Peace Disturbers.

Charley Compton is very much incensed at a bunch of boys in our town who are in the habit of collecting in the neighborhood of the school house of evenings and by loud noises and swearing and vulgar language greatly disturb the peace. Compton says his mother is old and feeble and the unnecessary hoodlumism worries her considerably. He says it must be stopped and names Teddy Sims as the chief offender. Boys, be warned in time or it will lead to peace officers taking the matter up. City marshal get busy.

The Bigger they are
The Harder they fall

We don't expect our 130 to 170 pound customers to go into ecstasy over this announcement.

BUT, that portly portion of our mailing list that tips the scales at 190 up will have reason to be all smiles when they read it.

The (Michaelis-Stern) Spring STOUTS walked in on us this week, and every slim and regular sized suit in the house felt its nose go out of joint when these bouncing babies arrived.

If you are getting to a place where your waist measure is running neck and neck with your chest measure you will like them—and the bigger you are the harder you'll fall.

DOUGHNUTS and CRULLERS

From the NEW ROYAL COOK BOOK

DOUGHNUTS made the doughboy happy during the war and no wonder. There is nothing more wholesome and delightful than doughnuts or crullers rightly made. Their rich, golden color and appetizing aroma will create an appetite quicker than anything else in the world.

Here are the famous doughnut and cruller recipes from the New Royal Cook Book.

Doughnuts

3 tablespoons shortening
1 cup sugar
1 egg
1 cup milk
1 teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon salt
3 cups flour
4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder

Cream shortening; add sugar and well-beaten egg; stir in milk; add nutmeg, salt, flour and baking powder which have been sifted together and enough additional flour to make dough stiff enough to roll. Roll out on floured board to about 1/4 inch thick; cut out. Fry in deep fat hot enough to brown a piece of bread in 60 seconds. Drain on unglazed paper and sprinkle with powdered sugar.

Afternoon Tea Doughnuts
2 eggs
4 tablespoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon grated nutmeg

2 tablespoons shortening
4 tablespoons milk
1 cup sugar
2 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
Beat eggs until very light; add sugar, salt, nutmeg and melted shortening; add milk, and flour and baking powder which have been sifted together; mix well. Drop by teaspoons into deep hot fat and fry until brown. Drain well on unglazed paper and sprinkle lightly with powdered sugar.

Crullers

4 tablespoons shortening
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
3 cups flour
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder

1/2 cup milk
Cream shortening; add sugar gradually and beaten eggs; sift together flour, cinnamon, salt and baking powder; add one-half and mix well; add milk and remainder of dry ingredients to make soft dough. Roll out on floured board to about 1/4 inch thick and cut into strips about 4 inches long and 1/4 inch wide; roll in hands and twist each strip and bring ends together. Fry in deep hot fat. Drain and roll in powdered sugar.
