DEADLOCK IS BROKEN ON THE 44TH BALLOT

James M. Cox of Ohio and Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York Head Democratic Ticket.

At close to 2 a. m. Tuesday, Gov. James M. Cox of Ohio, was declared the winner of the presidential nomination at San Francisco.

Gov. Cox is regarded as a strong candidate by many. Others say he is weak. But the above would have been the verdict no matter who was made the nominee.

The fact that Mr. Cox has been honored by being three times elected by his home state, once when Mr. Harding was his opponent, shows that the people who know him best regard him highly. It may be set down as a fact that in Ohio at least the presidential contest will be a veritable horse race.

The candidates, Harding and Cox are very evenly matched. Both stand equally well with the business interests; neither may be said to be radically "dry", partisanly "wet".

Either, if elected, will enforce the execution of the Volstead law. Mr. Cox may have a slight edge with women suffrage and also organized labor. Both are American in the complete sense of the term and either will look after American interests. Mr. Cox is flatly favorable to the league of nations, while Mr. Harding is understood to favor the Lodge reservations.

Now that both conventions are over, neither can be said to have been absolutely controlled by the political machine.

The policy of either candidate is yet to develop, for which we must wait for their speeches of acceptance.

It is probable a third party may develop and which may change all of the present indicated political conditions.

Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, assistant secretary of the navy, was nominated for vice-president by acclamation.

The Oregonian has commenced mudslinging at candidate Cox, even before final count of the votes at the convention was completed. The chief mudslinger was attending the convention.

Nervous Breakdown.

Edward Wesely, one of Scio's leading young men, was taken to Portland last week for treatment for nervousness due to overwork. Ed is a very energetic young man and any work he undertakes, physical or mental, he gives every ounce of energy to it. The result of overtaxing oneself is breakdown. Besides having several instrumental music pupils, he is conducting gardening extensively, overtaxing himself. The course of treatment became necessary and it was thought best to take him to a specialist. It is thought that he will be restored to health in a short time.

Jerome Smith and Jack Boyd, sawmill men of Scappoose, were in Scio this week on business.

Birthday Party.

A pleasant birthday surprise party was given Grandma Fleming Sunday, it being her 80th birthday. The neighbors met at noon and in a body drove to the Fleming home. The day was spent in playing social games, croquet, singing, etc. At noon a bounteous dinner was spread under the shade of the trees. Ice cream was a popular dish, some 15 gallons being consumed.

A number of useful presents were given Grandma. Exactly 99 people representing the following named families were present: Z. J. Clark, E. L. Bilyeu, D. H. Hildreth, G. W. Arnold, M. P. Long, Wm. Rhoda, Bert Hollis, O. E. Eichinger, Tony Rosprafka, James Piatt, R. C. Pettie, B. I. Arnold, J. W. Merritt, G. E. Rodgers, Wilbur Fleming, Mrs. Bartu, E. A. Wagner, Ed Fleming, Tom Fleming, R. F. Darby, John Neal, G. Westenhouse, John Shelton, A. W. Arbuckle, Vilas Arnold, J. B. Couey, Clinton Arnold, Elton Greenwood.

SANTIAM FARM TOPICS

Mrs. Lovejoy, Mrs. Gaines and Mrs. Rebecca Morris returned home Saturday evening from the pioneers' picnic at Portland where for four days they had the time of their young lives. They also took in the Columbia highway.

Clarence Lovejoy came over from Dallas to take his wife home by way of the celebration at Albany.

G. A. and Elmer Griffin took in the celebrations at Stayton Saturday and Albany Monday.

Art Gaines and Mrs. M. C. Gaines went to Portland Sunday to see her mother who is paralyzed at her sister's, Angie Gaines.

Grain, potatoes and corn are needing rain, as the yield is diminishing every day without rain.

Ed Kalina has 80 acres of the finest spring wheat I have seen in years and promises 40-50 bushels to the acre; corn shoulder high, and hay immense.

The old man is supplying the mill boarding house with vegetables and it takes a lot as they are big eaters.

We are all quite sorry to learn of Ed Wesely's illness.

The Santiam Farm still has gooseberries, rhubarb, onions, beets, cabbage, new potatoes galore.

PIE EATER.

County Hires Medium.

Champaign, Ill.—The board of supervisors has allowed a claim of $50 for the services of a clairvoyant in locating the body of a boy who was drowned six weeks ago.

The body was found several days after the drowning occurred. The clairvoyant said the body had drifted under two bridges and that the head was fast in a barrel.

The body was found within two feet of where the medium had designated and the head was fast in a tub.

Mrs. Frances Harmon, Mary and the two orphans, left last week to visit their farms near Monroe for a short stay.

LONDON SENDS SWORD TO GENERAL PERSHING

American Commander Accepts Be-jeweled Gift in Name of Men of America.

Washington, July 5.—Great Britain does not forget those who prove themselves its friends in the hour of need, Sir Auckland Geddes, British ambassador to the United States, told General Pershing today in presenting him a bejeweled sword as a gift of the city of London. The presentation was made at the British embassy before a distinguished company.

Commenting on the celebration today of America's independence, "wrung from an autocratic government by the spirit of individual freedom astir in many lands," Sir Auckland recalled in those days "there were many on both sides of the Atlantic who thought the action of the framers of your constitution right. There is none now, I believe, on either side of the Atlantic who does not think they were right. Though neither you nor we are all of English stock, the memories of Runnymede are a possession of all your people as they are a living memory and possession of all the British people."

General Pershing accepted the sword "in the name of the men of America who, with the men of Great Britain and our other allies, combined the courage and skill that brot a new victory to our race and to all those who seek justice and liberty for mankind."

"The glorious thing for this generation of British and Americans to have had the privilege of battling together will be still more glorious, if in harmonious co-operation they can aid in the restoration of the world and guide the future of less fortunate peoples into channels that will insure peace to future generations. It is significant that Anglo-Saxon people everywhere wholeheartedly join in celebrating the birth of American independence."

C. S. Mullen Dead.

C. S. Mullen, a resident of Linn county exactly half a century, died Sunday night at his home about 8 miles east of Albany, aged 70 years. He was a veteran member of the Albany Masonic lodge and was active for many years in republican politics in Linn county.

Mr. Mullen was a native of Indiana and came to Oregon when he was 20 years old. He located on a farm on which he resided continuously until a few years ago when he moved to Albany; going back to the farm five years ago. He is survived by his widow and two sons.

At The Peoples Theatre

For this week, Saturday and Sunday evenings at the Peoples Theatre "Checkers" will be given. It is a picture of racing horses and is quite exciting. There will also be the usual weekly comedy.
