Mrs. Ellwood at Home

When Mrs. R. L. Ellwood reached her home last Saturday noon, after an absence of eight weeks in the Scio Hospital, she was agreeably surprised to find friends there to welcome her. A warm dinner awaiting her and the table fairly groaning with the good things. This was in honor of her home coming and also to commemorate the advent of Mr. and Mrs. Ellwood's thirty-sixth wedding anniversary. They having been married Sept. 25, 1884, at Ord, Nebraska.

A very pleasant social time was had by all. Those present were: Mesdames Effie Sommer, Lizzie Gilkey, Amanda Apple, Cora Smith, Myrtle McDonald and Edna Gilkey, Misses Sonette Sommer, Marion Gilkey and Franklin Gilkey who acted as chauffeur for the crowd.

High School Class Officers Elected

Last Friday the students of the Scio High School met to elect officers for the first semester of '20-'21.

The results of the election were: Kenneth Hiron . . . President
Elfreda Thayer . . . Vice President
John Densmore . . . Secretary
Ernest Tuckey . . . Sergeant-at-Arms

An interesting contest is also being staged in which the students are divided into two factions, the Junior-Seniors against the Sophomore-Freshmen in an endeavor to obtain the highest enrollment for the first six weeks of school. This contest is being watched closely and it is hoped will be a very great help to the school's enrollment.
