

LOCAL NEWS BREVITIES

Miss Wells from Jungletown did shopping in Scio Monday.

D. C. Thoms went to Portland the front of the week on business.

Lumber hauling through town to West Scio was in evidence Tuesday.

Fred T. Bilyeu reports that he sold and delivered 15 cars in January.

Our printer is learning to drive with one hand. Ahem.

Owing to so much illness it is deemed advisable to postpone the meeting scheduled for tonight by the Parent-Teacher Association.

Most every one thinks a first class Oregon rain would do much toward clearing out the grip, or flu, epidemic now getting plentiful.

Operation of boring for oil at LaComb is said to now be under way. Casing for a 500-foot bore is on the ground.

Born—February 6, to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hassler of LaCrosse, Wash., a 12-pound boy. Mr. and Mrs. Hassler are well known here.

D. C. Thoms, C. W. Bragg and J. A. C. Brant report having enjoyed a visit to Jefferson lodge of Masons last Friday evening.

Roscoe Daniels having sold his farm near Scio has purchased one slightly larger near Newberg, 22 miles from Portland, and is removing thereto this week.

But a small amount of rain in January and none in February, indicates the weather clerk is too busy dishing up weather on the Atlantic coast to pay attention to Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lindley of Aumaville are in Scio at the home of their son Archie, who with his entire family are besieged with the flu.

Mrs. Mary Hodge, who came up from Camas the first of the week, stated that she, husband and children will remove to Scio within a few days or as soon as they could secure possession of their home in this city.

When we get electric juice from Jordan we will be bothered with neither high nor low water, and we can turn on the lights when we need them, day or night.

The Myers farm east of Scio, advertised for sale in The Tribune last week, was sold, we are informed, to John Leffler. It pays to advertise in The Tribune; it gets results.

A report via grapevine route tells of a fight between two of the gentler sex, occurred at Jungletown last week in which chicken feed, a cow and a good sized stick figured.

Stolz Hill school district will commemorate the death of all Linn county boys who paid the supreme penalty during the late war. Scio will account for three of the deaths.

The temptation to witness a big prize fight proved too strong for Rol Morris so he hid himself to Portland yesterday to see the go between Tommy Gibbons and Boy McCormick for the light heavy weight championship of the world.

There are quite a number of flu cases in town and the surrounding suburbs, including two of our rural mail carriers. None of them seem to be serious, with no pneumonia so far. Years ago it was called the grip.

J. R. Jones recently sold his 84-acre farm to Mr. Manhart who will take possession about April 1 and Mr. Jones will move to Scio.

Engineer Cunningham of Portland who made the surveys for the Jordan power project, guarantees to deliver 208 horse power in Scio at extreme low water in Thomas creek. The amount of power is likely to be nearer 225, for he would make his estimate low enough to be absolutely sure. At present we have but 85 horse power at a medium stage of water.

Vilas Philippi is down in the southern part of the state after sheep.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Myers and son Van expect to start for Oklahoma to visit relatives next week.

Mrs. W. F. Walker of Springfield was an over Sunday visitor with Mrs. Kester last week.

C. A. Everett is reported to be holding his own fairly well, some days a seeming improvement is made.

Scio has the habit of making everything go she undertakes. Let the habit grow.

H. B. Pendleton and family, who have been visiting at the B. M. Myers home, returned to Portland Monday.

The Scio high school girls played rings around the Hubbard girls last Friday in a score of 40 to 11. The next game will probably be with Corvallis.

The league of nations treaty is again before the U. S. senate. Chairman Hays and Senator Lodge must have heard from the country.

Miss Christine Shindler, bookkeeper at the bank, is taking a vacation. She has the flu. In her absence Ed Myers is wrestling with the books.

It's an old saying that God helps those who afe willing to or try to help themselves. Scio can make this effort to help herself on February 23, if she will.

Today is the anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln, one of the greatest statesman America has produced. Compare the teachings and principles he advocated with the average republican principles and doctrines of today and they harmonize about as well as an egg and a potato. The comparison would fit the democrats rather better than it does the republicans.

First Death from Flu.

The first death from influenza occurring in this vicinity was at Shelburn Wednesday noon when Mrs. George Miller died.

Mrs. Miller had had an attack but was able to be about the house and wait on her husband who also was ill, when she took a relapse, developing bronco pneumonia and pleurisy, dying within 42 hours.

Mrs. Miller is a sister of John and Tally Gibbons and Mrs. J. W. Miller.

Money Could Not Save Him.

Henry Albers, Portland millionaire, convicted of espionage by the federal court in that city, no doubt spent a large sum of money and would have spent more if it would keep him out of the pen, lost out in the San Francisco court of appeals and will now have to don the stripes at McNeil island and serve his sentence of three years. In addition he will pay a fine of $10,000.

Another rich Portland man, Sorrenson, was convicted of driving an automobile while intoxicated and sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and serve a jail sentence of six months by the police trial court. He appealed his case to the circuit court in that city which released him from the jail sentence.

To an outsider it looks as though money wields an influence before the Portland court while the U. S. court is adamant. The difference may be due to the fact that the U. S. judge holds his position for life, while the circuit judge holds for but a measly six years. Moral: Keep out of the U. S. courts, boys.

PIANOS PIANOS PIANOS
