at Hermiston will be closed June 30, owing to lack of funds.

Farmers of Yamhill county attended a three-day Oregon Agricultural college extension school at Amity.

Higher water and electric light rates for Eugene beginning June 1 have been announced by the Eugene water board.

Arthur Thompson, charged with the murder of Odie Bates at Riddle, some weeks ago, was acquitted by the trial jury.

John Friend Chitwood, an Oregon pioneer of 1853 and a resident of Clatsop county since 1879, died at Astoria following an extended illness.

Careless campers are blamed for a number of small fires within and near the boundaries of the Deschutes national forest in the Big river section.

A grain-grading school conducted by Professor G. E. Hislop of Oregon Agricultural college will operate in The Dalles three days, June 14, 15 and 16.

Dehydration plants of the Kings Food Products company in The Dalles and at Salem will process $2,000,000 worth of fruits and vegetables this season.

A meeting of the Mooseheart Legion for the district including the lodges at Albany, Eugene, Corvallis, Cottage Grove, Mill City and Toledo, was held at Albany.

Highway work in the state will not be rushed this year because of the scarcity of labor, the depressed bond market and other reasons, according to R. A. Booth, state highway commissioner.

Governor Olcott has announced that he will appoint A. Lester Abdrus of Portland to succeed George Black as a member of the state board of accountancy at the expiration of the latter's term, June 3.

Sam A. Kozier, nominated at the recent republican primary election for the office of secretary of state, was appointed to that position following the resignation of Governor Olcott as secretary of state.

One of the chief occupations at present in Crook county is sheep shearing. The grade of wool this year is extra high. Prices of 50 and 60 cents a pound have been turned down by owners of large bands.

Following the refusal made by the merchants' association of Bend to sign a contract submitted by the local clerks' union, specifying that the employers should agree to the closed shop principle, a strike was called.

The secretary of the interior reported to Representative Sinnott that enlarged homestead designations, aggregating 293,730 acres, have been made in The Dalles land district, covering more than 500 applications on file.

The largest parade in Baker's history, in which 2000 Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, with bands, mounted guards and automobiles participated marked the third day of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs annual state convention in Baker.

Pendleton's postoffice will have classification as first class after July 1, according to notification received from the department by Acting Postmaster Lester E. Cronin. The stamp sales for the office during the past year were over $40,000.

Defeat of the three measures designed to furnish financial relief for the Portland Railway, Light & Power company by the voters of Portland at the special election has resulted in another application for increased rates on the traction lines of the corporation being filed with the Oregon public service commission.

By careful management during the remainder of the present biennial period, based on the expenditures of the last six months, it is believed the total deficit of the several state institutions for the two years ending January 1, 1921, will not exceed $25,000, according to figures made public by R. B. Goodwin, secretary of the state board of control.

Plans are being made at Prineville for the only celebration of Independence day in central Oregon. The celebration will be double-barreled, in honor not only of July 4 but also the completion of the Ochoco irrigation project dam. In addition to the celebration, Prineville will hold its first annual round-up at the interstate fair grounds, July 2, 3 and 4.

To give George L. Hurr, wealthy potato broker, the opportunity of presenting his side of the case in regard to agitation which has started in the north end of Deschutes county against the employment of Japanese labor on his extensive agricultural holdings, the Bend commercial club voted to take no action in regard to the controversy until Mr. Hurr appears before the club early in June. The report of a committee now at work drafting anti-Japanese resolutions will be deferred until that time.

One of the features of the entertainment for the Grand Army of the Republic at the state encampment at Astoria on June 8 will be a big salmon dinner for the veterans, their ladies and the members of the affiliated organizations. The encampment will continue three days and in the neighborhood of 1000 visitors from various parts of the state are expected.

Papuan Oil.

Australia and Great Britain have each undertaken to spend up to $250,000 in connection with Papuan oil development and two British geologists will probably begin work in the immediate future, pursuing the experiments already made by the commonwealth. Papua and the Pacific islands generally are interesting the universities of Australia which are considering the need for the study of anthropology and of native customs and languages. As a groundwork for such an investigation there exist an interesting series of governmental reports by patrol officers and other official pioneers of the new Pacific.
