

LOCAL NEWS BREVITIES

Harvest is now far enough along to demonstrate that the average yield of both wheat and oats is below what was expected six weeks ago. 15 bushels per acre of wheat and 30 of oats, will be near the average yield.

C. C. Bilyeu sold his confectionery stock, fixtures and business to Bert Hollis, of near Seio. Mr. Hollis was to take charge September first.

The showers of Saturday night, raised the creek several inches so there is plenty of power now for the mill and light plant.

The largest share of the hauling done in Seio and vicinity of wood, grain, milk and milk products is by motor truck. In fact two-thirds of the vehicles one can see in town or passing through are auto and motor trucks.

Last week P. H. Macdonald bought the pool-room and now is in charge of the same. He has owned the building since it was built.

The rain of last Friday, while it delayed harvest for a day or so, it did no actual harm. On the other hand it did much good. It put out the forest fires, laid the dust and started the grass growing.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Nellie Henderson and her daughter, Mrs. Lottie Sheridan, both of Oakland, Cal., stepped into the Tribune office. Mrs. Henderson is the daughter-in-law of the feminine boss of the Tribune editor. They had not been in Oregon for ten years and Mrs. Lottie felt somewhat out of humor with the Oregon rain, saying it came to spoil their visit.

The Tribune learns that Mr. and Mrs. Art Shelton contemplate visiting Mr. Shelton's sister, Mrs. Yarbrough, who lives at or near Ashland, within the next few days.

It is a hard matter for political independents to say where they stand these days.

Harvest work is again under full headway and will be completed next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rahn, of Albany, were in town last Thursday.

Miss Mary Walters, who is working in Portland, arrived Thursday to spend the week end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of Portland, spent the week end with Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ambrose.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Halada and children, of Mill City, came down Friday for a short visit with the latter parents, Frank Rosprafka's.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Thoma, of Seattle, were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Thoma, from Thursday to Sunday, of last week. They drove through in their Oakland and report a fine trip.

John Brock brought a sample of prunes to the Tribune Tuesday, which he is raising on his young 14½ acre orchard, just in bearing this year.

Mrs. G. M. Flook, of Mehama, was transacting business in town Friday.

Mrs. Chas. Hollis, who has been visiting with relatives and friends, returned Thursday to her home in Portland.

Miss Lulu Clark returned from a short visit in Salem Sunday.

Mrs. Hynos and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, of Chicago, arrived Wednesday for a weeks visit with the J. F. Patry family.

J. S. Warwick and Clifton Compton left for the huckleberry patch Monday morning.

Jorie Gaines, of Portland, motored up to his farm on Thomas creek Sunday.

Miss Dolly Hoagland, of Vancouver, spent Sunday visiting friends in town.

Mrs. Jos. Liska and son Amon, made a business trip to Albany Sunday.

Miss Bertha Patry has taken a position as clerk in J. F. Wesely's store and assumed her duties Monday morning.

Loren Bond spent Sunday with his parents, near Albany.

Conrad Westenhause and Miss Gladys Rodgers were united in marriage at Albany Sunday.

Printer Brant was in town a short time Thursday evening, returning from a visit to his ranch in Lincoln county. He evidently came through Seio for something he wished to take to Salem; where he will spend the rest of his vacation. He did not come to the shop to say howdy, evidently not being hungry for the smell of printer's ink.

THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

—is maintained by the state in order that the young people of Oregon may receive, without cost, the benefits of a liberal education.

The University includes the College of Literature, Science and the Arts, the Graduate School, the School of Physical Education, and the professional Schools of Law, Medicine (at Portland), Architecture, Commerce, Journalism, Education and Music.

High standards of scholarship are made possible by an able faculty, well equipped laboratories and a library of nearly 100,000 volumes.

Supervised athletics are encouraged and every attention given the health and welfare of the students.

With a heightened confidence gained by the recent expression of public support, the University is now entering upon an era of large development and extended usefulness.
