I pledge allegiance to my flag and the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

SCIO, OREGON, APRIL 8, 1920

Beware!

Beware the deadly sitting habit,
Or if you sit, be like a rabbit,
Who keepeth ever on the jump,
With springs concealed beneath his rump.

A little ginger 'neath the tail
Will oft for lack of brains avail.
Man was not made to sit in a trance
An' press an' press an' press his pants
But rather with an open mind
To circulate among his kind.

And so, my son, avoid the snare
Which lurks within a cushioned chair.
To run like hell, it has been found,
Both feet must be upon the ground.

If Abraham Lincoln were alive today is there any American who has studied his great human heart, or who appreciates his abhorrence of war, who would doubt that Lincoln would be advocating that the nations of the earth enter solemnly into a covenant whereby peace would be substituted for war and national jealousy and commercial controversies would no longer be the incubators of famine, pestilence and war; for did not Lincoln say that it was the duty of the nation "to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves and with all nations"?

A Mexican woman of Montezuma gave birth, so press dispatches say, to septettes on March 22; three girls and four boys. This is certainly the record for any country in the world. The children weighed two pounds each and perfectly developed in every respect.

Next January our navy will engage in a sham battle off the Pacific end of the canal. The bout is to be under war conditions, the Atlantic fleet against the Pacific.

A Pittsburg surgeon has stitched a cut made with a knife in the heart of one of his patients. The man recovered.

Ohio has a woman, 21 years old, who has been married 22 times. She is some rustler.

E. E. Smith, editor of the Tax Liberator, has announced his candidacy for congress from the Portland district for the second time.

Theodore P. Shonts, one of the Panama canal builders, is dead.

A man advertised in a daily newspaper for a wife. He said later: "I can't say that advertising in this case pays, but I'll tell the world that it certainly brings results."

With Hoover a pronounced republican his rapidly growing popularity as a candidate is sure to become an important factor at Chicago. Should he be nominated, with a forward-looking progressive platform, he is sure of election. The Tribune would like to see the San Francisco convention endorse the nomination. A platform upon which Hoover can stand will be good enough for the people.

From the present outlook Mrs. Ida M. Cummings will have no opposition in either party for re-election to her present office. As she has made good as an official there is no reason why there should be.

Indications are at the present that a hot time will be had at the Chicago republican convention. Wood and Lowden are accused of a profligate expenditure of money in conducting their canvass, by both senators, Borah and Johnson, and no doubt, if any other candidate manifests any considerable popularity, some grave fault will be charged against him.

There is less scramble for county office in Linn county this year than at any time for 50 years. People must be too busy to run for office.

Should all the millage taxes proposed be successful it will add approximately $108,600 to the Linn county tax roll annually.

Miss Lenore Powell, as county treasurer, and Miss Velma Davis as recorder, have both proven their efficiency as officials and have conducted their respective offices at less cost than was the case under their predecessors. The people will do well to retain them in office.

The I. W. W. has now probably learned that the United States will not tolerate any sort of organization, secret or otherwise, whose purpose is to overturn our government by violence. There is but one way to change the American government and that is by a majority vote of the people. A strong minority tried to destroy the government in the '60s, but failed after a four years' war. These offscourings and criminals of Europe, who are permitted to land on our shores, may as well learn, first as last, that we do not want them nor need them in our business. They, in their associations with the I. W. W. are guilty of treason, and "the penalty of treason is death." Such men as attorney Vanderveer and others who defend this treasonable organization and its members will be wise if they aid in ousting the treasonable crowd instead of defending it, in the name of liberty.

Spring Stuff.

On cold, wet mornings like to these,
Scio's poor soul is like mint freeze,
Spicy, but icy, and, Louise,
One shivers in one's B V Ds.

The buds upon the hopeless trees
Flirt gaily with th' wand'ring breeze.
Old Tige, with glee, digs at his fleas,
But I am conscious of bare knees.

The weather's variant degrees
Are too precipitate to please.
A slothful soul that loves its ease
Might say much more—there's bees and peas
And glees and sneeze and lees an' teas
Also Chinese and Japanese.
Not to mention limburger cheese.
Whew, let's end this dreary wheeze.

"Life, Liberty, Etc."

And right here, in North Bend, (Oregon) one of those cheap government stinkfoots followed us from Sherman avenue to our office door almost. And do you know what gave him that great idea? We had carried a suitcase up into the Western Home for the lady who is working for us. We suppose we should have let her carry her own suitcase to avoid making those "hookworm" gents nervous.—Bee

Big Educational Campaign Prepared.

This series of conferences represents only an intermediate stage in a great campaign of intensive education in practical Christianity preparatory to the united appeal for missionary funds and workers which will be held by the Protestant denominations co-operating in the Interchurch Movement between April 25 and May 2. The members of the team that will address the county conference were themselves trained as a "faculty" of specialists in the various aspects of the Movement at a series of state and pastors' conferences. Similarly, those who attend the county conference will in turn form a "faculty" for interpreting the message of the Interchurch Movement to their local churches.

Thus it is expected that before April 25 the ideal of church co-operation advocated by the Interchurch World Movement, in place of church competition, and the program of evangelization that goes with it, will be familiar to every one of the fifty million Protestants in the United States.

NO SCHOOLS FOR CHINESE.

There are at least 60,000,000 young people of school age in China for whom there are at present no educational facilities at all. Included in the program of the Interchurch World Movement which will be explained at the conference to be held in this county early in April are five universities in China each involving the cooperation of from four to six denominations.
