate glass windows so that the breeze can sweep right through the open car. Or in case of a storm, the Coupe becomes a closed car, snug, rain-proof and dust-proof. Has all the Ford economies in operation and maintenance. A car that lasts and serves satisfactorily as long as it lasts. Demountable rims with 3 1/2-inch tires all around. For the doctor and travelling salesman it is the ideal car.
